VOL. XXXII.-WHOLE NO 1674.

CLEARFIELD, PA. MONDAY, OCT. 7, 1861.

NEW SERIES-VOL. IL-NO 12

Sir Roger Inkleby's Story.

partew. If it be now, 'tis not to come: if it be set secone, it will be now: if it be not now, yet will come. - HANLEY.

An excellent old man was Roger Inkle-As full of wisdom as experience, exsmile pleasant as sun-light; a heart batter than the enjoyment of the evapo- will come. his virtues framed for my memory.

g and I will tell you a story."

My story is a life fact,' commenced Sir surn. Watch the lip, the brow, the eye. The speculator of friendship whispers a ing eyes, 'Our Farmen,' is a consummate ling charity, gathering a name, but to watch to catch her prey. Through the period of four years Marlowe and myself were mostly together.— By this singular friendship I gained charthat would not bear handling without lo-

The pieces are before each, and this ame opportunity to win offers itself, if the one is as the other. But there is a wild difference resting the other. But there is a wild difference resting the other.

server it is the very signal of distress. onscience stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction; still those two were very lenseious of their opinions. The usua!

of which hung upon being known as the have erected a mausoleum that would first in the world of traffic. I remember have withstood the gnawing tooth of obhis words. 'Surprised you no doubt may be; yet, Roger, I can make more of a sense like Washington's would have passed down to posterity polished by age, the sent of the parties and their Attorneys.—

Note the rearrant I be store. I remember have withstood the gnawing tooth of obloguy and sapping jealousy. His name, the present term, were continued by consation in this sphere than in the profesdown to posterity polished by age, the sions. Note the margin I have; and you prince of mearchants, the man of worth. No court having been held in June, the know, ambition that is tempered with goddoubt.

smile pleasant as sun-light; a heart Life instructions are varied as they are numerous; some pleasant, more bitter, houghts: with a will to execute strong as neither continuous, though by far the lonhe; with advice sincere as valuable; with ger not the sweeter. It is holy will that sympathy warm as his friendship, was all should be taught from the same great thereby:
Roger likeby. He was called Sir Roger page; likening mankind in this wise to "Read to perpetuate his universal benevolence. the world of infants, for we all read our An evening passed with him became one A B C's. If the bitter be not now, yet it rating frivolities of gayer life. But he is with a mind peculiarly adopted to grasp at difficulties, and with sanguine gave, yet his face is painted upon, and confidence of eventual success, my classs virtues framed for my memory.

Come to-morrow evening, said Sir Roggan to buzz his name. His affable manner and eloquent tongue won admiration. With his usual coolness he selected his lager. To you it may be instructive, and partner, and the business world chroni-hands the enclosed correspondence with all more, you remember it to benefit cled the birth of another house, Mariour the President of the United States. The ohers; for you know,' turning his pleas- of MULDONALD, names which since have action which he has taken was firm and anteres full upon me, 'we love to do passed East West, North, South, and be-decided, and must prove satisfactory to good, at least we should. No one lives your oceans Rich in experience, tried the friends of the Union in Kentucky. without power. No matter the rank, con- in wisdom, the elder world now began to dies, or place. Each has his influence buzz the name of Marlowe. He was first necessity under the circumstances, and Certifican proceedings affirmed. upon the other. It is in action, conduct, in the estimation of the business commuand speech. In the home, the wares nity. His drafts were gold, his words ed warfare. The Government has the house, the desk, the field, upon deck. It like so much silver, his name every thing, same right to confiscate slaves engaged in s in the eye, the walk, the dress; for the He had won a caaracter beyond impeach- digging trenches or mounting guns for the thereo, the court decided that no charter litter is as much characteristic of the ment. When we met he was the same, man as his face is the index prefacing the grown slightly subdued with the massive when captured during the progress of war; Me. Brutes recognize the fact. A mild weight of cares and an enviable name .caryou see with a gentle master; a savsay bull-dog with a wretch. And yet, incontrovertible as this is, it is little regardtograph were synonymous with success.—

