

Clearfield, Pa., December 20, 1860.

We intend to publish the Speech of Senator Bigler, delivered in the Senate upon the present issues of the day; having received it too late for this issue.

A SHABBY PRETEXT.—The Republican papers—condemned by every patriot as the real authors of the impending destruction of our happy country—are just now attempting to throw the responsibility upon the Democrats. And how, reader, do you suppose they undertake this? Why, they say that the Democrats have misrepresented them to the South! have charged them as being Abolitionists! in short, that the Democrats have told this on them! Poor fellows, how we pity them! Truly, they must be hard run when resort to such shabby pretexts are necessary. How much more manly, and brave, and patriotic would it be for them to be honest, and come out openly and acknowledge what their hearts tell them is true—that, in order to get the votes of the Abolitionists, in order that they might obtain possession of the "flesh pots," they had to act the part of Abolitionists. This would be much more honorable than to raise the cry of "step thief," and if they would add to their confession that, having now obtained these "flesh pots," they will give their late Abolition friends the cold shoulder, return to honest and patriotic habits, we have no doubt the South will gladly forgive the past and take them again to their confidence.

You need not try to escape the responsibility of your conduct by making such childish charges against the Democrats. You will only make yourselves ridiculous. You print papers as well as the Democrats, and the Southern people read for themselves. You make speeches in Congress, also, as well as the Democrats—and the blood-thirsty speeches of Seward, Wade Sumner, Lovejoy and others, published in the Globe—the official paper of Congress circulates South as well as North. No Democrat could misrepresent them. They were each a fire-brand, and perhaps designed to kindle the fire that now threatens to destroy the last hope of the human race.

Beecher and his Defenders. In our issue of the 5th inst. we gave our opinion in a short article, in reference to the mode of celebrating Thanksgiving—objecting to the way in which it was usually celebrated by Beecher, Chapin & Co.

For this impudence, as we infer from the article; the Editor of the Journal takes us to task; characterizing it as a bold attempt at the suppression of "the Constitutional prerogative of Free Speech." The sense in which the Journal hawls for "Free Speech" is as potent in the mouth of an outlaw, as it is in the columns of Beecher Chapin & Co's defenders. This is invariably the first sentiment put forth by all demagogues.

That the editor may not misrepresent us hereafter, we will here say that we believe slavery to be of Divine origin, and defy him and all the other Abolitionists in this or any other country, to disprove it by the Bibles. Call in your Beecher, Chapin & Co, if you please, and we will see how soon you must discard the Bible to carry your point. The editor of the Journal insinuates that it is not of Divine origin; hence we wish to have the evidence of this further than his late article. After getting shut of wind in defending Beecher & Co, he files exceptions to our orthography, of this we do not, nor will we ever boast, we are about as open to improvement in this, as the Editor of the Journal is in his historical recollections.

A few days after the Presidential election he furnished his readers with the astonishing fact that Mr. Lincoln had received a large vote in Washington City. As none of the candidates received any votes there, Mr. Lincoln and the Journal must have carried the City.

Johnson had his Boswell, Robison Cruce had his man Friday; and Beecher Chapin, & Co., must have a Row.

CONFIRMATIONS.—The President, on Wednesday, the 12th inst., appointed Philip F. Thomas, Commissioner of Patents, Secretary of the Treasury, in place of Hon. Howell Cobb, and the Senate at once confirmed the appointment. The appointment of the Hon. John B. Weller, as Minister to Mexico, was also confirmed. In consequence of the retirement from the Patent Office of Mr. Thomas, Mr. S. T. Shugart, of Pennsylvania, long the efficient Chief Clerk, becomes the acting Commissioner.

The latest news from the East afford no solution of our present national difficulties. In our opinion, there is no hope beyond a reference to the source of all political power—THE PEOPLE. Congress should therefore take immediate steps by calling upon the different States to provide for the election of Delegates to National Constitutional Convention his may say—provided a collision be averted by this is done.

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON

We begin to fear that the time has passed when Congressional action might at least have delayed the secession of Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia, and caused the conservative men in those States to reflect more fully before they adopt the suicidal policy of South Carolina. Nothing can now be seen ahead to assure us that they may accomplish anything; yet we hope the disabilities with both extreme sections will both be seen and felt, and may speedily result in a satisfactory and safe settlement of the question.

