Clearfield

Republican.

BY G. B. GOODLANDER & CO.

VOL. XXXI.—WHOLE NO. 1625.

PRINCIPLES, not MEN.

CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 10, 1860.

TERMS-81 25 per Annum. if paid in advance.

NEW SERIES-VOL. L-NO. 13.

& Le Republican.

Terms of Subscription.

Terms of Advertising.

ertisements are inserted in the Republican at the following rates : I Insertion, 2 do. 3780 square, (14 lines,) $ 50 $ 75 squares, (28 lines,) 1 00 1 50 e squares, (42 lines,) 1 50 2 6 Two squares, (28lines,) 1 50 Three squares, (42 lines,) 1 50 3 month Squares, : : $1 $4 00 squares, : : : 5 00 8 00 a squares, : : : 5 00 8 00 12 00 20 00 : : 14 00 column, ;

cents per square for each insertion.

Business notices not exceeding Slines are in-Advertisements not marked with the number of neartions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged according to these terms.

G. B. GOODLANDER & CO.

Select Poetry.

THE COURSE OF TIFE

Oh. le: the soul its slumber break To see how seen Lite with its glories glides away, And the stern footstep of decay Comes stealing on :

How pleasure, like the passing wind, Blows by, and leaves us nought behind, But grief at last; How still our present happ ness Seems, to the wayward fancy, less

Thun what is past. Our lives like hasting streams must be, That into one engulfling sea Are doomed to fall—

The sen of Death, whose waves roll on, O'er king and kingdom, crown and throne. And swallow all. Allke the river's lordly tide, Alike the humble streamlets glide To that sad wave; Death levels poverty and pride, And rich and poor sleeps side by side Within the grave.

Our birth is but the starting place, Life is the running of the rice, And death the goal. There all our steps at last are brought, That path alone, of all unsought, Is found of all.

Miscellancous .

Blondon and the Prince of Wales.

tempted by mortal man. Many who It cannot be decided whether these were there to see would frequently turn their eyes from him during his passage fearful lest, as they gazed, the intrepid man might miss his precarious footing and be precipitated into the seething abyss. The stilts are slenderly made, are about three iron prongs resembling a trident in horror for an instant, thinking he had, fallen. But the daring self-possessed pertormer lighted safely astride of the cable, and looked toward either shore as if nothhe dared not attempt a repetition of the ant and stupid personleap, lest it should be broken. The task of regaining his standing position on the rope with the stilts on was seemingly a exultation went up, followed by cheers person. over two hours in duration, is a high com- reason of these otherwise inexplicable the cars for refreshments at a way stapliment to Mr. Blondin. On taking their phenomena.—New York Observer, tion, and unfortunately the bell rang and leave, the whole party shook hands with him, and bid him good bye.

coundly by a 'passing event.'