Ilis counsel was sought to promote great goes no further. Upon this law the President stands firmly, and in doing so, and in disavowing Gen. Fremont's proclamad-too little by the parent, less by the With this hold upon the world, I almost tion, he gives another of the ever multifancied that he would continue to merit Philip Marlowe was my intimate class- his proud epithet. But beyond our own mite in college - a young man possessing ideas of recompense must we acknowl- interfere with slavery as established in sculiar and noticeable traits. He was a edge that which belongs to the Creator. god scholar, a gentleman in his manuers. He has assured us the sinner shall not go ad apparently easily read. He was am- unpunished Regardless of his position, moss, cool in design, shread, cuaning, there is no rank in the scales of God's jusand rashly bold. He played deed with- tice whereby the greater can be weighed are striking at the life of a government est suspicion or failure. Yet, in all things, with less fairness than the smaller. Like under whose constitution it has enjoyed slacked one essential principle. This merchandise for market, each one's net is complete shelter and protection for three sueffectually covered by his master tact, scored upon the tally, book, and if he had adhealways passed as the model stu- previously passed for worth beyond his I fascied he suspected my confi- value, the honest reduction will come fidence in him was not strong; but he pur-nally. This doctrine has been blown by the right course in such a case—flat—the Preacher into all quarters, substantiasing me with his friendship and reliance ted by aggravated cases; and yet, tempta to his policy dictated. Unexceptionable is his cusy conversations, princehas ideas his cusy conversations, princehas being me with his friendship and reliance ted by aggravated cases; and yet, tempta to be proved the more powerful of the in his ideas, he charmed me, and al- twain. And this is it. Could the errors of persons in open rebellion against the hough I loved him, yet there was some- ist know the last act of his drama, his government, was as a necessary war meas-elive under a disguise one's life time .- it. The best heart that ever dictated United States, or by subsequent legislabut there are those who do it. It may wholesome truths, has the alchemy of re- tion. The proclamation, however, of Gen. be the first you meet in the street. It may volt against all statutes, divine and legis- Fremont, under date of the 30th August, be the father, the counseller, the elder, lative. It is not golden ease that furnish transcends, and, of course, violates the preacher, the merchant in high es- es the proof of such existing property, but law in both these particulars, and declares tem, your friend. Did you ever think of poverty or ambition will fairly elucidate that the property of rebels, whether used 'Imagine yourself positioned in the vel-

Study the semblance between the utter- vet chair of unquestionable estimation, suce and the action. Mark the gift and with a name echoed for pattern, a credit to embody the conservative policy of your the subject, the favor and the grantor .- limitless, attended on each hand, suppor- administration upon this delicate and per-The politician takes you warmly by the ted by, encircled with the body guard of plexing question, and hence the loyal hand, he speaks warmly, protests warmly. imposed trust, and you have the case of men of the border Slave Slaes have felt promises warmly, despises you warmly.— Philip Marlowe. At this peroration of relieved of all fears of any attempt on the life had my class-mate arrived. A slight part of the Government of the United plden word to you, and bites off a damn's silver upon his hair showed the mental States to liberate suddenly in their midst, netween Goshen and Girard townships ing point against you. He effects his ob- and physical struggle by which he had at- a population unprepared for freedom, and was confirmed in. a set, triumph; you suffer. The man clams tained this acme. He had passed into crously zealous in advocating moral and middle life, overcoming obstacles, creadvine precepts, imploring, with stream- ting business, aiding enterprises, bestowtoke. That was of God. It seas God. The note. It was from Marlowe, requesting zons of Kentucky-the State with whose merchant, rich in his crowning suppers, is me to call upon him punctually at ten the popular sentiment I am best a bankrupt and a villatn. All this and following morning. I fulfilled his wish, have read this proclamation. these may be successfully veiled for years, and found bim in his morning-wrapper.

but not for all time. Just retribution will But he was much changed. The patier a develop, will scoreh, will incinerate. You of s.dness, a hopeless expression, was upsued under the pressure of a military necan readily suspect that man who declares on his face. Yet he took me kindly by cessity which Gen. Fremont believed justhe most for your interest. The cat needs the hand, and told me, with peculiar car- tified the step, but in the particulars spenestness, that he had sent for me to con- cified has not your approbation, and will less one life deception. class-mates, that you suspected my hones- my extreme desire that by no misappresseler, for my class-mate was highly es-teemed by the Faculty and loved by all. blinded and confounded you. But before shall the power and fervor of the loyalty The young ladies smiled more sweetly might, not only you, but the world will of Kentucky be at this moment abated or when Marlowe addressed them; but he soked upon women as ornaments merely, the ladies to win, but ress with which I have addressed you, and the pack to win, but ress with which I have addressed you, and have finally lost,' and leaning forward with for the request that I venture to make of a look of terrible bitterness, in a hoarse an expression of my views upon the points

