SAVE YOUR MONEY.—Farmers, Mechanics and others, who want to buy cheap stocks had better go to Fred Leitzinger's Clearfield Pottery, where they can get them for 12½ per gallon. 2t pd.

☞ Yesterday Elections where held in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Minnesota, and up to this Wednesday morning we cannot give the result, except so far as relates to our own County which will be found in another column, as far as the returns have been received before going to press. We will however no doubt be able in our next, to give the result in full in all these States.

We have received the proceedings of a number of meetings held in different sections of the county during the past week for publication. This we cannot do, for the reason that to do so would fill our columns to the exclusion all other matter. Our friends will therefore know the cause of their non-appearance.

☞ The office of the Jersey Shore Republican has been removed to Williamsport and the name of the paper changed to "West Branch Democrat," the first number of which is before us. The Democrat looks neat, and talks the right kind of politics, success neighbor—here is our ☞.

☞ James Buchanan jr. has resigned his position as private Secretary to the President, and Adam J. Glosbrenner Esq. late Sergeant—at—arms of the House of Representatives, has been appointed in his stead, and has entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Clearfield Fifiemen.

The Clearfield Rifle Company, will meet at Masonic Hall for Parade and Drill, on the 17th inst., at 8 o'clock, A. M. By order of the Capt.' Oct. 10, 1860. JOHN F. ROTE. O. S.

INCREASE IN THE ROYAL FAMILY OF SPAIN.—On last Thursday Baron Stoeckl, in full court dress, called officially on the President of the United States, and in a formal manner announced the birth of a Spanish Princess, the daughter of Duke de Montpensier. The President responded in an appropriate address, in which he expressed great pleasure at receiving intelligence of such an interesting event, and tendered his sincere congratulation to the Duke and his happy consort.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last, as the team of Wilson Hoover, residing near this place, was returning from Ringgold with a load of plank and some furniture, upon which were seated two of his children, whilst descending a hill, the plank slipped forward, striking the horses' heels and starting them to run, the wagon striking a stump, turned over, throwing the bed upon the driver and the little boy, whilst the daughter a young lady of 19 years, held on to the lines, and was dragged through the woods and brush for a considerable distance, receiving a very severe injury though no bones were broken. The driver escaped with some injuries about the legs, whilst the little boy had a leg broken, and was otherwise injured.—They are all, we are glad to learn, in a fair way of recovery. Mr. Hoover was present, but not on the wagon at the time.

The County Fair.

The fair grounds are now completed, sheds and stands have been erected in the most substantial manner, and a better "Ring" is not to be found anywhere. The committee having in charge the preparation of the ground have done it in a creditable manner. All the facilities necessary to make a Fair prosperous and agreeable, have been secured in this case. It now only remains for the citizens of Clearfield county to say whether a County Fair shall remain a fixed fact. If such is the desire, we hope every one will do something towards establishing it upon a sure basis. Members with wives and children under 16 years of age, admitted free, if dues are paid up. Single tickets 20 cts, 6 tickets for $1,00. Family tickets for the Fair $1,00.

For further particulars in reference to the conducting of the Fair, we refer our readers to the "Rules and Regulations" of the Society published in another column.

DIED.

On Tuesday Oct 2d Abram Reams of Lawrence tp., in the 66th year of his age

Best was the choice that father made,
When he the voice of God obeyed,
And chose to leave his kindred dear;
Could he enough his love express
For him who promised still to bless
And chose him for his friend.

The friend of God, the Angels fair
No sweeter name than this could bear,
However high their state,
Yet may a creature made of clay
Who will the Lord's commands obey,
Obtain this honor great.

J. L. R.

In Brady tp., on the 5th Instant Philip Allman aged 91 years.

This aged man upon learning of the murder of his son Godfrey in 1848 by another son (Lawrence) immediately set out from Germany for this country being then in his 80th year and arrived in Clearfield Town a few days before Lawrence was taken to a western Penitentiary, and the only wish of his life has been to live to see his erring son restored again, but he became blind two years ago, which was very mortifying to him knowing he could never see his son face to face.

Despairing of being gratified in this, he gave himself up not long ago—willing to depart and be at rest.

Lawrence has one year yet to serve, when his time of imprisonment will expire having been sentenced for 12 years at Sept., Term 1849.