A Nation of Pigmies in Africa-

"o the south of Kaffa and Susa there is a very sultry and humid climate, with ma- ly Courant : d in advance, or within three months, $1 25 my bamboo woods, inhabited by the race - 1 50 called Dokos, who are no larger than - 2 00 boys of ten years of age; that is only four feet high. They have a dark, olive-colored complexion, and live in a completely savage state, like the beasts; having nel ther houses temples, nor holy trees like the Gallas, yet possessing something like an 2 00 idea of a higher being called Yer, and to 2 50 whom, in moments of anxiety and wretch-12 mo edness they pray-not in an erect position but reversed with the head to the ground, and feet supported upright against a tree or stone. In prayer they say: "If thou 18 00 really dost exist, why dost thou allow us 35 00 to be slain? We do not ask thee for food er three weeks and less than three months 25 and clothing, for we live on serpents, anta and mice. Thou hast made us, and why dost thou permit us to be trodden underfoot?" The Dokes have no chief, no laws, no weapons, they do not bunt or illi the ground, but live solely on fruits, roots, mice, serpents, ants, honey, and the like, climbing trees, and gathering the fruits like monkeys, and both sexes go completely naked. They have thick protrucing lips, flat noses and small eyes; the hair is not woolly and worn by the women over the shoulders. The nails on the hands and feet are allowed to grow like the talons of vultures and are used in digging for ants, and in tearing to pieces the serpents, which they devour raw, being unacquainted with fire. The spine of the scake being the only ornament worn around the neck, but they pierce the ear with a sharp pointed piece of wood. The Dokos muitiply very rapidly, but have no regular marriages, no settled home, each in perfect independence, go- arrange a table, to wash and iron, to sweep without first secretly searching his pocking whither tancy leads. The mother and to do everything that pertains to the ets, and deducting the cost from the sum nurses her child only for a short time, accustoming it as soon as possible to the eating of ants and serpents; and as won as the child can take care of itself the mother lets it run wherever it pleases -Although these people live in thick woods and conceal themselves amongst the trees yet they become the prey of the slave hunters of Susa, Kaifa Dumbaro and Kulla; for the whole regions of their woods are encircled by the hunters, so that the Eokos cannot easily escape. When the slave hunters come in signt of the poor creatures they hold up I right colors, singing and dancing, upon which the Dokos allow themselves to be captured without resistance, knowing from experience that ment. such resistance is fruitless, and can only lead to their destruction. In this way thousands can be captured by a small band of hunters, and once captured they become quite docile. In slavery they retain their predilection for feeding on ce of Blomlin on stilts before the ou that account punished by their masters young ladies. Prince, upon the following is an extract: who in other respects are attached to All were now waiting and looking eas them, as they are donite and obedient, by for the I st and greatest act of the have low wants, and enjoy good health, 's performance—the stilt walking. for which reasons they are never sold bes not the soul of honor. Though such may result, and he works on hopeless and des We think that all who witnessed this feat youd Enarca. As diseases are not known blush and stammer, and shrug their shoul- perate. Finally the anticipated crash os or pigmies who, according to Herodis ful friends. us, were discovered near a great river in | There are fine touches in their charac- pings of assumed wealth may be replaced two feet in beight- the bottoms having Ukambani, two degrees in the south, and they do not flow with the impetuosity of have been, but not now, Again he starts furnished at cost for there who desire to pura Baravia a degree and a half to the the hallow streamlet. shape, the wooden portion being covered north of the equator. In Baravia a slave We are astonished that such men are hovers above the horizon, and then forwith silver leaf. An incident occurred was shown to me who accorded complete- not appreciated, that ladies with really ever disappears from sight, and it is heavwhen Blondin was a short distance from the description of the Dokes. He good hearts and cultivated intellect will en's memory is untinted with be entered previously. All persons who intend the American shore which produces a was four feet high, very thick set, dark reward the gallant Sir Mastachio Brain- guilt. thell or horror in the breasts of all who complexioned, and lively, and the people less with smiles and attention, because he witnessed it. It was not generally under of the place assured me he was of the pig- can fold a shawl so gracefully and bandy stood that in the passage over he was to my race of the interior. It is not impos- compliments with Parisian elegance, while make three leaps on his stilts. The first sible too that continued rains from May they will not condescend to look upon time he attemped it, the centre and lon- until January, and other means may con- the worthy man who feels for them a revger prong in the bottom of the stills tribute to produce a diminutive people of erence so great that his every mute glance caught against one of the guys, tripping stunted development in the interior of is worship. him slightly. All held their breath in Africa. A priori, therefore, the reports. The man who is bashful in the prescollected from different and mutually in- ence of ladies is their defender when the dependent points of Africa cannot be dir- tongue of the slanderer would defame eatly contradicted; only care must be ta- them. It is not he who boasts of conken to examine with caution the fabulous quests; or dares talk gliby of failings that ing had happened. In coming suddenly element mixed up with what may be true exist in his imagination alone; his cheek and violently upon the rope, his balan- by native reporters. In the Snahili dia will flush with resentment, his eyes flush cing pole—as before stated, a very heavy lect "dogo" means small, and in that of with anger, to hear the name of woman one-was cracked and strained, so that Anarea "doko" is indicative of an ignor- coupled with a coarse oath; and yet he

Two Morning Stars.

