

Home Affairs.

Clearfield, Pa. Sept. 13, 1860.

On our first page will be found the address of the Democratic Executive Committee. It is full of patriotic truths well told and we bespeak for it a candid perusal by every conservative man in the county.

Some Snails.—We learn that on Monday, the 3d inst., Mr. Abbott of Huston tp., in this county while gathering blackberries came upon a den of rattle snakes, upon which he succeeded in killing 56 of quite a large size.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—Our fair grounds are rapidly hastening toward completion, and the race course is now about completed, and fast gates, and some that are not so fast, can pitch in at pleasure.

THE CENSUS.—Mr. J. G. Hall finished up the Census of this borough on last Saturday, the return shows a population of 763 against 503 inhabitants in 1850.—This is an alarming increase and its no wonder we are a fast town, at the same ratio in 1870 those who live to see it will find at least one thousand men, woman and children in the Clearfield City.

TRAVELING.—This prosperous business, still continues; notwithstanding the "terrors of the law." Whether more are getting worse in these latter days, or whether they engage in this business because it requires less capital, than almost any other, to carry it on, we are unable to say; but some fellow tried his hand on last Friday night on Isaac Johnson by entering his shoe store and relieving the drawer of loose change amounting to some twenty-three dollars. This game was suddenly terminated some of these nights by detection and a trip to Pittsburg.

ROBBERY AND MURDER.—On Sunday the 2nd inst., the house of Thomas Stewart, of Twp. township, Clarion county, was entered and robbed of about $80. The same night Jared Lewis and Eli McCall, encountered the persons suspected, one of whom drew a revolver, and fired instantly killing Lewis and wounding McCall. The scoundrels then escaped, and for whom a reward of $800 is offered.

One of the outlaws goes by the name of Charley Logue, is about six feet high, a mole on the temple, florid complexion, brown hair, and Roman nose. The other is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, sandy complexion with bright red moustache, and had on a light brown coat.

JOHN BROWNISM.—We respectfully ask the attention of our readers to the accounts published in another column, of the efforts of Abolition incendiaries to stir up a servile insurrection in various parts of the South. We copy from the New York Tribune, in which paper, it will not be pretended by our Republican friends, these extracts are published "for political effect."

Like the John Brown foray at Harper's Ferry, these demonstrations are the legitimate consequences of the principles and teachings of the present Abolitionized Republican party, and we submit the facts to the sober reflection of the conservative citizens of the loyal, union-loving Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The "irrepressible conflict" is at hand with the Abolitionists. The extermination of slavery, whether by the torch, the sword, or the poisoned cup, is a righteous cause with them. "Let the slave-master meet death in his cup" was the command recently given by a leading abolitionist.—"Let slavery be abolished everywhere" said the Blake Revolution, which recurred the votes of SIXTY Black Republicans of the present Congress; and in these extracts we see an attempt to obey such teachings.—Conservative men of Pennsylvania, should such things be?

DIED.—On Saturday, Sept., 8th VIRGINIA, daughter of Z. C. and Elizabeth McCullough aged 2 years.

On Saturday, Sept., 8th FRANK SON of George and Shultz, aged about 3 years.
