"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great lending historical parts of Scripture in connexion with secular history, so as to present the clear and life like picture of those events as they might be upposed to appear to the casual observer. The descriptions of rights and ceremonials are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the 'Pilgrim's Progress. "-Presbyterian and Evangelist.
