

KISSES.

"Oh, kiss me and go,
Wald the maid of my heart,
And prevent her life
As a kiss to depart—
The midnight approaches,
My mother will know,
My kindest and dearest!
Oh, kiss me and go."

She gave me the blessing
In such a sweet way,
The thrill of its pleasure
Enticed me to stay.
So we kissed till the morning
Came in with its glow,
For she said every moment,
"Oh, kiss me and go."

DENTAL CARD.

A. M. SMITH offers his professional services to the ladies and gentlemen of Clearfield and vicinity. All operations performed with neatness and dispatch. Being familiar with all the late improvements, he is prepared to make ARTIFICIAL TEETH in the best manner, and unpuzzled; at liberty to observe, to desire, to construct, to play, to make out its own individuality. This is the great attribute of man—play; this divides him from the brute creation; man alone can laugh. Remember that the longer the period of youth, the period of formation, the better, the more healthy, enduring, and longer-lived the man. Of all created beings, man is the most helpless at infancy.

Keep your books, your illuminated alphabet, your intellectual block, and your abortions of toys—charlatanries upon nature—toys which it is no harm to fall down and worship, since the like thereof exists neither in heaven above, nor in the earth beneath, nor in the water which is under the earth.

Let the child play one, two, three; what, says some one—four years; and not know a letter. Yea, my good madam, until it reacheth the age of seven years, would we have the little mind free and unpuzzled; at liberty to observe, to desire, to construct, to play, to make out its own individuality.
