

CLEARFIELD, PA. Wednesday Morning March 27, 1861.

Where are we Drifting?

Have we a Government? This question a few weeks ago was a favorite one with our Black Republican friends, and they always answered it by saying, "Wait till old Abe gets in, he will show you that we have." But now alas! how are the mighty fallen! how terribly the count of the fighting frontier has been cut; how the yawning chasms are filled and with gentle homages do they follow in the wake...

A View of Slavery.

We have lately read a very interesting little book of 224 pages, by Nehemiah Adams of Boston. We have read eight or ten works, all treating upon the subject of slavery, but none approached this one. It is the most manly, conscientious and wisest testimony bearing upon the subject of slavery, that has ever been published in this or any other country; and we hope that every man, woman and child will read it.

A Confession.

There is an old proverb that says "An honest confession is good for the soul." If this is a correct hypothesis, we may well imagine what a glorious justice is awaiting the Black Republicans at some future time. Mr. Seward's organ, the Albany Journal, in a late issue, gave vent to the following truthful confession...

Bank Resumption.

Our State Legislators and the bankers have had quite a time among themselves, in reference to passing an act for the resumption of specie payment by the latter. In the meantime, the Philadelphia Banks have resumed paying specie at their counters...

More Rebellion.

It appears to us that everything is conspiring against the peace and happiness of our beloved country. During the past week a number of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Church have been in session—the Missouri Conference at St. Louis, the Western Virginia at Wheeling, the Baltimore at Staunton, Va.; the East Baltimore at Chambersburg, Pa.; in all of which the slavery question seemed to be the leading measure.

The Policy of the Administration.

The time of the telegraph has arrived, and its use has been proved. It has done more for the Government in a few days than it could have done in a month by any other means. It has also required time to make its aggressive schemes that have been hatched upon it. It has become clear to Mr. Morrill's tariff will yield no revenue unless Wall Street can be hoisted.

Not Well Balanced.

The New England States have managed to get possession of a larger share of the power of the Government than of right belongs to them. With a population little greater than that of Pennsylvania, the New England States have twelve United States Senators to our two.

Good for Gov. Curtin?

Gov. Curtin, it seems, would not stand the Kansas relief bill. To avoid a veto, the Legislature called it back, and there we suppose it will be suffered to sleep. It was not only unconstitutional but wholly void of merit. The money being collected for Kansas relief is represented by citizens there to be intended principally to support murderous thieving bands like that of Montgomery, to harbor and feed runaway negroes, and to maintain a watch of lazy rascals whose business is to keep up Abolition excitement, shriek for freedom and bleed for Kansas.

A Good Selection.

The radical Republicans and Abolitionists are rejected at the appointment of Joshua R. Giddings—the oldest Abolitionists of them all—as Consul General to Canada. We presume Mr. Giddings has been selected to supersede the British end of the Under Ground Railroad. We must admit that Abraham exhibits great sagacity and ability in the selection of his Ministers.

Congressmen Yet to be Elected.

The States which have yet to choose Representatives, and their times for election, are as follows: Connecticut, April 1; V. Carolina, Aug. 8; R. Island, April 2; California, Sept. 2; Virginia, May 25; Maryland, Nov. 9; Tennessee, Aug. 1; Kansas, —; Kentucky, Aug. 5.

How to Bank.

Once upon a time the negroes of Boston came to the conclusion that they would have a Bank of their own; but not having sufficient funds to pay a cashier, erect a building, &c., they concluded to constitute an old negro "the bank," and place all the money each could well spare into his hands, to be drawn out as occasion might require.

The Philadelphia Press rejoices.

The Philadelphia Press rejoices greatly at the election of that "impending Ohio" Abolitionist, John Sherman, of Ohio—to the United States Senate.—'How we applow swim.'

What They Say of Cave Schurz at Home.

This man Schurz is one of his class; he is literally a vagabond and an adventurer. During the few years in which he has claimed to be a citizen of Wisconsin, he has engaged in no honest calling or contributed in any manner to the industrial resources of the State.