The planets Jupiter and Venus have most difficult one, and many expressed been nearing each other for several weeks. The anamoly was never seen. Ease and doubt as to the success of the attempt .- past, and on the 28th of September will elegance are his requisites, and upon his But with him, as with the cunning old be in conjunction. This will be a beauti- lips sits flattery, ready to pay court to Mr. Shaw was born at Bellingbrook, Linc-Cardinal, there seems to be no such word ful phenomenon. Of all the planets, blue eyes or black; he is never nonpluss. olushire, England, in the year 1776, and as fail; and, after two or three trials, the these two excel in glory. So pure and ed and he never blushes. For a glance emigrated to the United States, in the difficuly was overcome. As he proceeded, silver-like is their lustre, as they light up he is in saptures; for a word he would pro- year 1819, bringing with him the great step by step, the spectators gained con- the eastern sky and herald the new born fessedly lay down his life. Yet it is he picture of "Christ Healing the Sick," fidence, and those who had expressed day, we can almost fancy them the abodes who fills our city dens with wrecks of painted by Benjamin West, and presentdoubt and apprehension, breathed freer of unfallen and blessed spirits. In order female purity; it is he who profanes the ed to the Pennsylvania Hospital. Mr. as he approached the termination of his to witness this sight, it will only be nec- holy name of mother, desecrates the Shaw invented the percussion lock and essary to curtail somewhat the customary shrine where domestic happiness is thro- cap, for which our government were to When safely on terra firms a shout of morning pap; and that will hurt no well ned, ruins the heart that trusts in him, pay him $25,000. The Emperor of Rus-conclude to do so, he (the Prince) would not only come into frequent conjunction the splendor of palaces. lend his countenance and support. The with each other, but also with each of the fact that the Prince and attendants sat exterior planets. A little study of the through the entire exhibition, something elements of Astronomy will unfold the the railroads the other day, got out of tery ?"

Why do printers not succeed as his pie and coffee. "Hould on!" cried well as brewers? Because printers work Pat, and he ran like a madman after the The old fogy who poked his head for the head and brewers for the stomach; cars, "hould on, ye muthering ould stame from 'behind times," had it knocked and where twenty men have stomach, but ingine—ye've got a passenger aboard that from behind 'the times,' had it knocked cannot take further care of them.

Young Ladies Read.

The following is from the Hartford Dai-

for the useful arts.

pect thus to pick up a husband who will be as indulgent as their parents have been and support them in idleness. They who are support them in idleness. They who are support the support them in idleness. They who are support the support them in idleness. They who are support the support them in idleness. They who are support the support them in idleness. They who are support the support t sow the wind in this way, are sure to reap to the suspicion of penury. the whirlwind. No life can be exempt from cares. How mistaken an education do those girls receive who are allowed to is unable to perform it. It has been observed that by far the rents when domestic education is unatmestics may be a necessary evil, and the best help a woman can have is herself. If may come when skill and domestic employment will secure to hera comfort which no domestic can procure. Even if she is never called to labor herself, she should at least know how things should be done, so that she can never be cheated

Domestic education can never be acquired in the streets. It cannot be learned amidst the frivolities of modern society .-A good, worthy and comfort loving husband cannot be picked up on the pave-

"The nymph who walks the public St's, And sets her cap for all she meets, May catch the fool who turns to stare, will agree with us in prenouncing it one among them, they die only of rld age, or ders awkwardly, unable to threw forth comes. He loses nothing the had nother with ease the thoughts they would ex ing to lose. But now he may gain all for It cannot be decided whether these Do- press, yet commend them to us our faiths, which he so long sighed. The play is over, except horses, must be brought within the onatral Africa by two youths dispatched ters that time will mellow and bring out, Etearch, King of the Oasis of Ammon, perceptions as delicate as the faintest tint the intexicating bowl of worldly varity et I can bear witness that I heard these is to the unfolded rose; and their thought has become too necessary to the depraved who would die to defend them is least honored by the majority of the fair

Bashtul Men.

