COUNTERFEITS.—We advise our readers to be aware of a dangerous five dollar note, which is now being circulated plentifully in our county. The note is a spurious one, and purports to be issued by the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Camden, New Jersey; vignette, female, sheaf of wheat, and ears in the distance; female on right end, holding a sickle in her left hand, bunch of grain in her right hand over her head; two figures "5's" and locomotive on the left end. There are two kinds in circulation, and one kind have no red about them, while others have five red rings on the back, filled with small figures "5's." The words "Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank" on the genuine are in the form of a half circle, and the word "Five" stamped, in red ink, across the face of the note.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—An accident, resulting in the death of Mr. Gould Wilson, occurred in Huston township, on Friday last. Mr. Wilson, in company with P. Heverner, Esq., and some others, was engaged in breaking logs loose from the bank, and rolling them into the Sinnemahoning creek, at the job of Hon. A. Irwin. Their work was almost completed, when Mr. W. started a log at the lower part of the pile, which moved three others above it, and he, in endeavoring to get out of their way, slipped and fell upon the ice, the logs passing over him and crushing him instantly to death. He was a son of Jesse Wilson, one of the oldest citizens of that section of our county; was about thirty-three years of age, and leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss.

SEWING MACHINES.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of "Harris' Bonus Sewing Machine," in another column. It is one of the best now in use. Any person wishing to examine it, can do so by calling at the residence of D. W. Moore, Esq., in Clearfield, where they can satisfy themselves of the practical utility of this useful and necessary invention.

We also refer our readers to the advertisement of Mr. R. James, General Agent for the Erie Sewing Machine Company. For further particulars, address him by letter at Milan, Ohio.

We understand that Wm. F. Johnson has resigned his position as Postmaster at Rockett, in Union township, and the office is now vacant. If none of our Union township friends attend to this matter soon, the office will undoubtedly be abolished by the Department—which would prove a great inconvenience to the citizens of that township. It was entirely through the exertions of Mr. Johnson and a few friends that this office was established and kept up, and for several years it has proved a great convenience to the people in that locality.

MISTAKEN.—Our cotemporary, "The Central Press," of Bellefonte, is in error in regard to the suicide of John Cathcart.—No petition for his pardon, as is stated in his article, was miraculously signed, nor was he informed of the fact of his death-warrant being signed, and time of execution fixed; the Sheriff intending to discharge the unpleasant duty of reading to him his death-warrant upon the day after he committed suicide. His attempt to cut his throat some weeks previously shows that the act was deliberate and premeditated.

The late freshet caused much damage to the Anderson Creek Navigation Company's works. One of their upper dams was swept away, causing an immense raise of water in the creek, sweeping away the bridge over the creek on the new turn pike near Moore's mill, and the bridge at Bridgeport, on the Erie road.—A portion of the dam at the Woolen Factory in Union township, was also washed away, as well as a portion of the large dam above Curwensville. It is doubtful whether the company will get any logs to market this spring.

We regret to learn that the barn of Thomas Daugherty, near Pennville, was totally destroyed by fire one day last week, together with about eight tons of hay, a sleigh and some grain. The origin of the fire is unknown, unless it was caused by a lantern in the barn, in which there were some matches, and as usual, a tallow candle, and it is supposed that the matches were ignited by the rats, which was no doubt the cause of the fire.

Mr. Jas. McMurray's fine Durham Bull, Young Jack, which drew the prize at our late County Fair, was discovered to be in a drowning situation, a few days ago. Having walked out on the ice of the mill pond in search of water, the ice gave way, immersing him in about six feet of water. Ropes and other means were immediately used, and with the exertions of a few men he was soon brought to terra firma, and will no doubt pay us a visit next fall again, and in all probability take the prize.

IMPORTANT TO TAXPAYERS.—In the case of Wharton vs. the Borough of Birmingham, just decided by the Supreme Court, it was held that the remedy for an unfair or illegal assessment of taxes is by appeal to the taxing power, as provided by law, before payment. If a party waive his right of appeal, the collector has no power to relieve him, nor can he sue the borough or county which taxes him, to recover back moneys once regularly paid in pursuance of a regular assessment. Where an owner suffers the county to assess his town lots as seated, without appeal and without returning them as unseated, he cannot object to the borough assessing them also as seated. His remedy is by appeal to the County Commissioners at the proper time.

HEARS OFF.—It seems that "Old Abe" has taken his "rail" axe with him to Washington, for the purpose of chopping off heads, in which capacity he is wielding it in the "rail" style. He has appointed Norman B. Judd, of Illinois, Minister to Prussia, in place of Wright, of Indiana, removed, and Herman Kriesman, of Illinois, has been appointed Secretary of Legation. William P. Cole, of the same State has been appointed Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Illinois seems to be in the lead, which creates considerable dissatisfaction in the great wigwag of Republicanism.

NEWS ITEMS.

A SOURCE OF CORRUPTION EXTINGUISHED.—Whatever may have been the shortcomings of the Congress just expired, it has passed one measure for which it is entitled to the thanks of the country. We allude to the amendment of the Patent laws, which provides that all patents hereafter granted shall remain in force for seventeen years from the date of issue, and that all extensions of such patents shall be prohibited. We know of no influence which has contributed more to the demoralization of the National Legislature than the sums spent in lobbying to extend the large patent monopolies.—It is impossible to estimate the amount that has been lavished in this way within the last dozen years, but it is to be counted by millions. For the future, thank God, this source of temptation will be removed, and we shall be spared the disgrace of seeing the votes of our representatives publicly sold for the support of these unjustifiable privileges. The only objection to the amendment is in the length of time given to a patent. Ten years would have been long enough a time.—Herald.

