

BIBLE CONCERT.

The Union concert, in aid of the Bible society, will be held in the Episcopal Church on Sunday evening, Sept. 15th, 1861, at 7 o'clock.

Democratic County Meeting.

We are requested by the Chairman of the Democratic County Committee to state that the annual Democratic County meeting will be held in this place on Tuesday evening of the September Court.

The Delegates to the County Convention on amending the present system of making nominations, will meet on the 3d Monday evening—and not on the 3d Monday of September, as heretofore announced.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE. That Daniel Livingston, the present candidate of the Republicans for Sheriff of Clearfield county, was the Know Nothing candidate for County Auditor in 1854, and was defeated by the late George Walters, Esq. He ran upon the same ticket with Pollock, Smyser and others.

DEMOCRATS BEWARE! We learn that our Republican friends are busily engaged in circulating documents printed at the Journal office, among the Democrats of this county. Why this is done—or who furnishes the money to pay the expenses—it is not for us to say. But to say the least of it, the circumstances have a suspicious smell, and we merely suggest to our Democratic friends not to be caught by any such sly dodges.

RESIGNATION OF MR. NICHOLSON.—We learn that this gentleman, who was nominated as a Democratic candidate for the legislature in this district, declines the nomination, having volunteered his services to his country, and left for the seat of war as First Lieutenant of a new company raised in Brookville.

This will render the re-assembling of the St. Mary's Convention necessary at an early day.

We are pleased to learn that the Democrats of Venango county have unanimously presented that sterling Democrat, James K. Kerr, Esq., for President Judge of the District, composed of the counties of Mercer, Venango, Clarion, Jefferson and Forest, made vacant by the resignation of Hon. J. S. McCalmont, who has been commissioned a Colonel in the army.

This is a dark district, but we hope Mr Kerr will get the district nomination and be elected, too.

FRANCIS.—We see by the official reports of Gen. Butler and Com. Stringham, that Colonel Webber and his German Regiment, have been left in charge of Forts Clark and Hatteras, lately captured by our troops on the coast of North Carolina.

Donation Acknowledged. A few days ago the ladies of Clearfield donated and forwarded to Georgetown, D. C., a box of articles necessary for Hospital use, for the benefit of the Volunteers from this place. The following letter from the Directress, acknowledging the remittance, will be read with interest:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 4, 1861. TO THE LADIES OF CLEARFIELD: Mrs. Barrett—Dear Madam:—Your very kind note of the 30th is at hand, and with pleasure and gratitude I acknowledge its contents—your liberal donation. My connection with the Georgetown Hospital is dissolved, and I am about to be transferred to "Virginia's shore" at Alexandria. There is, there, quite a number of distinct buildings, embraced under one head, pleasantly located, and but an hour's ride distance from here. I have looked at our books—or rather register—and also at the Union Hotel Hospital, which is within a stone's throw, and can find no men on either books from the company you named in your letter (Washington Cadets). I will, however, make it a matter of inquiry, and contribute, if possible, to them—especially from the Clearfield ladies' donation.

It gives me the highest pleasure to contribute, in the most humble way, to their welfare and general good; and as I am enlisted heart and hand for them during the present emergency, I have not or shall not lose an opportunity to give them my sympathy and care at all times. My position has enabled me to soothe, and give little comforts to very many of them, and a high privilege I have felt it to be. I have with tears witnessed their gratitude when giving them a glass of wine, or some tempting delicacy, for I prepared myself with those things by "public begging" before I left Philadelphia, and have never had reason to regret the effort it cost. In compliance with your suggestion as to further efforts, I would state that shoes and stockings, with any kind of substitute for a pocket handkerchief, are among the things, outside of delicacies, I find most needed in my experience as nurse. It would gratify my warm heart to have the comforts in hand ready to administer to the weary, worn, wounded soldier in his hour of need, such as the benevolence of the Clearfield ladies has placed in my possession. God will bless their noble efforts for the noble manner in which they have responded to the cause we are all sympathizing in.

It may be interesting to the ladies to know that the Pennsylvania Regiments form but a very small part of the sick and wounded at present under my charge. Michigan, Wisconsin and Indiana suffer more from exposure than all others on the books—the change being decidedly against them.