Who ever heard of a bashful libertine? and clapping of hands, and again was he In an article for the Observer, in May under the of polished gentleman. La for improvements in naval warfare. greeted by the Prince, the Duke of New- last, the writer incidentally alluded to a dies, a word in your ear; have you lovcastle and others of the party, the former conjunction of these same planets, then ers and would you possess a worthy husexpressing to Mr. Blondin in French his soon to occur; and from mere inadver, band? Choose him whose delicacy astonishment and delight at the unparals tence he remarked, "it would not be wit- prompts him to standaloof, while others leled fact Phe Price, the Duke and oth. nessed again for many years;" whereas, crowd around you. If he blushes, stamers took the stifts in their hands and ex- of necessity, it takes place at least once a mers even at your approach, consid amined them, repeating at the same time year. Herschel, Saturn, Jupiter and er them as so many signs of his exalted their enconiums upon the professor's Mars being exterior planets, that is, lying opinion of your sex. If he is retiring and skill and daring. Mr. Blondin signified outside the earth's orbit, do not come in modest, let not a thousand fortunes weight to his Royal Highness his desire to visit to conjunction with each other but at the him down in the balance, for depend up-England, and perform before the Court, end of comparatively long periods; while on it, your life will be happier with pover when the Prince teld him that should be Venus and Mercury, being interior planets, ty, than with many other surrounded by

> An Irishman, traveling on one of the train was off before he had finished is left behind !

Genteel Poverty.

It has been philosophically remarked that one half the world do not know how the other half live. This truth arises less "What a number of idle, useless young from want of curiosity on one side than women-they call themselves ladies-pa- studied deception on the other. Poverty rade our street! They toil not, neither for instance, is neither legally or morally do they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory a crime and yet, aside from its conveni was not arrayed like one of them. Have ence, there is a discredit, in every sense they made or are they making any prep- of the word, attached to it, which renders arations for the enormous duties which its possessor very jealous of its discovery. will assuredly fall to their lot -duties to In worldly judgements we too often find society the world and God? They lounge that the sin is in the detection, not the sleep their time away at morning. the commission of the offence. A man They never take hold of the drugery, re- may live in a garret, and dinc on stale pulsive toil, which each son and daughter bread and mouldy cheese, and yet, with Adam should perform in this world .- the exactness of independence, his compa-They have no habits of industry, no taste by will often be solicited at the social meal or festive board. But let his domici. They are in the street, not in the per- and his means be detected-let his coat formance of duty, or for the acquisition less its freshness, his hat its smoothness, of health, but to see or be seen. They ex- and his boots their polish, and the felon's

