CAPT. J. H. LARRIMER.—We deeply regret the failure of the St. Marys Convention, the other day, to place this gentleman before the people of this district, for the Legislature. The unanimity with which he was recommended by the Democracy of this county ought to have carried him safely through that Convention; and if so, his election would have been certain.

Boots & Shoes Good & Cheap.—Persons wanting bargains in the way of good and cheap Boots & Shoes should call at once at the new store of Smith & Co. They cannot be disappointed.

THE TICKET.—The names of the Democratic candidates presented for the suffrages of the people of Clearfield county, will be found at our mast head. We have no room for further remarks this week than to say that they are all first-rate men, and well deserving the public confidence.

REJOICES IN ITS SHAME.—The Pittsburgh Dispatch takes it as quite a compliment to be charged with Abolitionism, and remarks, "We are getting into a numerous company of that class of people, now-a-days." If the Dispatch is under the impression—which it appears to be—that all are Abolitionists who support the war, it may live to learn its mistake.

CARROT AT LAST.—E. M. Reed, long a clerk in the Philadelphia Post Office—but discharged some three years ago under suspicious circumstances, and again restored about one year ago—was arrested the other day by Special Agent Row, for abstracting a registered (decoy) letter.

$50,000,000 OF THE LOAN TAKEN.—The banks of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, have subscribed for $50,000,000 of the government loan of $250,000,000 authorized by the late act of Congress, with the understanding that they are to be the sole custodians of the Treasury notes to be issued by the government.

EXPLANATION.—J. C. Brenner, Esq., P. M. of Morrisdale, called upon us on Monday last, and assured us that our statement of last week, in reference to his refusal to deliver the New York Day Book, is false in every particular.

It affords us much pleasure to make this correction, as Mr. Brenner was the last man we would suspect of disregarding his duty in so plain a case. In justice to him we give him the name of our informant. Had we even suspected that there had been previous personal difficulties between the parties, we would have first made some investigation; but from our high estimation of our informant's character, we would have placed the same reliance upon his statement, under the same circumstances, had it been made in reference to any other man.

"OCASIONAL"—Forney, in a late letter from Washington to his Party, attempts to perpetrate, what he supposes to be a slander upon the Hon. Charles J. Fulkner late minister to France, who was arrested on his return home, by order of the Administration at Washington, in which he classes Mr. Fulkner as:

"An aristocrat of the most offensive type, he was ready to assume any doctrine to secure place, and so, from a bit-essent of the Democratic party, he became the very slave of the Masons and Hungers, who despised him, and whom no intruder had affected to despise."

Mr. Fulkner was an old line Whig until Know-Nothingism drove him, like hundreds of other good men, into the Democratic party. By substituting the names of Greely and Goldings, for those of Mason and Hunter, in the extract from "Occasional" we are enabled to see the Photograph of John W. Forney taken in his own best style. He has ever been "ready to assume any doctrine to secure place," and assume even the doctrine, and be the "Slave" of those whom he had assailed the most bitterly for years, constantly warning his countrymen against the wiles of Abolitionism—the very men with whom he now acts, and does their dirty work.

If, under the circumstances, Mr. Forney can justify his treachery to the Democratic party and his country, we may yet expect to see an attempt made also to justify the conduct of Benedict Arnold, and his conspirators, during our Revolution.

By the President of the United States.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, A joint committee of both Houses of Congress has waited on the President of the United States, and requested him to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnities, and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of these States, his blessings on their arms, and a speedy restoration to peace; and whereas, it is fit and becoming in all people, at all times to acknowledge and revere the Supreme Government of God, to bow in humble submission to His chastisements, to confess and deplore their sins and transgressions, in the full conviction that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to pray with all fervency and contrition for the pardon of their past offences, and for blessing upon their present and prospective actions; and whereas, when out beloved country, once, by the blessing of God united, prosperous and happy, is now afflicted with factions and civil war, it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation, and, in sorrowful remembrance of our own faults and crimes, as a nation and as individuals, to humble ourselves before Him and to pray for His mercy; to pray that we may be spared further punishment, though most justly deserved; that our arms may be blessed and made effectual for re-establishment of law, order and peace throughout our country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and religious liberty, earned under His guidance and bleasing by the labors and suffrages of our fathers, may be restored in all its original excellency. Therefore I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do appoint the last Thursday in September next as a day of humiliation, prayer and fasting for all the people of the nation, and I do earnestly recommend to the people, and especially to all ministers and teachers of religion, of all denominations, to all heads of families, to observe and keep that day according to their several creeds and modes of worship in all humility and with all religious solemnity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation may ascend to the Throne of Grace and bring down plentiful blessings upon our own country.

