

Democratic Standing Committee.

A meeting of the Committee will be held at the office of the Chairman, in Clearfield borough, on Monday, June 10th, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Personal attendance is requested, as business connected with the Primary Election will then be transacted.

Effect of Hard Times.—Perhaps no portion of the business community feel the effects of dull times, money pressure and stagnation of business, more immediately and sensibly than newspaper publishers. The present pressure is seen in almost every paper, many having already suspended, and others wear a waning aspect.

As for ourselves, we can only complain of the lack of advertisements. The subscription list of the Republican is now and has been rapidly increasing for weeks—many substantial names having been added thereto.

Two New Companies Organized.

We are pleased to know that another Company of Volunteers has been organized in our town, called the West Branch Greys. Ninety-six men have enrolled their names in this Company. On Monday last they were regularly organized by the Brigade Inspector, Major Patches.

The Stay Law.

HARRISBURG, May 19.—The following is a true copy of the bill offered by Mr. Duffield, and which has passed both branches of the Legislature, relative to judgments and executions.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that in all judgments and executions, that upon all judgments now remaining unsatisfied, or which may be obtained within six months from the passage of this act, there shall be a stay of execution for one year from the passage hereof as regards judgments now existing, and from their date hereof. Provided that the defendant is possessed of real estate within the respective county or counties in which such judgment shall have been obtained, or in any other county within this Commonwealth, to which the said judgment shall have been transferred, subject to be sold for the payment of such judgment, worth in the opinion of any court or any judge in vacation, justice, or otherwise having jurisdiction of such judgments, at a fair valuation, a sum sufficient to pay or satisfy the same, over and above other encumbrances, and the amount of such judgment, for the payment of money, or for the recovery of book debts, wherein the defendant or defendants of any stage of the proceedings, before actual sale by the sheriff, shall have filed an affidavit setting forth that the majority of his or their creditors, whose demands exceed two-thirds of his or their entire indebtedness, have agreed in writing to extend the time of payment of the debts due them respectively, the court shall direct the prothonotary to report the terms of the said affidavit, and the evidence submitted to him by the defendant, over or against, and thereupon the court shall enter an order in the case, that no execution shall issue, except at the periods when, and in the proportions which it shall appear by the report of the prothonotary of the majority of the creditors of the defendant or defendants, whose demands exceed two-thirds of his or their entire indebtedness, have agreed, as aforesaid, to extend the time of payment of the debts due them respectively, as to person or firm, bank or broker, holding collateral as security for debts due or to become due, shall within one year from the taking effect of this act sell at public or private sale any such collateral, whether the same consist of mortgage, bond, note, or other security, commercial or otherwise, and any party selling such collateral securities within such time shall become responsible for the same as double the amount for which it was pledged, and to the owner of such collateral, and no writ of habeas corpus shall be granted, and no judgment or execution shall be entered, and no judgment or execution shall be entered, as well upon bond and warrant of attorney as upon mortgages to secure the same, and to any subsequent grantee or owner of the premises so bound, as well as to the original obligor or mortgagor, and also to all judgments or debts upon which stay of execution has been or may be waived by the debtor in any obligation or contract upon which such judgment or debt has been or may hereafter be obtained, or by any stipulation entered into at any time separate from said obligation or contract, and provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to stay an execution that may be issued after the expiration of sixty days from the passage of this act for the purpose of collecting interest due, or to become due, upon any judgment or debt for any sum, not less than $200, heretofore obtained; but no such execution shall be issued or less than six months' arrears of interest, provided, That this act shall not apply to judgments, or to the security of the payment of money to widows, orphans, or minors. And provided further, That this act shall not apply to any judgments obtained for the wages of labor, or debts contracted after the passage of this act, but shall apply to all corporations, whether defendants or plaintiffs, in all suits, whether defendants or plaintiffs.

HENRY R. COSTAR.—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of your Extremator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the house.

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm street. MICE AND RATS.—I was troubled with vermin, and was no longer at my work. I purchased your Extremator. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $3 we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they affected nothing; but your article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed-Bugs, quicker than we can write. It is in great demand all over the country.

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94 Elm street. I HAVE BEEN SELLING.—Your Extremator for the last year, and have found it to be the best every time. I have not known it to fail in a single instance. Geo. HARRIS' IMPROVED GREAT WORK BY THE HOUSE AND HIS DISEASES.

SEWING MACHINE.

PRICES FROM $40 to $70. The HARRIS' SEWING MACHINE is an original of which is here requested, has now become a recognized favorite wherever it has been introduced, and its merits are being justly appreciated, as well as its handsomeness, in every Sewing Machine now before the public. No. 1.—A small and very neat Machine for Family use. No. 2.—A large Machine for sewing heavy work and for Plantation use.

This Machine is much admired for its simplicity, and for its reliability and durability. It is so simple, that a child twelve years of age can use it with ease; and yet it will sew from the coarsest cloth to the finest Swiss. There is no trouble of re-winding the thread, as it is taken from the spool. It has no belts to give trouble, and will run backwards as well as forwards, and still sew equally perfect, and without danger of breaking needles. It runs by friction, and by closing the box over it, it is drawn out of gear. In fact, we have had no hesitation in recommending it as the best family Sewing Machine in use.