TEXAS.—Gov. Houston, of Texas, has opposed secession, and has crippled it in every way, refusing to call the Legislature together, or assist in any way that might tend towards the movement. This, however, he is unable to do any longer. The citizens of every county in the State are petitioning him by the hundreds to call a session of the Legislature, to prepare for secession. It will be impossible to stem the tide any longer.

COMMITTEE OF THIRTY THREE.—This Committee is industriously at work. All eyes are turned in that direction, though with but little hope of a good result, from the unfair manner in which the committee is constituted. Every movement thus far goes to show, that, unless the North speedily evince a willingness to give additional guarantees of the Constitutional rights of the South, Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Florida, will be out of the Union before the 4th of March, next, and that Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, would follow immediately.

Senator Crittenden, of Ky., alleges that if the Gulf States secede, all the border States will undoubtedly follow. This is inevitable.

Ex-Gov. Thomas, of Md., late Commissioner of Patents, has been confirmed as Secretary of the Treasury, in place of Mr. Cobb, resigned. Mr. Treveset, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has also resigned.

Mr. Shugart, Chief Clerk, is now Acting Commissioner of Patents.

LATER. The President has recommended that the 4th day of January next be observed as a day of humiliation and prayer, for a continuation of Divine Blessings towards our now unhappy and distracted country.

Major General Scott has laid before the President an elaborate opinion on the troubles of the country.

Later news state that he has tendered his resignation to the President.

Gen. Cass has resigned the post of Secretary of State; and Judge Black has been appointed in his stead.

E. M. Stanton, of Pittsburgh, has been appointed Attorney General, in place of Judge Black resigned.

Large Union Meetings, have lately been held in Philadelphia, New York, Harrisburg, and Trenton; the proceedings of which, seem to have no charms for the public ear at Washington.

At the Union meeting in New York, on Saturday last, Millard Fillmore, Green C. Bronson, and Richard Lathers, were appointed Commissioners to proceed to South Carolina with a view to prevent any precipitate action there.

The President's Proclamation to the People of the United States.

Numerous appeals have been made to me by pious and patriotic associations and citizens, in view of the present distracted condition of our country, to recommend that a day be set apart for Humiliation, fasting and Prayer throughout the Union.

In compliance with their request and my own sense of duty, I designate Friday, the 4th day of January, 1861, for this purpose, and recommend that the People assemble on that day according to their several forms of worship, to keep it as a solemn Fast.

The Union of the States is at the present moment threatened with alarming and immediate danger; panic and distress of a fearful character prevail throughout the land; our laboring population are without employment, and consequently deprived of the means of earning their bread. Indeed, hope seems to have deserted the minds of men. All classes are in a state of confusion and dismay, and the wisest councils of our best and purest men are wholly disregarded.

In this hour of calamity and peril to whom shall we resort for relief but to the God of our fathers? His omnipotent arm only can save us from the awful effects of our own crimes and follies, our own ingratitude and guilt towards our Heavenly Father.

Let us, then, with deep contrition and penitent sorrow, unite in humbling ourselves before the Most High, in confessing our individual and national sins, and in acknowledging the justice of our punishment. Let us implore him to remove from our hearts the false pride of opinion which would impel us to persevere in wrong for the sake of consistency, rather than yield a just submission to the unforeseen exigencies by which we are surrounded. Let us with deep reverence beseech Him to restore the friendship and good will which prevailed in former days among the people of the several States; and, above all, to save us from the horrors of civil war and "blood-guiltiness." Let our fervent prayers ascend to His Throne that He would not desert us in this hour of extreme peril, but remember us as he did our fathers in the darkest days of the Revolution, and preserve our Constitution and our Union, the work of their hands, for ages yet to come.

An omnipotent Providence may overrule existing evils for permanent good. He can make the wrath of man to praise Him, and the remainder of wrath He can restrain. Let me invoke every individual in whatever sphere of life he may be placed, to feel a personal responsibility to God and His country for keeping this day holy, and for contributing all in his power to remove our national and impending calamities.