In testimony whereof, &c. ABRAHAM LINCOLN. By the President, Wm. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

SOLDIERS LETTERS.—The following order has been made by the Post Office Department, for the execution of the new law respecting soldiers' letters:

Postmasters at or near any camp or point occupied by the United States forces, will mail, without prepayment of postage, any letter written by a soldier in the service of the United States, and certified to be such by the Major or Acting Major of the regiment to which the writer is attached. The envelope should have plainly stamped or written on its face the certificate "Soldier's Letter," signed in writing by the Major or Acting Major of the regiment, describing his regiment by its number and its State. The postage due on such letters will be collected at the office of delivery.

Commissioned officers prepay their postage as heretofore.

Postmasters will take notice that all pre-paid letters to soldiers in any regiment in the service of the United States, and directed to them at a point where they have been stationed, may be forwarded whenever practicable to any other point so which they may have been ordered with our further charge thereon forwarding.

JOHN A. KASSON, First Assistant P. M. General.

A WHOLESALE POISONING CASE.—A Family in St. Louis Poisoned by a Negro.—The St. Louis Democrat of Monday says:

The members of the family of Captain Dix, (a well known steamboat captain) whose residence is at the corner of Tenth and Wash streets, had a narrow escape from death yesterday morning, in consequence of a large dose of arsenic having been administered to them in their coffee at breakfast. The circumstances are as follows: Shortly after breakfast the entire family, consisting of Mrs. Dix, two boys, George and Willie, and an Irish servant, girl, was taken suddenly and alarmingly ill; a physician was at once sent for, and he announced that they had been poisoned. An investigation was then instituted, and a large dose of arsenic was found in the coffee. Suspicion at once settled upon a negro man servant about 60 years old, belonging to Capt. Dix. He had disappeared in the meantime, but was finally discovered secreted in an outhouse attached to the premises of a Mr. Davis, who resides in the vicinity, and for whom he formerly worked. He was taken into custody and looked up in the calaboose. By means of prompt and efficient medical aid the lives of those poisoned were placed beyond danger.

Henry Spackman, a member of the Washington Cadets, died at Harrisburg last Saturday week, after their return from Western Virginia.

The Cheapest Weekly Paper Printed.

The Weekly Day-Book.

The Proprietors of the NEW-YORK WEEKLY DAY-BOOK have resolved, during the present financial depression, to offer their paper on the most liberal terms, and in order to place it within the reach of every person who desires it, will send it for ONE DOLLAR per annum to single subscribers. The DAY-BOOK stands where it has always stood, upon the Constitution of the United States, as interpreted by its authorized exponent, the Supreme Court, and only because it is so, but also because it is right and just. The refusal of the Republican party to abide by that decision has been the parent of all our troubles; but with unbounded confidence in the honesty of the People, however they may be temporarily misled, we shall continue in the future, as in the past, to contend for that which is a government of WHITE MEN;—that infidelity of legal and social position for the negro is his proper one, and that all CITIZENS are entitled to equal rights, and to equal protection of their property of whatever kind. As the adoption of these principles will PRESERVE THE UNION, and as CIVIL WAR will necessarily destroy it, we shall labor to enlighten them to the minds and consciences of the people with whatever ability we may possess.

THE EVENING DAY-BOOK.

We will send the EVENING DAY-BOOK during the war on the following terms:—

Two Months, for $1.00

Three Months, for $1.50

Six Months, for $3.00

One Year, for $6.00

It will contain the latest news up to the hour of going to press every afternoon.

THE WEEKLY DAY-BOOK.

has all the latest Telegraphic News, and as good a report of Cattle, Grain and other Markets as any paper sent out of New York. Farmers, Mechanics and Business Men who desire a paper whether for Market reports or News, will find none superior to the WEEKLY DAY-BOOK.

TERMS.

One copy per annum $1.00

Five copies $5.00

Twenty-one copies $21.00

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

To every Postmaster, or any other person who will start a club at a Post-office where there is none now, and send us five dollars for five new subscribers, we will send a sixth copy gratis. This offer, however, is only applied to one dollar five at each office, and hence, the first who send will be entitled to the gratis copy. After a club is formed, or where a club is already formed, additions can always be made at one dollar each subscriber, be they one or many.

NAMES, NAMES!

Specimen copies will always be sent free, and all friends of the cause will do much to advance true principles, by reading in the names of our good Democrats, as well as those of liberal minded Republicans who may be willing to see both sides of the question. Money sent is at our risk, if the exact date of sending the letter is kept, so that it can be furnished as in case it does not reach us. Address VAN DYKE, HORTON & CO., 163 Nassau street, New York.