Poverty and beggary are very distant relations. The beggar never knows pover-children under sixteen years of age, if dues are ty, he only feels want. To him the mere paid up, to be admitted free; single tickets, 20 imagine that life is always to be a garland daily necessities of life are sufficient. He of roses! Labor is the great law of our begs without disguise, owns to the world being. How worthless will she prove who his destitution, eats the rich man's crumbs, and snores upon the flint. How different is the condition of the other .ceatest amount of happiness in civilized In him the gnawings of hunger reflect life is found in the domestic relations, and the blandest of smiles, he talks of din most of those depend on the home habits ners he never saw, and fancies suppers ber of this Seclety must apply on or before the of the wife and mother. What a mistake he never knew He believes himself first day of the fair, and on the payment of one of the wife and mother. What a mistake he never knew. He believes himself is then mode by our girls and their pas suspected of meaness, because he declines some pic-nic or other pleasure party, tended to! Our daughters should be where the expenses are so much per head. taught practically how to bake, cook, to He never ventures on a river excursion shall on the presentation of his certificate, rearrange a table, to wash and iron, to sweep without first secretly searching his pockorder and comfort of the household. Do- total. If under a sudden windfall,, he regulations and paying $10, shall become a life ask a companion to take an eyster, he treu bles, lost his fortune may with the her husband is ever so rich, the time oyster, disappear dawn the throat of his oyster, disappear dawn the throat of his All persons must be provided with tickets quandam friend. Thus the poor bachelor which can be had from the Executive Commitlives, spending one half of his time in teo. Tressurer or Secretary or at the door. Persome misterious occupation, whereby he sons acting as judges are expected to become receives the meant of keeping up appearmembers of the Society. Persons from other ances the other half. He dies, and is forgotten by all, save perhaps some intimate executor. But it is the married man, the man of Exhibition of Ladys and gentlemen's horse-family, who mostdeeply feels the miser- manship will take place on Tuesday and Wed-The highest and bests interests of sociein the future, demand a better, a more to which he is tied. Country cousins seful, a more domestic training for our must be entertained, family remains give and the premiums awarded.

All articles for which a premium of two dellars and upwards is offered, shall pay fifty cents on trance fee except horses for trotting, which shall calls; But the inexorable world decides other- and the premiums awarded. the has full particulars of the perform mice, surports and ants, although often useful, a more domestic training for our most be entertained, family reunions give en, summer jaunts undertaken. the whole machinery, it he once give out, We never saw a bashful man who was discord and destruction are the inevitable the lights are out, and the gaudy trapy honest homespun. But it is too lateepon the tatal race, again he for a moment chase;

Ber It is related by a new England disvine, who flourished not many years ago and whose matrimonial relations are supposed not to have been of the most agreeable kind certainly, that one sabbath morning, while reading to his congregation the parable of the supper, in which occurs this passage-"And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them ; I pray thee have me excused; and another said, I have married a wife and therefore, I cannot come,'-he suddenly paused at the end of this verse, diew off his spectacles, and looking around on his hearers, said with emphasis, draw a man further from the kingdom of breeding. Heaven, that Twenty yoke of oxen,

Joshua Shaw long a citizen of Phil-Thursday the 8th inst., at the age of 83,pollutes the very air he breathes, and all six also awarded a premium to Mr. Shaw weighed, and will take measures to give the Proprietor also af the Continental Hotel of Philadelphia, the Revere House and the Tremont House of Boston, the may skow several animals in one class, only one Battle House, Mobile, and the Point premium will be awarded, that to the first, or Clear, Alabama, in all six first class hotels, otherwise as the merits of the animal may be involving a capital and current expenses judged.

Discretionary Premium.—No viewing comtive of Claremont, N. H.

other day nonplussed his mother by ma. satisfied to special commendations, the judges king the following inquiry: - Mother if are desired to notice them particularly and refer a man is a Mister, ain't a woman a Mismittee at a subsequent meeting.

The Superintendent will take every precedulor.

A Yankee in Panama sought shelter at the American Consuls from an earth on the greends, but will not be responsible for quake -he thought ever, the earthquake any loss or damage that may occur. The society would respect our flag.

The old fogy who poked his head soundly by a "passing event."

CLEARFILD AGRICULTURAL SO. CHETY

RULES AND REGULATIONS. ented in the State, and of convenient access to balf mile from the Borough of Clearfield, where ample accommedations can be had by all. The groune is enclosed by a substantial board fence, 8 feet high, and suitable buildings will be erect. sistance.