JAMES BUCHANAN.
Washington, December 14, 1860.

The Prime Cause of the Present Trouble in Kansas.

[From the Journal of Commerce.] In a conversation with a United States officer in Kansas, he gave us a history of the cause that led to the present disturbances in Kansas, as he believed. Some time last summer, at the last term of the U. S. Court for the Fort Scott District, indictments were found against thirty-three of Montgomery's men for horse stealing. It appears that a citizen of Southern Kansas, (we omit all names), had been solicited by a cousin, who is a member of the band, to become an active member, promising to him that he should be Secretary, with a salary and a share in the profits of the concern. He developed to him the whole plan of organization, and laid before him a full history of their operations. Montgomery, Jenkinson and others were the principal officers, and three brothers by the name of Forbes, were the "experts," or the men who did the major part of the horse stealing. It was also disclosed to him where the place of rendezvous was in Iowa.

After obtaining the necessary information this man went before the Grand Jury, and upon his testimony the different parties, thirty-three in number, were indicted, and among them the brothers Forbes. In pursuance of information obtained through his testimony, an officer was dispatched to Iowa, and succeeded in recovering several horses and arresting two of the gang. They were taken to Paola, and upon being confronted by some U. S. officers made full confession, in all respects confirming the testimony given before the Grand Jury.

Writings were at once issued for the brothers Forbes, and an officer entrusted with the arrest. By some means, however, the parties got information of the facts, and on the arrival of the officer he was met at the door with a Sharpe's rifle presented at his breast, and robbed of his papers, being let off with the warning that if he ever attempted to serve another writ, he should be killed.

Writings were then issued against the brothers Forbes for resistance to the United States officer and by good management they were arrested. Bonds in the sum of $5000 each were required which they gave.

There was no resisting the acceptance of the securities, for they were ample and came fully up to the law. The officers, however, took good care to have the securities in such a shape that if the prisoners were not forthcoming the securities should be made to suffer the full penalty of the bonds. Here then, was a dilemma, and the first in which any of the gang had been fully overreached and entrapped.

Various expedients, such as motions to quash the indictments, continuance of the cases, etc., were resorted to, but the Court overruled them all, and set the time for trial at the present term of the Court.

The alternative thus presented, conviction of the "experts" of the band, or the forfeiture of the bonds, and the certain enforcement of the penalty, was to be avoided. The first step was the killing of Moore and other important witnesses, upon whose testimony conviction was certain, and the breaking up of the Court, in order to prevent an enforcement, by decree, against the bondsmen.

Both have been done, and the manner of doing it, has been familiar to the public for the past ten days. We have thus given in brief, the statement furnished us and from its high authority, we are led to give it full credence, as the main inciting cause to the present proceedings.

Our informant says that the talk about the neutral land difficulties and all other excuses, together with their threats against Missouri, is only to enlist the sympathy they supposed still exists among certain parties in the territory growing out of former troubles; but now that they are at work, there is no telling where they may stop. He is also of the opinion, that the troops will effect little if anything more than they have done heretofore, owing to the cumbersome manner in which they move, and the instructions under which they are forced to act. It is his opinion that nothing short of the establishment of martial law, and the power to pursue and exterminate will ever relieve the country from the depredations of the scoundrels who now hold possession of the portion of Kansas in question. All the formulas of legal proceedings, are rather in aid of the outlaws than against them.

The South Carolina Convention assembled at noon yesterday in Columbus. An organization was effected by the selection of a temporary chairman. The small-pox has become epidemic, and much excitement prevails among the delegates. Gen. Jamison was chosen president of the Convention over Mr. Orr, which may be considered an extreme triumph. A motion to adjourn to Charleston was passed by a large majority. The Convention will reassemble at Charleston this afternoon at four o'clock.

Senator Wade, of Ohio, deeming himself a second Cromwell, gave vent to his pent up heroisms in the U. S. Senate on the 17th inst., in which he threatens the extermination of every secessionist, colonize Mexico and Central America with whites of his nature, and free blacks from the North. He says the day for compromise is past, and he for one will scorn any at this time. This was the most ultra Republican speech made this session.
