

Clearfield, Pa., November 7, 1860.

The Election.

We are unable to furnish our readers with any definite returns of the election held on yesterday.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Dem., Rep. Am. Clearfield, Gosher, Lawrence, Bradford.

After the Election.

The election is now over, and we feel as if there can be but little doubt as to the result.

Then comes the most trying time in the history of the country. The Southern States look upon the election of Lincoln as a condemnation, by the people of the North, of their social system.

What the final result will be, time alone can tell. We confess to fearful apprehensions, and sincerely hope that we may be disappointed.

As to the result in Pennsylvania, there can be but one opinion. The Democrats have made no effort anywhere to get out their vote.

A Chance for a Nice Young Man.

We find the following advertisement in a late number of the Philadelphia Ledger.

WANTED—By a respectable colored family, a WHITE BOY 14 or 16 years of age.

This is the result of the teaching of the Black Republican party, equality between the white and the negro.

The white boy in this instance must come recommended—the notice does not state whether the reference must come from whites or negroes.

We see the equality manifestations everywhere; in Pittsburgh, Boston, and other large cities they advertise to form themselves into "Wide Awake Clubs."

My Report!

It seems that John Covode will have his hands full during the next Congress. This will enable him to get up another Report in the capacity of a Smelling Committee.

Whenever he goes he carries with him the report of the late investigating Committee, of which he was a member.

Our Conqueror.

He who ascends to mountain-tops, shall find the loftiest peaks most wrapt in clouds and snow.

Andrew G. Curtin, the Governor elect, has given out that he will keep under his feet all who dared to vote against him.

"BEHOLD YOUR CONQUEROR! I have you under my feet, I will fight you for three years, and the odds will be on my side."

Hon. Daniel E. Sickles, of New York, declines to be a candidate for Congress.

The Opposition.

We publish on our first page this week, a table showing the aggregate vote for Governor, from the adoption of the Constitution, in 1790 to the present time.

In changing their names, they remind us of the notorious forger and pickpocket in Ohio, named Smith; after committing a number of forgeries upon his neighbors.

What the final result will be, time alone can tell. We confess to fearful apprehensions, and sincerely hope that we may be disappointed.

them from power, since which time the party has travelled upon the "Circus" principle, exhibiting themselves in some localities as "Republicans," in others as "Americans," and People's party, all of which they hitched together this fall.

Communities and societies are made up of individuals and if it is wrong and immoral for an individual to change his name, and assume others, it is equally wrong in parties to do so.

Names often change, but principles never. If an honest man never need change his name to succeed in business and establish a good character, why is it necessary for an honest party to change their names often?

The editor of the Cleveland Plaindealer says he seen mulattoes vote the Republican ticket in that city, at the late election, who were as black as Egypt.

NEBRASKA ELECTION.—The latest news from this Territory is, that Morton, Democrat, has been elected Delegate to Congress.

It appears from the last accounts from Oregon, that J. W. Nesmith (Douglas) and E. D. Baker (Abolitionist) were elected to the United States Senate on the 2d inst.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Our Republican friends, who profess so much love for the negro and his rights, find themselves sometimes in an awkward situation.

THE STAR OF GARIBALDI is once more in the ascendant. He has not only cast himself loose from all affiliation with the Mazzinian faction, but he has gloriously retrieved his partial defeat at Caserta by signifying victory on the banks of the Volturno.

THE OFFENSIVE MOVEMENT by which he sought to recover possession of his Capital was wisely planned and ably executed.

troops dispersed among the mountains, nor far short of eight thousand men. Yet in spite of all these losses, the Neapolitans are so strongly fortified within their lines at Capua, that Garibaldi has found it necessary to call upon Sardinia for assistance.

It is, perhaps, a fortunate circumstance for Italy that the Dictator has received this temporary check in his career of conquest. He has learned, by the reverses which he sustained at Caserta on the 19th of September, and by the loss of the strong position at Cajazzo—which he has not been able to recover—and still more by the changing fortunes of the battle of Volturno, to have a more prudent and circumspect policy of war.

Count Cavour has triumphed, but the triumph of the great soldier of Liberty has not been less signal, for he has achieved a conquest over himself, and at the height of his power has subordinated his own prejudices to the will of his King and to the good of his country.

ARREST FOR FORGERY AND COUNTERFEITING.—The officers of the Boone County Bank, at Lebanon, Indiana, have been playing a high handed game of forgery and circulation of counterfeit money.

