

Car Time at Tyrone. The Winter arrangement of the Pennsylvania railroad, on and after the 26th instant, will be as follows: TRAINS LEAVING EASTWARD.

GETTING POPULAR.—We rejoice to know that the Clearfield county Agricultural Society is a fixed fact, and that much good will be accomplished by the establishment of the Society.

Also learn that in certain portions of the county, the beautiful diploma which was given out last fall, is being used by Physicians, as a medical diploma.

AMUSEMENTS.—A Complete Guide and Fancy Work. Beautifully illustrated. Price $1.50.

Here is a book decidedly useful and valuable, without a teacher you can learn, and its easy rules and illustrations. Pen and Pencil Drawing, Crayon Drawing and Painting, Water Color Painting, Oil Painting, Engraving, etc.

THE PUBLISHERS, MESSRS. J. E. TILTON & CO., BOSTON, will send it post paid by mail, if you cannot find it at the book-stores.

RESOLUTION.—The Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Church, which adjourned on Saturday last, adjourned after long and earnest deliberation, resolution recommending to the next general conference the repeal of the slavery restriction chapter, adopted at the meeting of that body last year at Buffalo.

A REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT.—The Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Church, which adjourned on Saturday last, adjourned after long and earnest deliberation, resolution recommending to the next general conference the repeal of the slavery restriction chapter, adopted at the meeting of that body last year at Buffalo.

MERCHANTS VISITING PHILADELPHIA will find the largest Carpet Warehouse and the largest and best stock of goods in the Carpet line at No. 509, Chestnut St.

CALIFORNIA FASHION.—One of our neighbors removed his family into his new house on Monday last, the greater part of the timber of which it is constructed is standing in the forest three weeks ago.

OUR RAFTING FRIENDS will no doubt be pleased to learn, that our friend R. J. Brynes, at Salt Lick, has planted numerous stout snubbing Posts along the beach in the bend, in addition to blowing out the "rolling stone" at Birch Point.

APRIL SHOWERS.—The six or eight inches of snow that fell here on Monday last, creates a keen desire for the invigorating April showers so much talked of by poets.

AN ELECTION FOR MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, &c., took place in Connecticut on Sunday last—the first State election held since "this farce of a government came to an end."

MOVING DAY.—A large number of our neighbors, we notice, are changing their residences. Should our Carrier fail to find any of them, they will please report.

A LADY POST MISTRESS REMOVED.—The President has appointed H. H. Fry, Postmaster of Columbia, in this county. Mrs. A. S. Moderwell, removed.

BOLD AND HEAVY ROBBERY AT NEW ORLEANS.—Five Cuban ladies arrived at New Orleans, in the steamer Cahawba, having $2,000 between them. They stopped at the St. Louis Hotel, and after taking dinner went out to take a walk.

PLASTERING.—The subscriber, having located himself in the borough of Clearfield, would inform the public that he is prepared to do any description in a workmanlike manner. Also whitewashing and repairing done in a neat manner and on reasonable terms.

PHILADELPHIA PRESS.—We are glad that the Press has at length thrown off the garb that still continued to delude a few confiding Democrats, and that it now boldly assumes the championship of the Lincoln administration.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—The chief of police of Louisville received a letter yesterday from Columbus, Kentucky, informing him that the safe of Mr. Frank Stewart, of that place, was broken open on Sunday night last, and robbed of more than five thousand dollars, as follows: $2,000 in twenty-dollar gold pieces, $2,100 in bills on the Union Bank, Tennessee, $1,100 in Missouri money, and between seven and eight hundred dollars in tens and twenties in Kentucky currency.—Journal, 22d.

A REWARD OF 10,000 Know Nothing Caps and Capses is offered for the backbone lost by the "Second Washington," alias Abe Lincoln, in his mid-night flight from Harrisburg to Washington, to escape the phantoms that he imagined were going to assassinate him.

THE NEW YORKERS, who are proverbial for their relish of all intellectual amusements, had their taste highly gratified on Tuesday evening by witnessing an international dog fight, $250 a side between Rosie, of Brooklyn, and Boss, of Liverpool, England, both famous fighters.

MENDING A TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Times typographically called Mr. Weller of California, "an old political sot," but he corrected the error, and state that the word should have been "rat."

SOUTHERN SCHOOL BOOKS.—A resolution was introduced into the Georgia State Convention on the 8th ultimo, requesting the Governor to issue prizes of $500 each, for a spelling book, arithmetic, English grammar, geography, and two reading-books—one for beginners and one for more advanced scholars—for the use of common schools in the Confederate States. The copyrights of the new works are to be the property of the authors or compilers.

THE MOVEMENTS AND OBJECTS OF THE SOUTHERN COMMISSIONERS. The Washington letter writers say that the Southern Commissioners are in constant communication with the Government at Montgomery, and act in accordance with its feelings, which are to exhaust every possible mode of obtaining a peaceful solution of the questions growing out of the late secession.

SINGULAR EFFECT OF DIPHTHERIA.—Noble Burnham, Jr., a young man 19 or 20 years old, and Elizabeth Clifford, about 16, residing in Cape Ann, Md., had the mysterious throat malady a few months since, which has resulted in a paralysis of their lower limbs—both being unable to walk, and not being able even to stand upon the floor.