BACKBONE FOR SALE.—The owners having no use for the article since the recent case in of Republican leaders, offer for sale a large lot of backbone, much of it nearly new, having only been used since Lincoln's Indianapolis speech, which it now seems was misunderstood. It is all just as good as new, and will be sold very low for cash, or exchange for oil or any other material good for lubricating the publican knee joints. Inquire of the Republican editors, office hunters, or executive committee. Also of any of the squirts or squires engaged in the riot at City Hall to break up a Union meeting, a few weeks since.—Pittsburg Post.

THE CENSUS OF 1860.—The London Times is fairly amazed at the last census returns of the United States. It opens its eyes in astonishment, says nothing like such growth has ever been witnessed in Europe, and considers the statistics "astounding." The Times remarks: "If the threatened dissolution of the United States should be actually consummated, the citizens will enjoy a singular opportunity of contemplating, at the very crisis of their destinies, the magnitude and splendor of the political fabric which they have just destroyed."

The Virginia Convention does not seem to be well pleased with the inaugural. The secessionists denounce it as a war message; moderate Union men think they can discern a very small negro in the woodpile, out-and-out Unionists would rather have had something more explicit and encouraging. But they say Virginia will not secede at present.

Judge Daniel B. Vonderamith, of Lancaster, who was convicted nearly two years ago of forging applications for land warrants, and sentenced to twenty years imprisonment and $20,000 fine, had his sentence commuted last week by President Buchanan from twenty to three years, which term will expire on the 5th of June, 1862.

The great Republic is coming down a peg. The Nicaragua Congress has not ratified the American treaty, and probably will not. The Grandian Government declare they don't want a treaty with us, and are a match for either the Northern or Southern Governments of America. Think of that.

The sudden flight of Mr. Lincoln from Harrisburg was a very remarkable commentary upon the opinion expressed at Columbus that there was "nothing the matter," "nothing going wrong," "nobody hurt." If nobody was hurt, it is now very evident that somebody was terribly scared.

A young clergyman having, in the hearing of Dr. Parr, stated that he would believe nothing he could not understand, the doctor said:—Then, young man, your creed will be the shortest of any man's I know!

NEW TRIAL GRANTED.—The Supreme Court has reversed the decision of the Court below in the case of Logie, convicted of the murder of Jared Lewis. The trial will probably take up the time of the court at the May term.—Clarion Democrat.

The Democratic and Union Conventions of Rhode Island on Wednesday last, re-nominated Wm. Sprague for Governor, and the whole ticket as elected last year.

John Covode and Mr. C. H. Van Wyck, of New York, who were recently "assassinated" by four men, but subsequently killed them all, have gone to New Hampshire on an electioneering tour.

Titan J. Coffey, Esq., late Senator from Indiana county, Pennsylvania, has been appointed assistant Attorney General of the United States, in place of Mr. McCalmont, resigned.

Adjutant-General Cooper has resigned his commission in the army. He is a brother-in-law of Senator Mason, of Virginia.

The State Legislature having adjourned over from the 1st to the 12th inst., of course no harm has been done in that quarter, especially if they all left Harrisburg during the adjournment; but having again re-assembled on yesterday to continue their feast upon the vitals of the Commonwealth, we may soon hear of some object being introduced, to still further plunder the good old Keystone and her citizens. We do not wish our readers to understand, that our Legislature is filled with a set of public plunderers, as we can assure them that there are a few noble exceptions among the members of that body.

"UNITED WE STAND."—Governor Bigler's organ in Clearfield, publishes Judge Douglas' speech in favor of compromise for the sake of the Union—and follows it with the Governor's own splendid effort on the same subject. This shows that while small politicians differ on the most momentous occasions—statesmen and patriots unite when the good of the country requires it.—Mountaineer.

We hope our Democratic friends in Cambria county, will pay some attention to this subject, too, and thereby bring their "Kilkenny" performances to a close, and fully and fairly adopt the above motto.

A Convention of the People.

Mr. Lincoln, in his inaugural address, seems to favor a Convention of the people, to decide upon the manner of adjustment of our present national difficulties. If the question of amendments to the Constitution, cannot be put to a direct vote of the people as proposed by Senator Bigler, which would be a final decision of the issues which divide the country, a National Convention, may, perhaps, be an effectual means of settling the disputes which have arisen under the Constitution, or rather under the conflicting interpretations of it. We would prefer a direct reference of all matters at issue to the people themselves, but if that is impossible to be the next best thing. The Peace Conference, although its resolutions carry with them a great moral weight and its recommendations have force, as the result of the counsel and wisdom of the wise and conservative men of a large number of the States, had no power to render its action binding. If a National Convention be held, it must be the work of the people of all the States. Its delegates must be from every part of the country—representing the views of all parties—of those in favor of change as well as of those opposed to a change in the Constitution, and its results would then go forth with the authority and force of a clear decision of the popular will. If properly organized, such a Convention might provide a satisfactory and effective adjustment of our political difficulties; and if it should fail, there is still left the direct appeal to the people themselves as a last resort.—Post.

We were by the Baltimore papers that about 20,000 people assembled at the Railroad depot, when learning of the approach of ex-President Buchanan, on his way to his home at Wheatland. After the cars stopped there, universal cheers were given by the citizens to the man that was not afraid to travel through Baltimore in daylight.

We should not wonder if this was intended to reflect upon the gentleman who passed through that city a short time ago, with a Scotch cap and a military cloak.