THE SANCTUM OF THE EDITOR and proprietor of the Huntsman Echo, a sheet printed in Nebraska, presents sometimes strange sights "last week," the editor says "upon two occasions, from our office, we witnessed the playful pranks of several antelope, and again a sprightly red fox came up near the enclosure, but cut and ran when Towser came in sight; a nice race they had, and both made time, but boys and the best. A week ago two grizzly bears and three large wolves were in sight and played around on the prairie at a safe distance; the same chaps, probably, that made a tender meal from a good-sized calf of ours that had been running out.

INFAMOUS FRAUD ON FEMALES.—A DESPICABLE SCOUNDREL.—A day or two since a New York sharper landed in Philadelphia, hired a room at No. 213 Union street. He then advertised in the Ledger for young ladies to learn a business which would pay from $7 to $10 per week.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF CENTRE COUNTY. No. 225, November term, 1859. WM. H. BLAIR, use of, vs. JOSEPH J. LINCOLN.

By virtue of a writ of Venditioni Exponendo issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, upon the above judgment, to some sheriff there will be exposed to public sale by public outcry, at the Court House in BELLEFONTE, in the said county of Centre, on the 15th day of NOVEMBER next, all the real estate of the said defendant, Joseph J. Lincoln, in the undivided fourth part of all that certain tract of land containing seven acres and ten rods, situate, tenement and tract of land situate in the township of Rush, in the county of Centre, and the township of Deantar, in the county of Clearfield, containing seventeen hundred and six acres and six rods, being held in common with A. G. Curtin, D. L. Pruner and John M. Rahn, all which said premises are described in a return and return of sale executed by the sheriff of the said county of Centre, in and to the office for the recording of deeds, in Mortgage Book E, page 34, &c., at which time will be sold as the property of Joseph J. Lincoln, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Assembly of 13th June, 1846, in reference to the execution against lands in certain counties.

A NOVELTY IN THE ART WORLD.—PHOTOGRAPHY UPON PORCELAIN. Secured by letters patent in the United States, England, France and Belgium.

The American Photographic Porcelain Company, No. 781 Broadway, New York, have secured their novel and ingenious invention in American and European patents, are fully prepared to execute all orders for Miniature Likenesses of Persons on China, presenting all the attractive and advantageous features of ordinary photography, the brilliancy and finish of a water-color drawing, a durability unattained quality of durability, by being rendered as imperishable as the natural properties of the articles upon which they are transferred.

As the patented process of the Company enables the reproduction of photographs, not only on plain surfaces, but upon such as are rounded of any degree of irregularity, portraits can be produced with faultless accuracy and delicacy of delineation, upon the most delicate and durable material, and used as articles of household utility, such as Urns, Vases, Breakfast Cups, Toilet Articles, &c.; thereby securing faithful portraits, and furnishing a unique and exquisite style of ornamentation of articles of domestic use.

In order to furnish facilities for the gratification of the popular taste, and to meet the wants of those patrons of the fine arts desirous of having portraits on Porcelain, the Company has imported from Europe a collection of superior painting goods, manufactured by their own hands, which will sell at cost prices.

As the American Company are owners of the patent right, and consequently the only persons authorized to use the process, they have determined, in order to afford people in every section of the Union an opportunity to possess portraits on China, to make the following proposition: residents in the country, who are unable to visit personally the Atelier and Galleries in New York:

Persons sending a photograph, ambrotype, daguerreotype, or the face of the Company, New York, accompanied by $5, will receive a return by express, free of charge, a richly ornamented Breakfast Cup and Saucer, with the portrait transferred thereon.

By transmitting a daguerreotype and $10, they will receive in like manner a handsome French Vase or Toilet Article, with the portrait reproduced by the patented process.

By sending a pair of daguerreotypes and $10 they will receive in return a pair of rich Sevres Vases, with the portraits executed upon a miniature painting; and, in like manner, portraits can be reproduced on porcelain wares or Vases of every quality of finish, ranging in price from $20 to $100 the pair.

N. B.—Be particular in writing the address town, county, and State distinctly. All letters to be addressed to "Manager, American Photographic Porcelain Co., 781 Broadway, New York."

TO CONSUMPTIVES!—The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung disease, and that dried disease Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which will find a cure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy as it will cost him nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Persons wishing the prescription will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, 107-1/2 Williamburgh, Kings Co., N. Y.
