A GOOD HIT.—H. Bucher Swoope, Esq., in his speech at the Black Republican pow-wow last week, gave our acclamation friend of the Journal a sharp rap over the knuckles for publishing a private letter which appeared in his columns a few weeks ago. He stated that the man that would publish and circulate such sentiments should be condemned and despised by all loyal citizens.

Bravo! Bucher, so say we; and we know that you are perfectly competent to judge of such matters, if you do hold revolutionary sentiments, and know nothing about the Constitution.

We must tell the Reverend gentleman, however, that his doctrine of self-preservation might do where there is no written Constitution or law to govern and regulate both President and citizen. This is the doctrine of the highwaymen when he attempts to escape, or murders the officer of the law, in order to effect his escape.

If the government assumes to act by the law of self-preservation, what becomes of our laws of Congress and our Acts of Assembly? and what is to prevent the government from adopting the same plea?

Presentment of the Grand Jury.

SEPTEMBER SESSIONS, 1861. To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clearfield County:

The Grand Jury Inquest would respectfully report, that they have examined the County Jail, and found it in fair condition. The privy upon the County property, we believe to be a disgrace to the citizens of the County, and a nuisance to the inhabitants of the town.

We hereby return the Sinnemahoning road leading from Israel Nichol's to the Lawrence township line toward the Sinnemahoning Creek, the same being out of repair, and being as the Grand Inquest believe, under supervision of A. K. Wright, G. L. Reed and David Tyler, Commissioners; it all being in Lawrence township that is out of repair.

We would also present as nuisances David Smith's dam on the Susquehanna river, John P. Hoyt's dam in Ferguson tp., and Spencer's dam in same township owned by G. H. Lytle & Co.

We return our sincere thanks to His Honor Judge Linn for his able and patriotic charge to us. We have been informed that there are men in our community who are in the habit of charging men with being traitors and secessionists without the least shadow of evidence to substantiate such facts, merely because the individuals so charged differ in opinion with the individuals making such charges. If such be the case we condemn such action in the most severe terms, and also consider that if any man shall give aid and comfort to the rebels by advocating their cause, or in any other manner, it is the duty of all good citizens to have him brought to justice in compliance with the Constitution and laws of the land.

In case any individual shall wilfully or knowingly perpetrate, by word or deed, any act that shall in any way impede the operations of the General Government in their endeavors to crush this present widespread rebellion, the officers of the law should discharge their duties by bringing such offenders to justice; but at the same time being careful not to abridge the liberty of speech or freedom of the press, more than is absolutely required.

We consider it the duty of every good citizen to support the Government, to crush the rebellion, to disregard all party ties for the present, and endeavor to re-establish our glorious Union upon its original basis, even though it may require the expenditure of all the treasure and a vast amount of the best blood of the country.

We would return our thanks to R. J. Wallace, Esq., for his attention to us, and say in his behalf, that during his term of office as District Attorney, now about closing, he has ever shown himself an attentive and efficient officer.

WM. F. CHAMBERS, Foreman. FROM NEW MEXICO.—Fort Union.—Letters from Fort Union, New Mexico, give the latest intelligence from that quarter since Lind's surrender of U. S. forces to Texans:

The Texans have taken and destroyed Fort Fillmore, Fort Craig and Fort Bliss, Col. Roberts, at Fort Stanton, received orders from headquarters to evacuate and destroy Fort Stanton, which he did last week. Here at Fort Union they have built an entire new fort within the last ten days, the old fort not being in a position to be defended. The men are in the trenches day and night. The new fort is one mile southeast of the old one and when the fortifications are completed two thousand men can defend it against an attack of five thousand. There must now be at Fort Union over ten millions of dollars' worth of property. There are fifteen hundred men here now, regulars and volunteers. The officers and men are drilling from morning till night. The Mexicans make good soldiers, obedient and orderly.

IMPORTANT MOVEMENTS OF FOREIGN WAR STEAMERS.—The steamship Matanzas, from Havana and Matanzas, arrived at New York on Thursday night, with advices from the former place to the 20th instant: The Times' correspondent states that the French war steamer Lavoisier left Havana on the 19th, supposed for New Orleans, with the intention of passing the blockade and delivering dispatches to the French Consul there. Should she succeed in passing the United States war vessels, it was to be considered conclusive proof of the ineffectiveness of the blockade. The Spanish gunboat Gen. Lero, it was understood, was to leave for Pass l'Outre in a few days—Captain Laurent, of the New Orleans packet A. A. Chapman, having volunteered to pilot her up the river. It was conjectured also that the British Commodore, who had recently touched at Havana, had taken the same direction.

