West Reading.—The Oration of L. J. Childs, Esq., which will be found on our first page.

Gen. Patton will please accept our thanks for a copy of the report on the late Indian Bands.

Our Luthersburg friends must bear with another week, when the proceeds of their late celebration will be given to the cause.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A man named Jacob Frank, a citizen of Brady township, was killed on Tuesday the 9th inst., while cutting timber for a new barn.

CHURCH OUT.—Our citizens will find their young friend, H. W. Smith, very accommodating and polite by calling at his new store North Second street. Prices to suit the times.

The War Department make a requisition on Gov. Curtin, last week, for the fifteen regiments of Pennsylvania troops now at the various encampments in the State.

OUR BARS.—The two Clearfield companies will be seen by the news from Gen. McClellan's column, were ordered from Cumberland to enter Virginia, and intercept the retreat of the Virginians near Beverly on the 12th inst.

PATERSON'S MAGAZINE for August is already on our table, and is one of the most fascinating numbers issued. It only deserves the high reputation it enjoys, as being one of the most interesting monthly publications.

WRITING.—Lieut. Dodge, who, by the way, is equally the gentleman and the soldier, will be at Wards hotel at Tyrone, on Saturday next, ready to receive any young men who may wish to join the U. S. cavalry service in the celebrated 1st Regiment.

MISS BAND.—The Washington Cadets' Saxa Band, of this place, request us to say to the friends of Clearfield and vicinity, that they are in need of some new instruments; and propose to purchase of their choice music on Friday evening, at their room, at which time they will be happy to receive contributions for that purpose, to be made by citizens who contribute liberally, in a valuable enterprise.

The Primary Election. By the proceedings of the Democratic Executive Committee, which we have published from time to time, our Democratic friends are aware that the Primary Election will be held on the 2d Saturday of August next. Of this fact we presume the respective Committees of Vigilance will give timely and general notice, in order that the expression at the polls may be that of the entire party.

We hear occasional whisperings against "party action," and "party organization," at this time—but not from Democrats, so far from this being a time for the Democratic party to abandon its organization, these very things especially demand its most thorough and complete organization as every county, township and school district. Look at the deplorable conditions of our country now. Had the principles and organization of the Democratic party been faithfully adhered to, had the good and patriotic men of the party given their attention to these preliminary proceedings, instead of entrusting them to those who only sought self-aggrandizement—instead of being in the midst of an unnatural civil war, our country and its people would be enjoying unprecedented prosperity. If there is any salvation for our country, it is through the Democratic party. Let every man, therefore, who loves the Union, the Constitution and our republican system of Government, and who has a single drop of Democratic blood in his veins, unite his energies with this ancient, patriotic and national organization.

We can say to the Democrats of Clearfield county that they were never called upon to choose from a more respectable and worthy body of men. It is scarcely possible to make a selection from among them, forming what could be called a weak ticket. Let us have a full and fair expression of the will of the party, and we will give a cordial and unanimous support to the whole ticket.

A RELEASED "PRISONER."—Our fellow townsman C. Kratzer, Esq., was a passenger on board the steamer St. Nicholas the night she left Baltimore and was captured by the secessionists. He arrived here last Saturday, and as we are informed, speaks in the highest terms of the conduct of their captors, and of the Virginia, into whose hands they were delivered, and who sent them on their way, after apologizing in the politest kind of manner for the brief interruption.

THE LADY'S BOOK.—Godey and his Lady's Book are still ahead—if not in time, in taste and elegance. The August number, which is before us, is replete with the choicest literature and most tasty embellishments.

THE CROPS.—From all parts of our county we hear the most gratifying accounts of the crops now about being harvested. In some sections it is asserted that there will be more wheat gathered this harvest than the collective yield of the last four or five years. The late dry weather shortened the grass crop, and damaged the prospect for oats, potatoes, &c. But there is still a good chance for them. Corn, in places, looks remarkably well.

arsenal, on the ground that the petitioner voluntarily surrendered himself as a prisoner. In the case of ex-Senator Green the writ was granted.