Premiums and diplomas will be paid on and after the first Wednesday of November and until the 1st day of January. 1861. after which time all money premiums unclaimed will be considered a donation to the Society. The assessment of the premiums offered by the Society will be awarded to the individuals, who in the judgment of the committee, shall do their work in the best manner, providing the work is done in the Each plowman to strike him. ed a donation to the Society. The officers of the Society and members of the Committee of arrangements will wear a badge designating their office, and it will be their duty as well as pleasure to attend to the expressed wishes and wants of exhibitors and others, if it is in their power so to do. A relect police force will be in constant attendance for the preservation of order and Rules of Admission. - Mambers with wives, and cents; 6 tickets for $1; family tickets for the mitted unless accompanied by their parents or guardians. Life members and family, free-Tickets to be given up at the door, except season or free tickets, which persons after showing the door keeper, will retain.

Every person wishing to be enrolled as a memdollar to the Trensurer shall receive a certificate of membership containing the name of the applicant and endorsed by the Secretary.

ceive a ticket which will admit him free during the fair. Any person complying with the above member and shall be exempt from all contribu-tions and shall annua ly receive from the Secretary a free family ticket.

counties can become members by complying with the above rules. Ladies can become memgotten by all, save perhaps some intimate friend, who wonders he is not appointed executor.

bern by making application as above and paying into the Treasury fifty cents when they will receive a ticket to admit them free ies of genteel poverty. His personal suf-ferings are merged in the thought of home cluded from competition. Playing match will He would gladly throw of the diguise - take place on Tuesday at 10 o'clock 4. M. The Only two drops. 'Tain't hart blue gladly resign his fashionble acquaintances address will be delivered at 2 o'clock on Thurs one. Wondertun bad storm to night pay two dollars. All articles entered for a pro-mium under two dollars shall pay twenty five knows full well that as the main-pring of conts. Horses entered for amusement shall pay twenty-five cents. All articles, except bornes for which no money premium is offered, no

Exhibitors must become members of the So ciety and have their animals and articles enter-ed on the Secretary's books on or before the 16th closure as early as Tuesday noon; and all persons entering animals and articles for exhibition the occupant of the apartment, whem he will procure cards from the Socretary with the class and number of entry of sail articles, previous to placing said articles on the ground. Hay and straw will be furnished gratis for all attle people not only in Shoe, but also in is not the less refined and beautiful that taste to be now resigned. Once it might animals entered for premiums, and grain will be what pains you are take g, and what risk

No horse shall be entered or allowed a premium unless he is free from disease. Horees will be received until Wednesday noon, but must intend to offer stock or any other article for sale, should notify the Secretary of such intention on or before the 10th of October, and have with him a list and full description of the same.

Pers naintending to exhibit blood stock must produce authentic pedigrees, and are carnetly requested to furnish the Secretary, by the 19th Oct., with a list of their stock and the pedigrees of each, this will facilitate the preparations of entries and in case of deficient pedigrees will afford the owner time to correct the same:

an award it more than one class. Judges are expressly required not to award red." premiums to over-fed animals. No premiums are to be awar led to bulls, cows or heifers, which shall appear to have been fattened, only in the class of fat cattle, the object of the society being robbery. To the astonis ment of the 'The fact is, my brothren, one woman can to have superior animals of this description for

No person shall be allowed to interfere with udges during their adjudications. The judges not antistied as to the regularities of entries, in adelphia, died at Burlington, N. J., on their respective classes, will apply to the Secretary for information, and should there be any doubts after examination of their coming within gentlemen until seven, or half-past severs the regulations, or if any animal is of such a c'clock, for i mean to set out for Dubi re character as not to be entitled to exhibition in at five, and I should like to have at mecommittee, that such a course may be adopted as the case may require.

For Contle.—The judges on fat cattle will give particular attention to the animals submitted for examination. It is believed all other things being equal those are the best cutile that have the superficies of each, and publish the result with their reports. They will also, before awarding Mr. Paran Stevens who keeps the any premiums, require of the competitors ful Fifth Avenue Hotel in this city, is the statements as to the manuer and cost of feeding as required by the regulations of the premium list. When there is but one exhibitor, although he mittee shall award any discretionary premium-When, however, articles of merit, superior in their character, are presented, and which are > in his power, for the safety of stock and articles on desires exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals and articles and at the close of the Rules of Plowing .- The name of the plowmen py ?"

nust be given as well as the kind of plow to be used, at the time of entry.

