School Drafts.

The County Treasurer has lately received a number of letters from School Directors, in reference to the payment of School Drafts for 1860. Below we publish a list of the school districts in which the drafts have been paid by the Treasurer for 1860, together with the number and amount of each draft:

School District.	Number.	Amount.
Bearskin	1472	$104.14
Bell	1466	62.35
Bellevue	814	34.25
Berk	815	76.13

Morris	1396	66.92
Penn	1397	74.46
Pike	1139	92.25
Union	819	50.10

Total amount paid - $1,574.19
Of the old Districts, Fox, Girard, and Wood have not presented their Drafts for 1860—or they may have reached the State Treasury through some other source.

The Drafts for the new Districts of Bloom, Guilich, Lumber City, and New Washington, we presume are included in the drafts of the respective Districts, out of which they were formed. If we include the salary of the County Superintendent, it will be found that Clearfield county draws annually from the State Treasury, for school purposes, 2,300.00, which is about two thirds of what the county pays into the State Treasury annually.

The Oil Business.

We observe by a late number of the Vechnag Spectator, that the oil excitement is still on the increase. The total number of wells now in operation and pumping, is about 74, from which is pumped daily 1523 barrels of oil, being about twenty barrels to each well.

The deepest well is in Franklin, owned by Messrs. Curtz & Shain, and is 502 feet deep, pumping 15 barrels per day. The shallowest well is that on the Allegheny river owned by the Tidouite Island Oil Co., and is but 67 feet deep, and yields 30 barrel per day. The Drake well No. 1, is 69 feet deep, and turns out 12 barrels per day. The well of Messrs. Lowry & Ford is but 75 feet deep, and yields 40 barrels per day. Evans' well, in Franklin, is 80 feet in depth, and yields 10 barrels per day.

These are the only wells, we believe, that are less than 100 feet deep.

There are quite a number of wells that yield but 3 or 4 barrels a day. The best paying well in the oil region appears to be that of Messrs. Plumer, Evelyn & Bissell, on the Clapp farm: it is 145 feet deep, and yields 50 barrels per day.

The average depth of the wells is about 200 feet, the average depth of the Allegheny river wells is about 112 feet and yield about 25 barrels each per day;—showing clearly that the River wells are the most productive, and consequently the most profitable.

ATTENTION TO BREAK JAIL.—Last night, about 12 o'clock, Mr. Richards, the jailor, was awoke by a noise in the room occupied by John Cathcart and a man by the name of Steadard. The two were locked up for the night in a small cell adjoining their room, which is closed by a door made of iron bars, so as to admit heat from the adjoining room to the cell. The prisoners succeeded in wrenching a bar of iron from the wall, about seven feet long, which they broke in two, with which they succeeded in breaking the lock and chain of their cell door, thus admitting them to the stove, when they commenced to heat the bars and burn the plank off from the side of their cell. There is no doubt that in a few hours more the train would have fled. Cathcart had nearly filed the manacles from off his legs with the fire shovel, which he used for that purpose.

The Lock Haven and Tyrone Railroad was sold, at the Merchants Exchange, in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 28th ult., for $51,000. We did not learn who became the purchaser. The unfortunate difficulty in which this Road became involved through their financial agents, has been a great drawback upon the Tyrone and Clearfield Road, which is now, however, in a fair way of completion.

On Friday last, in Brady township, Mr. George Shugart, while in the woods falling some timber, was instantly killed by the fall of a tree—breaking his skull and one of his thigh bones. He was about 49 years of age. He leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his sudden death—the family are, however, in good circumstances.

Presidential Election.

We republish this week a connected return of the late election, the former table being in many respects erroneous.

A SAD MISTAKE.—We learn from the Tyrone Star, that Col. A. P. Owens, of the City Hotel, killed three large fat Turkeys on Wednesday, the 21st of November, being under the impression that the next day—the 22d—would be Thanksgiving. We are well aware that our host of the "Mansion House" has committed no mistake of this kind, as the Thanksgiving Turkeys are running around loose yet.—We hope, however, the Col. will make a mistake of this kind, too, about Christmas or New Years, if not sooner.