Later.—Col. Smith Reinforced and the Confederates Defeated. St. Louis, July 12.—A gentleman from Hannibal last night says that Col. Smith's command at Monroe was reinforced by 300 mounted Illinoisians yesterday afternoon, when the rebels who had been surrounding Col. Smith's force were attacked and dispersed. General Harris, their commander, was forced to abandon his horse and take refuge in the woods. A number of the enemy were taken prisoners. Capt. McAllister, who was reported to have been killed, is only severely wounded, and will probably recover.

Confederate Troops at Fairfax Station. FALLS CHURCH, Fairfax County, July 12.—There were five regiments yesterday morning immediately in and around Fairfax Court House, with eighteen pieces of field artillery in all, and twelve pieces being in battery. The three most advanced regiments are from South Carolina.

From the Court House back to Centerville the woods are lined with them, (disunion troops), in what numbers, exactly, I am not able to write. Their baggage, &c., from Fairfax Station, has all been carried back to Manassas Junction, and they are all now bivouacking nightly, as though on the march. This is, of course, a preparation for an attack from us, a retreat or a forward movement. I, however, interpret it to mean that they expect to have to fall back on Manassas Junction—but we shall soon see what we shall see.

They have batteries commanding every approach by road to the Court House, and trees are felled in all the neighboring woods. The Fifth Alabama regiment is camped at the intersection of the Braddock road with the road from the Court House to the Fairfax Station.

From Fortress Monroe. FORTRESS MONROE, July 11.—J. T. Songster, of Col. Baker's Regiment, a native of Philadelphia, was shot by mistake by a sentry, on Sunday night, and died yesterday.

Thirty men of Col. Wardrop's Regiment had made a reconnaissance within nine miles of Yorktown. They went up between James river and Great Bethel. At the latter place there are posted 200 Confederate cavalry and 100 artillery.

One hundred recruits from New York, for Col. Duryea's regiment, have arrived here. The time of the Massachusetts regiments will expire on the 10th, and that of the First Vermont a few days later.

Col. Sigel's Late Battle. WASHINGTON, July 12.—The following is the account of the recent battle of Col. Sigel and Gov. Jackson, received by the Government here:

"St. Louis, July 10.—A lieutenant from Col. Sigel has come in from Jasper county, Missouri, with news of an engagement near Carthage, between Col. Sigel and Gov. Jackson. We lost 8 killed and 45 wounded. We repulsed the enemy, 4,000 or 5,000 strong, silenced their artillery, took 80 horses, and killed and wounded a large number. Our two batteries did most of the fighting, and lost six horses. Generals Lyon and Sturgis are not more than four days distant."

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL. THE CLEARFIELD BOYS IN THE FIGHT. Gov. Bigler was at Harrisburg yesterday, (Tuesday) and sent the following dispatch to his son at Tyrone at 7 o'clock on Monday evening:

"Our boys had a brush to-day, repulsing the enemy, without loss." From another passenger by the stage last evening we are informed that none of the Cadets were injured, but that some of the Rangers had been wounded.

This information is indefinite, as a matter of course, and we are left to conjecture that the two Regiments of 'Colonels Biddle and Simmons, in obeying the order of General McClellan to intercept the retreating Virginians, encountered them in the vicinity of the place called Carick Fork.

Gen. Garnett, the commander of the Secessionists, is among the slain. We learn from the Harrisburg Patriot & Union that Gen. Morris, belonging to Gen. McClellan's column, overtook the retreating Virginians on the 14th inst., at a point eight miles South of St. Georges, where a sharp engagement took place. Gen. McClellan reports the result as follows:

"We have completely annihilated the enemy in Western Virginia. Our losses are but 13 killed, while the enemy's loss is not far from 200 killed and the number of prisoners we have taken will amount to at least 1000. We have captured 7 of the enemy's guns in all.

Terrible Indian Fight. Battle between the Sioux and Chippewa Indians at St. Joseph, Minnesota—seven Indians killed and several wounded.

[From the St. Paul's Pioneer & Dem. of 3d inst.] We are indebted to James McPetridge, Esq., late United States collector at Pembina, for the particulars of a bloody fight between the Sioux and Chippewas, of which he was an eye-witness, at St. Joseph, on the Pembina river, on the 10th of June last.