The quantity of greated to be plosed by each

The Fair ground is one of the most occutifully team to be i acre.

The time silowed to do the work will be two plow entirely independent of the adjudning land, Within the one fourth of an acre plewed, each plowm a will be required to strike two back burrowed lands, and finish with the lead furrow in the middle.

be pleased to give any information in their post-

A Professional Call.

There is more truth than poetry in llowing sketch from the experience in a ountry doctor-a fact that more than our d that builty treated and worse paid Fair $1-children under ten years of age not ad- class of individuals would be writing to verify on oath.

The poor doctor called from his bad on stormy night with a stirring sununous: "Dottor, want you to come right street tway off to Banks. His child is dead.

Then why do you come? 'He's poisoned. They gin him laudanim for paregoriky. 'How much have they given him?'

'Do' no, a great deal. Think he won't

The doctor pushes on through the storm neets with divers mishaps on the way, and at length arrives at the house of the oisoned patient-he finds it all closediot a light to be seen. He knocks at the door, but no enswer. He knocks for iously, and at last a night cap appears at a chamber window, and a voman's voice squeaks out-

"Who's there? 'The Doctor, to be sure: You sent for Oh, it's no matter, doctor. Ephraim is better. We got a little skeered kinder. Gin him hadnam, and he slept kinder sound, but he's waked up now.

"How much laudanum did he swaland seek his he ppiness, when the days la- day the 18th October, and lumediately after the The doctor turns away, buttoning up bor is over, in the bosom of his family, -- address the reports of the judges will be read his overcout under his throat, to seek Doctor, doctor! Wha do you want?

'You won't charge nothing for this visit

A GOOD REASON FOR LAUGUTER. - A spond thruft was once lying awake in hed, when he saw a man enter his room cautiously. and attempt to pick the lock of his writing-desk. The rogue was not a little disconcerted at hearing a loud laugh from supposed asleep. "Why do you lough?" asked the thief. "I am laughing, my good fellow," said the spendtheit, "to think you run, in hope of finding money by night in a desk where the lawful owner can never find any by day?" The third vanished at once.

nes_In addressing a jury upon one occasion, the epiebrated Lord Jeffrey found it necessary to make free with the character of a military officer who was pre-chl-Upon bearing himself several times con emptuously spoken of as "the soldier," the sen of Mars, boiling with indignation interrupted the pleader, 'Don't call me; soldier, sir; I'm an officer." immediately went on, "Well, gentlemen, this officer, who is no soldier, was the sold Instruction to Judges. No animal to receive cause of all the mischief that had occur

> A CAUTIOUS JUDGE, -An Irish judge trie ! two most notorious fellows for highway court, as well as the prisoners themselves. they were found not guilty. As they were being removed from the bar, the judge, addressing the gaoler, said. , 'Mr. Murphy, you would greatly ease my mind if you would keep these two respectable two hours' start of them."

The chap who took the thread of life to sew the rent of a house, has gone to Texas and invented a patent point for cross eyed nedeles, to patch the clothes of Gen. Walkers ragged fillibusters,

A lawyer is never so mischievous awhen he has but little practice; nor is physician as when he has a good deal.

AGP 'Mr Jones have you got a match?' Yes, sir, a match for the old boy. There esh is mixing dough."

Ber T. D. Rice, the original "Jim Crow" lied in New York on Wednesday, aged 52. He formerly received great amountfor his successful negro delineations, but has wasted his money. Latterly his hab-its have been very bad and he died in ex-

Der Two blacksmiths in Brooklin York, had a duel with sledge ham mers the other day, and both were fatally treme poverty.

per little fellow four years old, the other day nonplussed his mother by making the following inquiry :- "Mother, if a man is a Mister, ain't a woman a Miste-