

A LONG SENTENCE.—Im Shotwell alias Davis, who, with Logue, was convicted of murder in Clarion county, was committed to the Western Penitentiary on Wednesday evening. Shotwell was convicted of murder in the second degree and also of robbery. On the murder charge he was sentenced to eleven and a half years, and on the robbery, five years, making sixteen years and a half in all. Shotwell is only twenty-two years of age. Logue was convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hanged. His case was appealed to the Supreme Court for a new trial, and has not yet been decided.

HOLDING COURT UNDER DIFFICULTIES.—An exchange states that Judge White, and a lot of hungry lawyers, met up the West Branch, somewhere in the woods, the other day, to find "Cameron County," but on getting together, found no Court House, no juries, "no nothing," but an act of incorporation full of omissions and absurd commissions. So they smoked, told stories, sung songs, drank cornjuice, authorized the Legislature, appointed a committee to prepare a County Act that would "stick," and went home with "nary dollar" made, except by the Court Crier and landlords who extemporized a county town somewhere in shippen township.

EFFECTS OF THE CRISIS.—Friday and Saturday last were two of the most calamitous days ever known in the commercial history of New York. It is said that not less than ninety firms were forced to succumb to the pressure, and among them many heretofore deemed opulent—such houses as Freeland, Squires, & Co., which has been in existence for a quarter of a century.

THE SPEECHES OF OLD ABE.—We have never read such speeches as those made by Old Abe on his journey from Springfield towards the White House since General Scott ran for President; and then, indeed, we were regaled with some choice oratorical morsels. It is quite refreshing to hear the ex-ral splitter and present journeyman Cabinet maker delighting his audience with such choice and original expressions as "passional attraction," and quaint allusions to "free love" and homoeopathy. We expect to be very much amused when the angular features of the elect of his people make their appearance in New York. What we want is a good Western anecdote, and we hope the natural modesty of Mr. Buchanan's successor will not prevent his giving us the desired treat.

In one of his recent remarkable speeches the President elect has stated that a majority of the people voted in favor of the Chicago Platform. This is not the truth. A majority of the electoral votes endorse the Chicago resolutions, but they are in a minority of a million of voices in the nation. Mr. Lincoln must be more careful in his statements, or else keep quiet. He is not now stamping the benighted districts of Illinois, or defending the plunderer of a henroost; he is in a position where the utmost care, prudence and circumspection are absolutely required. The President elect certainly should not endorse partisan tricks which involve a willful deviation from the facts in the case. The figures have been printed over and over again, and no man who can read, or procure some friend to read for him, should be uninformed as to the popular vote, which, as we have said, was against the Chicago Platform.—New York Herald.

YOU WANT IT.
YOUR WIFE WANTS IT.
YOUR CHILDREN WANT IT.
IT WILL CERTAINLY PAY.
AND YOU WOULD HAVE IT.
If you only knew how useful, how instructive, and how entertaining it is. We refer to that "first class," that "largest," most instructive, most beautiful, and yet cheapest journal in the world for the household, for the farm and for the garden, viz: the American Agriculturist.

You want it, because it contains so very many new and useful directions, hints, and suggestions about all kinds of out-door work, in the garden in the field, in the Orchard, on the little plot of ground, about domestic animals, etc., etc. The Agriculturist is not a stale rehash of theoretical stuff, such as goes the rounds from one paper to another, but it is filled with new practical information, every word of which is reliable, because prepared by honest, practical working men, who know what they write about.
Each volume contains many hundreds of useful hints, and it is certain that many of these hints will each be worth to you more than a dollar. As an example, a subscriber writes: "I obtained 5 bushels more per acre on a ten-acre field of wheat, (or in all 50 bushels) simply from a hint about preparing seed given in my Agriculturist." Another says he obtained an extra yield of 11 bushels of corn per acre on a fifteen-acre field, and with no extra cost for culture, by applying one hint from the Agriculturist. Another (a village) says he got $134 worth extra of garden vegetables, which he attributes wholly to the timely hints in the Agriculturist, which told him from time to time what to do, how to do it, and when to do it. Thousands of others have derived similar advantages. You are invited to try the paper a year, at a cost of only $1. If you desire, you can have, free of charge, four or five papers, if choice seems good, by the present winter.
Your wife wants the Agriculturist, because it has a large amount of valuable and really useful information about all kinds of Household work from garret to cellar. Give her the benefit of this paper for a year. You will find your home made better, and money saved.
Your children want the Agriculturist, for it contains a very interesting, useful, and instructing department for youth and children, which will be of great value to their minds and hearts.
The above are truthful statements, that will cheerfully attested to by nearly a hundred of the names of the present readers of the Agriculturist. You are invited to try a single volume of Just As it is, which will cost only $1, and abundantly pay. Try it for 1861 (Vol. 26).