At the Georgetown Hospital thirty, or more, were brought last night—all Indiana men—down with typhoid fever. Lung affections and dysentery are the forms of disease at present. From the battle of Bull Run almost every wounded man has been, by the free use of cold water applications, cured and enabled to go home. In the two Hospitals are about 4 men who were wounded remaining, including two with arms off at the shoulder. The others are ball wounds. For the first month we averaged, out of 162 patients, but 5 deaths. But fever is proving more fatal among the inmates. Patients are mostly delirious from the time they are brought in, and although well cared for, must die. I fear I shall weary you; but please let our common interest be sufficient apology. I omitted one thing, which is very necessary and much needed—"dried fruit," such as old linen, such as handkerchiefs, for wounds. May God aid you in your untiring efforts to alleviate the sufferings of our fellow creatures, is the wish of, Yours respectfully, G. W. BRADLEY, Directress Georgetown Hospital

COL. WM. H. BLAIR.—We are gratified to learn that this gentleman has been nominated for the state Senate, in the District composed of the counties of Center, Clinton, Lycoming, and Union. The Conference previous to adjourning, appointed Hon. James Gamble, Hon. Allison White, and Paul Goddes, Esq. of Union county, to prepare an address to the people of the district. We hope to be able to chronicle the election of Mr. Blair.

The proceedings of the bolters' meeting at "urwens" on the 31st inst., will appear next week. They were not handed to us until Monday afternoon—six days after the meeting was held—at which time an abundance of copy to fill our columns was on file.

TO THE MILITARY.—H. W. Smith & Co., have just received and opened, a superior quality of Bunting. Also complete Flags. They can also furnish, Officers' or Cavalry sword's at a low figure.

It is related to us that there is a church member in the upper end of the county that clasps his hands so desperately during prayer, that he cannot get them open when the contribution box comes round.

MARRIED.—In the borough of Indiana, by Rev. W. S. Emery, on 28th August, S. B. Row, Esq., to Miss Ellie B. Lanich, both of this place.

DIED.—In Knox tp., on the 3d ult., Elmer E. Rowles, Son of H. E. & Sarah R. Rowles, aged 1 year, 4 months, 1 week and 5 days.

Go, little loved one, go, I do not mourn for thee, Thy soul is gone, unstained by crime, To stand before the Lord.

Short was thy sufferings here below, In this vile world of woe; But thy spirit, happy babe, Is gone to blessedness away.

The heaven of heavens above Is now thy spirit's rest, And kinder is thy Saviour's love, Than ever thy mother's breast.

HARRIS IMPROVED Sewing Machine.

PRICES FROM $40 to $70. The BOUDOIR SEWING MACHINE, an engraving of which is here represented, has now become a recognized favorite wherever it has been introduced, and is beyond question, the best, as well as the handsomest, low priced Sewing Machine now before the public. No. 1—A small and very neat Machine for Family use. No. 2—A large Machine for quilting heavy work and for Plantation use. This Machine is much admired for its simplicity, and for its reliability and durability it is unsurpassed. A child twelve years can run it with ease; and yet it will sew from the coarsest cloth to the finest Swiss. There is no trouble of winding the thread, as it is taken from the spool. It has no bolts to give trouble, and will run backwards as well as forwards, and still sew equally perfect, and without danger of breaking needles. It runs by friction, and by closing the box over it, it is thrown out of gear. In fact, we have no hesitation in recommending it as the best family Sewing Machine in use.

SEWING MACHINE.

The following Premiums Awarded the above Machine: At the Fair of the Franklin Institute, 1858, the First Premium. At the Pennsylvania State Fair, at Philadelphia, September 24, 1859, the First Premium—a Diploma. At the Pennsylvania State Fair, held at Wyoming, 1860—a Silver Medal. For the best Double Thread Machine, at Lancaster County Fair, held October, 1859—a Silver Medal. At the Maryland State Fair, held at the Maryland Institute, Baltimore, Md., October, 1859, under strong competition, a Silver Medal was awarded to this Machine. At the New Castle County Fair, held at Wilmington, Delaware, October, 1859—a Diploma.

The above Machines are manufactured by CHARLES W. HOWLAND, Wilmington, Del. S. D. BAKER, 720 Arch Street, Philadelphia. Persons wishing to see the above Machine in operation, can do so by calling at the residence of D. W. Moore, in Clearfield borough.
