and substance of government, whose leading object is to elevate the condition of men; to lift artificial weights from all shoulders; to clear the paths of laudable pursuit for all; to afford all an unfettered start, and a fair chance in the race of life. Yielding to partial and temporary departures from necessity, this is the leading object of the Government for whose existence we contend.

I am most happy to believe that the plain people understand and appreciate this. It is worthy of note, that, while in this, the Government's hour of trial, large numbers of those in the army and navy who have been favored with the offices have resigned, and proved false to the hand that had pampered them, not one common soldier or common sailor is known to have deserted his flag. Great honor is due to those officers who remained true despite the example of treacherous associates. But the greatest honor and most important fact of all is the uncommon firmness of the common soldiers and common sailors. To the last man, so far as known, they have successfully resisted traitorous efforts of those whose commands but an hour before they obeyed as absolute law. They understand without an argument, that the destroying of the Government which was made by Washington means no good to them. Our popular Government has often been called an experiment. Two points in it our people have already settled—the successful establishing and the successful administering of it. One still remains—its successful maintenance against a formidable attempt to overthrow it. It is for them to demonstrate to the world that those who can fairly carry an election can also suppress a rebellion—that ballots are the rightful and peaceful successors of bullets, and that when ballots have fairly and constitutionally decided there can be no successful appeal back to bullets, that there can be no successful appeal except to ballots themselves at succeeding elections. Such will be a great lesson of peace, teaching men what they cannot take by an election, neither can they take it by war; teaching all the follies of being the beginners of war.

Lest there be some uneasiness in the minds of candid men as to what is to be the course of the Government towards the Southern States after the rebellion shall have been suppressed, the Executive deems it proper to say it will be his purpose then, as ever, to be guided by the Constitution and the laws, and that he probably will have no different understanding of the powers and the duties of the Government relatively to the rights of the States and the people under the Constitution, than expressed in the Inaugural Address. He desires to preserve the Government, that it may be administered to all as it was administered by the men who made it. Loyal citizens everywhere, have the right to claim this of their Government, and the Government has no right to withhold or neglect it. It is not perceived that in giving it there is any coercion, any conquest or subjugation in any just sense of the terms.

The Constitution provides, and all the States have accepted the provision, that the United States shall guaranty to every State in this Union a republican form of Government. But if a State may lawfully go out of the Union, having done so, it may also discard the republican form of Government; so that to prevent its going out, it is all indispensable to use every means to the end of maintaining the guarantee. When an end is lawful and obligatory the indispensable means to obtain it are also lawful and obligatory.

It was with the deepest regret that the Executive found the duty of employing the war power in defence of the Government forced upon him. He could but perform this duty or surrender the existence of the Government. No compromise by public servants could in the case be made. Not that compromises are not often proper, but that no popular Government can long survive a marked precedent, that those who carry an election can only save the Government from immediate destruction by giving up the main point upon which the people gave the election. The people themselves, and not their servants, can safely reverse their own deliberate decisions. As a private citizen the executive could not have consented that these institutions shall perish; much less could he, in betrayal of so vast and so sacred a trust as these free people had confided to him.

He felt that he had no moral right to shrink, nor even to count the chances of his own life in what might follow. In full view of his great responsibility, he has, so far, done what he has deemed his duty. You will now, according to your own judgment, perform yours. He sincerely hopes that your views and actions may so accord with his as to assure all faithful citizens who have been disturbed in their rights of a certain and speedy restoration to them under the constitution and the laws.

And having thus chosen our course, without guile and with pure purpose, let us renew our trust in God, and go forward without fear and with manly hearts.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday last, as Col. Geo. C. Passmore was engaged in shoeing a horse at his shop in this place, the horse suddenly wheeled, throwing Mr. P. against the anvil with such force as to break one of his ribs.

REMOVED.—The Clearfield County Bank was removed yesterday across the street to Graham's new building.

THE LATE FOURTH.—A brief account of the proceedings of the late anniversary at Clearfield and at Pennville, will be found on our first page.

The proceedings at this place were in many respects more than ordinarily pleasant, and chief among the attractions of the day—not to mention the fantastic parade in the evening, and the display of fire-works at night—was the performance of the Brass Band. Do our citizens properly appreciate their good fortune in being regaled with such stirring strains as these gentlemen discourse? After hearing many of the brag Bands of the principal cities of the Union, we can safely say that this Band, in proportion to the number of instruments, is equal to any of them.

☞ Something good can come out of Isreal, as is demonstrated by the defeat of the Chevalier Forney for Clerkship of the House. Etheridge of Tennessee was elected.

☞ J. L. Cattle, Esq., will please accept our thanks for a copy of the Pittsburgh Post, containing the message, in advance of the mail.