Last summer, while the Hon. Charles Grant was encamped with a party of hunters on Mouse river, twelve horses were stolen from him by a party of Yankton Sioux. Nothing was heard of the horses until the 10th of June last, when a party of thirty-two Sioux warriors, accompanied by two squaws, arrived at St. Joseph with the stolen property, for the purpose of returning it, in pursuance of a recent treaty made between the Pembina half-breed hunters and the Yankton Sioux.

The delegation with the stolen horses arrived opposite St. Joseph about 2 o'clock in the afternoon; they immediately crossed the river and proceeded to the residence of Gov. Wilkie, a member of the late Territorial Legislature.

Unfortunately, a large party of Chippewas, and also parties of Assiniboinas and Ojibwas were encamped at St. Joseph, and the Chippewas fired on the Sioux while they were in the act of entering Governor Wilkie's house. The Sioux took possession of the house, and removing the "chinking" from between the logs, returned the fire with effect. From this time until midnight a constant firing was kept up between the Indians. Six Chippewas, three Sioux, and two Assiniboinas were killed during the struggle. Governor Wilkie's daughter, in passing within range of the combatants, was severely wounded in the thigh by an arrow.

Mr. McPetridge describes the scene as terribly exciting, and relates instances of great individual bravery. One Chippewa, a son of the chief, Red Bear, was shot three times in an endeavor to enter the house; at each shot he fell to the ground, but raised himself, and pushed forward; his progress was stopped at the threshold by one of the Sioux cleaving his head through to the chin with an axe.

The house occupied by the Sioux is about two hundred feet from the river. The Chippewas surrounded it, and, to make their escape, the Sioux were compelled to run that distance, and wade the river to the south bank, in the face of a constant fire from their enemies. This they did, aided by the darkness of the night, but with the loss of one warrior, who was found dead by the Chippewas in the morning, on the south bank of the stream. The Sioux left behind them thirty-two horses, in addition to the twelve stolen ones, and the dead bodies of three of their warriors.

Mr. McPetridge states that the residence of Gov. Wilkie resembled a slaughter-house, on the morning after the conflict. Five Chippewas and two Sioux were lying dead on the floor, which was covered with their blood. The Sioux did not scalp the dead Chippewas in the house, nor mutilate their bodies. The Chippewas were more brutal; they cut up the bodies of their dead foes, and burned them.

Although the half breeds of St. Joseph refrained from taking any part in the fight, they are apprehensive of an attack from a body of Sioux, now encamped at Devil's Lake. The Sioux promised to return, and settle accounts with the Chippewas, in numbers like the mosquitoes—a very forcible simile in that locality.

Congress appropriated, a year or more ago, $50,000 for the erection of a fort on Pembina river, to prevent such outrages as this. We submit that the occurrence here related indicates the necessity of immediate action on the part of the Federal Government. There should be a permanent military post located at St. Joseph, or in that vicinity, immediately.

The Lexington Statesman of the 9th inst., chronicles the departure of "as gallant a corps of citizen soldiers as ever kept step to martial music, for the Confederate State service."

The same paper understands that "twenty Kentucky companies are now concentrating at Camp Boone," and predicts that in two months there will be ten such brigades of Kentuckians in the Confederate service. We should like to know what is understood by neutrality in Kentucky. What are the Union men of that State, who recently gave a majority of 50,000 for Union Congressmen about, that they permit companies to be organized under their very noses for the rebel service?—Patriot and Union.

INOX CITY COLLEGE.—The following extract from a letter of one of the recent graduates of the Innox City College, Pittsburg, Pa., speaks for itself:

"Every young man who would thoroughly prepare himself for business, should avail himself of the advantages here afforded. Students are not learned, but taught, and that with all the thoroughness and precision the subject demands, by the most skillful and accomplished instructors, who give their special and constant attention to their pupils. Every thing is treated in a scientific and business-like manner; while the Pennsylvania, which is taught by the greatest living master of the art, is unequalled by any thing in the country. The College is pre-eminently worthy of public patronage."
