

EVERGREEN MOUNTAINS OF LIFE.

There's a land far away 'mid the stars we are told, Where we know not the sorrows of time; Where the pure waters wander through valleys of gold.

Ob, the star never treads the blue heavens at night But we think where the ransomed have trod, And the day never smiles from its places of light.

FOR THE BEAUTIFUL. Softly, peacefully, Lay her to rest; Place the turf lightly On her young breast;

DR. M. WOODS, having changed his location from Curwensville to Clearfield, respectfully offers his professional services to the citizens of the latter place and vicinity.

A colored firm in Newark, New Jersey, having suffered some pecuniary embarrassments, recently closed business, and the senior member gave to the public the following "notis":—"De dissolution of coparships heretofore resisting twixt me and Mose Jones in de barber profession, am heretofore resolved. Pussons who ose must pay in the scriber. Dem? what de urn ose must call on Jones, as de firm is, involved."

ENGLISH AT LAST!—A Yorkshireman having occasion to visit France, was dumfounded to find, on reaching Calais, that men, women, and children, all spoke French.

WHAT IS A SNOB?—A snob may be known by several characteristics. He is polite to his superiors; arrogant with those of lower station; frowns on the rich; snubs the poor, and pretends not to know his own mother, when he chances to meet the old lady in unfashionable clothes.

A PERFECT MAN.—The man deserving the name is one whose thoughts and exertions are for others, rather than for himself; whose high purpose is adopted on just principles, and never abandoned while heaven or earth affords means of accomplishing it.

Every one knows the height of virtue to which he may attain; but no man can anticipate the depth of depravity to which he may descend.

If the league of friendship is once broken, the cabinet of secrets is unlocked, and they fly wildly about like uncaged birds.

Garibaldi's income as a farmer is about $300 a year—not enough to find an American in rum and tobacco.

Be not affronted at a jest. If one throw salt at thee, thou wilt receive no harm, unless thou hast sore places.

A young lady is charged with putting on airs because she refused to go to a ball barefooted in Indiana.

The grave is indeed hallowed when the grass of the churchyard can cover all memory save that of love.

God often lets us stumble, to put us on our guard against a fall.

When you cannot see both ends, the middle is uncertain.

He who countenances obscenity by a laugh is himself obscene.