☞ SPECIAL ATTENTION is called to the invitation of Lieut. DODGE, of the famous Third Regiment U. S. Cavalry, for recruits. It is the most pleasant branch of the service.

Attention is likewise called to the invitation of A. M. SMITH, Recruiting Sergeant for the P. R. V. Corps, who wants a few more men to increase the ranks of the Washington Cadets to the number required by late regulations.

Democratic Primary Election.

Welch, of the "Ralston Rangers," and John Bigler and David McGaughey of the "Washington Cadets," will hold elections in their respective companies on such day as they may appoint prior to the 1st Saturday of August, and transmit the result to the chairman, so that the same may be counted at the meeting of the County Convention.

The Democratic voters of the different boroughs and townships will, on the 2nd Saturday of August next, elect two delegates to attend a County Convention to be held on the 1st Monday of September next, to determine if any changes should be made in the mode of nominating candidates, and in the party rules, and to make such changes.

Under the Rules of the party the respective Committees of Vigilence will appoint one of their number, or some other suitable person, as Return Judge, for the purpose of attending the County Convention, which will be held at the Court House on the Tuesday afternoon next succeeding the Primary Election.

EYE, EAR AND LUNG

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON

Doctor BORT,

FORMERLY Physician and Surgeon to the Brompton Lung Hospital, of London, England, now of PITTSBURGH, Pa., begs leave to announce to all Invalids, that, owing to the many solicitations of his friends, he has concluded to pay professional visits to the following named places and by arriving at the day set forth, can be consulted by the afflicted, both Male and Female, on Diseases of the Heart, Liver and Lungs; Cancer, Fits, Scrofula, and all Diseases of the Blood. Also, all Diseases appertaining to the EYE and EAR. PARTIAL DEAFNESS, Ringing Noises in the Head, and Discharges from the Ear, can be speedily cured by Dr. Bort's Scientific Treatment; and many other diseases that have baffled the skill of the so-called distinguished physicians.

At his INFIRMARY, from June 22d to July 17th.

Listen to the Voice of Truth and Reason and Profit by it.

The time has come when all who will, can escape the iron grasp of Mercury, by calling, without delay, to see the well known and justly celebrated Eclectic European Physician, Dr. BORT, who will administer those only true and safe medicines, extracted from the most choice ROOTS and HERBS, which are prepared under his own supervision, and therefore avoiding the use of all MINERAL POISONS, which were never designed for the system, to take which many thousands have fallen victims and gone to early graves.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED.

Remember that Dr. Bort wants no patients but those fully capable of appreciating and distinguishing the services of a regular thorough bred physician, from a paltry, unlearned and trifling quack.

Remember, Dr. Bort's remedies and treatment are entirely unknown to all others in this country; prepared from a life spent in the great hospitals of Europe and the first in the country.

Remember, that Dr. Bort has a more extended practice than any other physician in Western Pennsylvania.

Remember, that citizens of education, and our popular men, are all well acquainted with, and take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Bort to the afflicted.

Remember, that Dr. Bort makes no false representations to gull the unfortunate, but all he says will be faithfully carried out.

Remember, that Dr. Bort pays every attention to diseases of a chronic nature.

☞ Certificates of Cures may be seen at his respective rooms.

Dr. Bort is furnished with over six thousand letters of recommendation from some of the most distinguished men living. Also has awarded to him diplomas from some of the most celebrated Hospitals and Infirmaries in Europe, for his unparallelled observations in Diagnosis, and observations in discovering remedies for the cure of diseases that have heretofore baffled the skill of many of the medical profession.

An early call from those wishing to consult the Doctor, is earnestly requested, so as to receive full benefit of treatment, and thus do justice to himself. Time limited.

Please bear in mind when Dr. Bort will be in your place. Persons desirous of consulting him will confer a great favor by calling on the first day of his arrival, as his rooms are so often crowded, it is utterly impossible to attend to the anxious solicitations of all. Dr. Bort will arrive at each of the above places on the first coach on the day appointed.

Please extend the invitation to all invalid acquaintances, and oblige yours, &c.

To Lumbermen:

SAW-MILL FOR SALE. I have erected a new first class SAW-MILL for Eighty feet Timber, at DUNCANNON, below Green's Dam, on the Susquehanna—and desire to have a Partner who will furnish Squared Rafted Lumber at Green's Dam, to stock the Log Pond to its full capacity.

This Mill will have the command of the market in Petersburg and Duncannon and of two-thirds of Perry county;—and a large amount of business may be done at good prices. It is on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and in communication with Philadelphia and Baltimore.

In the present depressed state of the Tidewater market, I invite attention to a home market that will remunerate. Address early by mail, or call on GRIFFITH JONES,
