It would probably be no exwhole column, in which he neither assess thrown out of emyloyment since serts, or denies a fact. Like the wind, we hear the sound, but we know not from of whom are young women. whence it came or whither it goes -as it is all wind, and no argument in the end. Whenever bis articles contain some thing more than "urgh," "tho't," wouldn't," " con't" we will attempt a reply to some of them.

It is our opinion the editor of the Journal had better display his great and immaculate literary proportions Ain stating some facts to his readers which would be more interesting to them than the atof doubtful ability.

REMEMBER. Strumens or Scrofulous affections are the curse, the blight of mankind. They are vile and filthy, as well as fatal. They arise from impurity and contaminations of the blood, and are to be seen all around us everywhere. Thousands daily are consigned to the grave from the direful effects of this disease. But why triffe any longer, when the remedy is at hand? Dr. LINDSEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER,
