The following letter from the Directress, acknowledging the remittance, will be read with interest : BEST White Granite Plates.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 4, 1861. TO THE LADIES OF CLEARFIELD ;

Mrs. Barrett - Dear Madam : - Your very kind note of the 30th is at hand, and with pleasure and gratitude I acknowledge its contents--your liberal donation. My connection with the Gaorgetown Hospital is dissolved, and I am about to be transferred to "Virginia's shore" at Alexandria. There is, there, quite a number of distinct build ings, endbaced under one head, pleasantly located, and but an hour's ride distance rom here. I have looked at our booksor rather register- and also at the Union Hotel Hospital, which is within a stone's throw, and can find no men on either books from the company you named in your letter (Washington Cadets) 1 will, however, make it a matter of inquiry, and contribute, it possible, to them-especially from the Clearfield ladies' donation. And we feel confident that all who will make trial purchase, will find it to their advantage

It gives me the highest pleasure to con tribute, in the most humble way, to their weifare and general good; and as I am enlisted heart and hand for them during the present emergency, I have not or shall not lose an opportunity to give them my sympathy and care at all times. My positi n has enabled me to soothe, and give Mens best Kip poot little comforts to very many of them, and a high privilege I have felt it to be. bave with tears witnessed their gratitude when giving them a glass of wine, or some tempting delicacy, for I prepared myself with those things by "public begging" before I left Philadelphia, and have never 2nd reason to regret the effort it cost. In compliance with your suggestion as to further efforts, I would state that shoes and stockings, with any kind of substitute for a pocket handkerchief, are among the things, outside of delicacies, 1 find most needed in my experience as nurse. It would gratify any warm heart to have the comforts in hand ready to administer to the weary, worn, wounded soldier in his hour of need, such as the benevolence of the Clearfield ladies has placed in my pos-Section. God will bless their noble efforts Executors's NOTICE.-Notice is here-for the noble manner in which they have for the noble manner in which they have, estate responded to the cause we are all sympa-thizers in.

It may be interesting to the ladies to are kno@ that the Pennsylvania Regiments form but a very small part of the sick and wounded at present under my charge.
