EFFECT OF HARD TIMES,- Perhaps no portion of the business community feel the effects of dull times, money pressures and stagnation of business, more immedistely and sensibly than newspaper publishers. The present pressure is seen in almost every paper, many having already suspended, and others wear a waning aspect.

As for ourselves, we can only complain of the lack of advertisements. The subscription list of the Republican is now and has been rapidly increasing for weeksded thereto.

Two New Companies O ganized.

We are pleased to know that another Company of Volunteers has been organiad in our town, called the West Branch gregs, Ninety-six men have envolled ARMY their names in this Company. On Monday last they were regularly organized by the Brigade Inspecter, Major PATCHEN .---The officers of the Company are, Captain Z.C. McCuilough : 1st Lieutenant L. K. Merrell; 2nd Lieutenant R. A. Mitchell; This Book is Officially Approved of who are ready to march with their men at any moment when called upon by the Government.

On the same day another (being the first)Company, called the Rolin: Infuntry, Cover, price 25 cents, Flexible Cloth, 38 cents. was also organized by the Brigade Inspector. This Company is composed principalis of married, men and intended for home gentlemen were elected officers of the Company. Captain T. J. McCullough ; is Lieutenant Charles Larrimer; 2nd tientenant Jacob Shunkwiller. We should sy, after this, that our town is indeed patapon a war footing, except that muskes are a little scarce.