THE SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.—The total amount of subscription to the 7 30 per cent loan within the last fortnight is $16,365,000. The whole amount paid up to Saturday night, since the first subscription, is $33,740,000. The whole amount of private subscription from the 19th of August to the 21st of September is: At New York, $10,640,000; Boston $5,000,000; Philadelphia $2,294,000; other agencies, $1,000,000. Total $18,934,000.—N. Y. Tribune

THE DEMOCRACY.—How manly and magnanimous is the following from the New York Times (Republican,) when compared with the groveling partisan bigotry of some persons, as well as some papers, hereabouts:—

"It would have been easy, perhaps, for the democratic masses of the free States to have overthrown the government and permanently dismembered the Union, by refusing to support Mr. Lincoln when his inauguration was menaced, and when, later, the supremacy of the constitution was assailed by the practical assertion of the right of secession. But the Democracy did not so read their honor or safety.—They loved their country more than party; and in Mr. Lincoln they saw, not the successful partisan candidate, but the constitutional President of the United States.—And, therefore, they supported—not grudgingly, but heartily—as earnestly and zealously, in fact, as if he had been their own party leader in the canvass that preceded his election."

PICKET COURTESIES.—A night of two ago a German picket guard stationed outside of Arlington heard their own language spoken by the rebel scouts opposite it. A few words were interchanged, and the parties on both sides, finding themselves fellow countrymen, proceeded to meet each other in perfect confidence. So well pleased were they with their interview that, after posting a sufficient number of guards along the prescribed lines, the majority returned to the neutral ground, and building a fire, passed the best part of the night together, on the warmest and most amicable terms.—Wash. Corr. N. Y. Tribune.

FREMONT.—There is a great deal of discussion going on just now as to the position and conduct of Major Gen. Fremont. If we may judge from all the reports that reach us, Fremont is decidedly out of his element.

Yates, concentrated supercilious, he is evidently doing more harm to the cause of the Government than can be produced from any other cause. The fact that a man was once a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, does not fit him to be a military commander, and it is therefore that President Lincoln is doing a very wrong thing when permitting so much responsibility to rest in the hands of a person so injudicious as is Mr. Fremont. We hear of very grave charges made against this officer, but we do not care now to inquire into them. It is enough for us to know that he is thoroughly incompetent for the position which he occupies, and if the Government desires success to the West, it should at once remove him. His entire course, since he has been placed in command of the Missouri forces, shows him not only to be a blockhead but a popinjay. Such men, we take it, are not wanted for these times.—Phia. Daily News, (Hep.)

Who TELLS THE TRUTH?—Our readers will recollect that President Lincoln, in his message to the late extra session of Congress, admitted that he had transcended the Constitution, and asked Congress to pass an indemnifying act—and which Congress failed to do—yet the Union (I) candidate for District Attorney, Swoope, in his speech at the Republican meeting the other night, stated positively that Mr. Lincoln had done no such thing.

Here is a fair and open issue. If Mr. Swoope is wrong—and we presume no one will dispute that fact—he clearly demonstrates his total unfitness for the office he aspires to fill.

PARRISIMPROVED Bondoir Sewing Machine. PRICES FROM $40 to $75. THE BONDIOUR SEWING MACHINE, an improvement of which is here represented, has become a recognized favorite wherever it has been introduced, and is, beyond question, the best, as well as the handsomest, low-priced Sewing Machine now before the public. No. 1—A small and very neat Machine for Family use. No. 2—A large Machine for quilting heavy work and for Plantation use. This Machine is much admired for its simplicity, and for its reliability and durability it is unsurpassed. A child twelve years can run it with ease; and yet it will sew from the coarsest cloth to the finest Swiss. There is no trouble of re-winding the thread, as it is taken from the spools. It has no bobbles to give trouble, and will run backwards as well as forwards, and still sews equally perfect, and without danger of breaking needles. It runs by friction, and by closing the box over it, it is thrown out of gear. In fact, we have no hesitation in recommending it as the best family Sewing Machine in use.

The following Premiums Awarded the above Machine: At the Fair of the Franklin Institute, 1859, the First Premium. At the Pennsylvania State Fair, at Philadelphia, September 24, 1859, the First Premium—a Diploma. At the Pennsylvania State Fair, held at Wyoming, 1860—a Silver Medal. For the best Double Thread Machine, at Lancaster County Fair, held October, 1859—a Silver Medal.

At the Maryland State Fair, held at the Maryland Institute, Baltimore, Md., October, 1859, under strong competition, a Silver Medal was awarded to this Machine. At the New Castle County Fair, held at Wilmington, Delaware, October, 1859—a Diploma. The above Machines are manufactured by CHARLES W. HOWLAND, Wilmington, Del.