The Pig, for which a premium was awarded at our late Fair, was slaughtered by Judge Moore on Monday, and when dressed weighed 363 pounds and measured 6 feet and 9 inches in length, and was but 15 months old. To care and the "half bushel" belongs the praise in this instance, as the breed was of but common stock.—It was worth at least $30 in our Market.

GIVEN under my hand at Clearfield, this 24th day of Oct., in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.
F. G. MILLER, Sheriff.
Nov. 28, 1860.

REMEMBER. Strangers or Scrofulous affections are the curse, the blight of mankind. They are vile and filthy, as well as fatal. They arise from impurity and contaminations of the blood, and are to be seen all around us everywhere. Thousands die every year, and are consigned to the grave from the direful effects of this disease. But why trifle any longer, when the remedy is at hand? DR. LINDESEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER, the only effectual preparation new before the people, that does its work mildly and safely. It does not clear the blood superficially, while "Foot corruption" mining all within.

But purges the entire system of all impure matter, invigorates the body, and leaves the afflicted in the enjoyment of good health. To convince the skeptical of its healthy effects, try but one bottle, and be convinced. Sold by all Druggists in this place, and dealers throughout the country.

JUSTICE TO THE SOUTH.—A NEW BOOK, and one destined to make a name for itself.

THE SUNDAY SOUTH.—The SUNDAY SOUTH, or the SOUTHERNER AT HOME. Embracing Five Years' Experience of a Southern Governor, in the South of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco, and Cotton. Edited by PROF. J. H. INGRAHAM, of MISSISSIPPI. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 256 pages. Price $1.25.

Literary notice from the Press throughout the country.

THE SUNDAY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style, and of a narrative, embracing the most prominent features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of devoted people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southern life or of Southern life, except what they have gained from "fiction" or those who intentionally have "written to deceive."—Republic, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE SUNDAY SOUTH.—This volume is in the form of a diary, giving, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and is opened without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are very nearly natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.

THE SUNDAY SOUTH.—We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul truths in the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" of the last ten years, it nevertheless does successfully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of Northern homes. The South also should take it benignly, for independently of its truthfulness and integrity, it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year.—Times, Greenboro, N. C.

THE SUNDAY SOUTH.—The enterprising publisher, G. E. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book Society, is issuing new works of interest, and spreading them to the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all.—Daily News.

THE SUNDAY SOUTH.—This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrating of Southern life. The heart of the author is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off-hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home.—Press.

THE SUNDAY SOUTH.—"Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of a wide and popular circulation, and this is just the case with 'The Sunday South, or the Southerner at Home,' which appears from the press of G. E. Evans, under the editorship of the gallant Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it evidently springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers."—The New Yorker.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID.

From the Consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom. Being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if by an eye witness.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, L. L. D.

One vol., 12 mo., cloth, 604 pages. Price $1.25.

"This is the third volume and completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish Monarchy. The origin, under Moses, was treated in the 'Pillar of Fire,' and in its great glory under David is treated in the 'The House of David,' while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation meet their delineation in the 'Prince of the House of David.' These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful, and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either dull, stupid, dogmatic, or concealed."—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Pillar of the House of David."

One vol., 12 mo., cloth, 600 pages. Price $1.25.

"This volume is designed to sketch the Hebrew history during the bondage in Egypt, the Prophet Moses being the central figure, and is a fresh and stirring history of the period, in which the Jewish people first from the Bible and from the Jewish history a vast mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interest."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holly Springs, Mississippi.

One vol., 12 mo., cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading incidents of Jewish history in connection with the Jewish people, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to the casual observer. The descriptions of rights and ceremonies are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the 'Pillar of the House of David.'"
—Presbyterian and Evangelist.
