JOHN CATHART COMMITS SUICIDE.—This unhappy man closed his earthly career on Sunday night last, in his cell, by hanging himself.

This individual has fully demonstrated that the way of the transgressor is hard. A man of accumulated brutish habits, and guilty of the highest and most awful crimes known to the laws of God and man—murder and suicide—he has been made to suffer all the pangs that mortal flesh could endure in this world, and his reward in the next is better imagined than expressed.

It seems that he must have contemplated suicide for some time. He had torn his undershirt into narrow strips, and had sewed them together, with which he had tied his hands together, which he must have done after he had tied the handkerchief to the bar of iron and around his neck; which he done by standing on the side of his bed. He had run his one leg through his arms, which brought him to a stooping position. His other leg was chained to the floor, the chain being long enough to permit him to be in bed. After being thus prepared, he undoubtedly jumped off the bed. His hands and wrists were of the same purple color of his neck, and must have suffered great pain. The foot upon which the chain was fastened was resting on the floor.

The following is the finding of the Inquest:
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,
Clearfield County, ss.
An inquisition indented and taken at Clearfield, in said county, this 25th day of February, 1861, before me, M. A. Frank, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county, in the jail of said county, upon the view of the body of John Cathart, then and there lying dead, upon the solemn oaths and affirmations of A. K. Wright, L. R. Merrell, H. H. Morrow, Isaac Johnson, Wm. R. Brown, and Wm. Radebaugh, of said county, who, being sworn and affirmed to inquire, on the part of the Commonwealth, when, where, how, and after what manner the said John Cathart came to his death, do say, upon their oaths and affirmations: that the said John Cathart, not having the fear of God before his eyes, on the day of the taking of this inquisition, being a prisoner in the jail at Clearfield, in the county aforesaid, and then and there imprisoned in a cell therein, and fastened to the floor thereof, in said cell in the jail aforesaid, on the night of the 24th of February, A. D. 1861, with a certain cotton handkerchief then and there tied and held in his hands, and one end thereof put about his neck by him, and tied about a bar of iron upon the wall of said cell, with the handkerchief aforesaid, voluntarily and feloniously and of his malice aforethought, hanged and suffocated; and so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths and affirmations aforesaid, do say, that the said John Cathart, then and there in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, voluntarily, and of his malice aforethought, himself did kill, strangle, and murder, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

EXPECTED TREAT.—The Washington Cadets Saxo Horn Band which has been under the instruction of J. P. Rowbotham, Esq., of Philadelphia, for some time will give concerts, under the direction of their preceptor at this place next Monday, and in Luthersburg next Tuesday evening.—This band has made great proficiency in the art of music since their organization, their teacher being one of the most experienced in the United States.

The one Hundred and Twenty-ninth Anniversary of Washington's birth day was duly celebrated, by a general parade in our town, by that "crack" volunteer company, the Washington Cadets. We understand that they closed their proceedings by partaking of a supper prepared by the proprietor of the "Clearfield House."

A BARK STORY.—We had the extreme pleasure to witness an "Irrepressible Conflict," on the night of the 22nd, between a Black and a White Republican—but we felt like the woman when her husband and the bear were fighting—"I did not care which whipped," after the Black had become the equal of the White in language, conduct, and every other particular except color.

ROBBERS.—The crackmen and pickpockets who congregated about Harrisburg on the 22nd, seem to have had quite a successful time. Among others, we observe that Judge Barrett of this place was robbed of $70, and Judge Taylor of Huntingdon, of a valuable watch and some money.

CHAMP FOR CASH.—O. B. Merrell, over the way, has received, and is now opening a large stock of Groceries, Liquors, Tobacco, Flour, &c., which will be disposed of cheap for cash. Give him a call and you will find it to your advantage.

REUBEN H. MOORE has been appointed Post Master at Luthersburg, in the room of A. L. Schnell resigned.

Mr Moore is a very clever fellow, but his Republicanism is of the darkest dye, we wish him success in everything he may undertake, except his politics.

TOWNSHIP AND LOCAL LAWS.—We are informed by the general agent for this deservedly popular work, that a supply of copies have been received, and are now for sale at Dr. Hartwick's drug store in this place. Price $1.25 per copy.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration having this day been granted to the undersigned on the estate of JOHN YOUNG, late of Burnside township, Clearfield county, deceased, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same will present them duly authenticated for settlement.

EXECUTORS' NOTICE.—Letters testamentary having this day been granted to the undersigned on the estate of JOHN DILLON, late of Burnside township, Clearfield county, deceased, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against it will present them duly authenticated for settlement.

YOU WANT IT.
YOUR WIFE WANTS IT.
YOUR CHILDREN WANT IT.
IT WILL CERTAINLY PAY.
AND YOU WOULD HAVE IT. If you only knew how useful, how instructive, and how entertaining it is. We refer to that "first best" that largest, most instructive, most beautiful, and yet cheapest journal in the world for the household, for the farm and for the garden, viz: the American Agriculturist.

You want it, because it contains so very many new and useful directions, hints, and suggestions about all kinds of out-door work, in the Garden, in the Field, in the Orchard, on the little plot of ground, about domestic animals, etc., etc. The Agriculturist is not a stale rehash of theoretical stuff, such as goes the rounds from one paper to another, but it is filled with new practical information, every word of which is reliable, because prepared by honest, practical working men, who know what they write about.

Each volume contains many hundreds of useful hints, and it is certain that many of these hints will each be worth to you more than a dollar. As an example, a subscriber writes: "I obtained 5 bushels more per acre on a ten-acre field of wheat, (or in all 50 bushels) simply from a hint about preparing seed given in my Agriculturist." Another says he obtained an extra yield of 11 bushels of corn per acre on a fifteen-acre field, and with an extra cost for culture, by applying the hints from the Agriculturist. Another (a villager) says he got $134 worth extra of good garden vegetables, which he attributes wholly to the timely hints in the Agriculturist, which told him from time to time what to do, how to do it, and when to do it. Thousands of others have derived similar advantages. You are invited to try the paper a year, at a cost of only $1. If you desire, you can have, free of charge, four or five parcels of choice seeds, which the Publisher will distribute among his subscribers the present winter.

Your wife wants the Agriculturist, because it has a large amount of valuable and really useful information about all kinds of Household and Farm work. Give her the benefit of this paper for a year. You will find your home made better, and money saved.