Nide difference resting upon the same tal- upon his chest. He was dead! He had ent, developed in a cheating game of swallowed poison. He had been conceal-Grds, where the sleeves or other covert ing and carrying on a series of forgeries, by Wes the acc that gives to and takes from. Which means he had entered into private speculation of great magnitude. But a where there is the more to occupy the minds of many: for instance, a city. The pressure of obligations is esteemed security from detection, but to the accurate obtaining the same number of the securate obtaining the same subject, and which is to be made the world at large, while feeding it with the world at large. the world at large, while feeding it with public when he receives it. I herewith So successfully did Marlowe play his the supposed pabulam of deference, he send you a copy of that letter, which per-world. Public confidence was staggered, capitalists were dumb. Every one shuddered. Mutual reliance lost one trusted passed different avocations. Before we pillar of its base; temptation had proved and many excellent suggestions from Marlowe, such as could exist only where there was actual belief in the same.

Disgusted with all professions, my fread chose merchandise, and soon after me his ressons for so doing, the chief y incentives should never tremble with and life, with all its phases of sunbeam usually large, and the whole term occu-"Could this Napoleon of ambition have buried the hypocrite twin of his nature," slippered pantaloon' age; and when ARGUMEN by As full of wisdom as experience, as the perience and perience as age, age as temperance and buried the hypocrito twin of his nature, slippered pantaloon age; and when what a prince would have lived, and what a prince would have lived, and what a blaze of glory would have been extinated by the will of a blaze of glory would have been extinated by the will be accompany the relentless driver pleader act. Rule made absolute, and well to accompany the relentless driver pleader act. Rule made absolute, and upon that returnless ride 'mid the sin- urther proceedings to be had according rest sorrow of following hearts.' This is my story of a life fact. It has

"READ ye the lesson-heed it well."

CORRESPONDENCE Between the Hon Joseph Holt and the President, relative to Fremont's Proclamation.

The following appeared in the Louisville Journal and Democrats

Washington, Sept. 12, 1861, My Dear Sir; -I hasten to place in your

The act of Congress alluded to was a was fully justified by the usages of civilizrebels, that it has to confiscate their arms but, having confiscated them, Congress plying proofs, that the war, which is one for national existence, does not seek to the States. If this institution suffers detriment from the events or issues of the bellion, the blow will come from those who, under the pretence of defending it quarters of a century.

Very respectfully yours, J. HOLT. Gen. JAMES SPEED, Frankfort, Ky.

Washington, Sept. 12, 1861 Dear sir: - The late act of Congress pro viding for the confiscation of the estates thing feerful in my suspicions that the courage would quail to perform what hope are accepted and fully approved by the sidences of friendship were clever advan- for concealment has encouraged him to loyal mon of the country. It limited the este convert me. I have shuddered as laught unawares, his eye upon me. I may be desired. The sequel demonstrated it.

It is a fearful thing, may young friend.

It is a fearful thing the country. It limited the penalty of confiscation to property actual to property a it! In order to know, you must observe, it, blotting from the argument the natu-line support of the rebellion or not, shall be confiscated, and if consisting in slaves. they shall at once be manumitted. The act of Congress referred to, was believed whose presence could not fail to prove a painful apprehension if not terror to the the Court ordered an election to be held homes and families of all. You may there-in Union toweship on the 8th of October. fore well judge of the alarm and condem- to change the place of holding the elecappearite. After the fire the still small 'I found upon my table one evening a nation with which the Union loving citi- tions in said township.

The hope is earnestly indulged by them. as it is by myself, that this paper was isnot be enforced in derogation of law. The 'Roger! I have known since we were magnitude of the interests at stake, and It is instructive as well as pleasant to whisper he added: It is all ambition without of Gen. Fremont's proclamation on which have commented. I have the honor to be, very respectful-

J. HOLT.

His Excellency, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States. EXECUTIVE MANSION, Sept. 12, '61. Hon, J. Hota. - Dour Sir: - Yours of this part at our graduation I almost denied was merely using this as the saccharine to haps shows my position as distinctly as Allport, Jos. H. Jenes and M. Denning.

To view a road from McMurray's Mill The melancholy case stunned the you not to make it public, until Gen. Freorea Learning of A. LINCOLN. Ex-PRESIDENT FILLWORE. - This gentle. about 00 rods north of the Blue Ball tay.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

All the civil causes sat down for trial at 'Let existence be guarded by principle, number of Commonwealth cases was uns urther proceedings to be had according to rule No. 107.

Spangler & Patterson vs. Thomas Memoral; and he is wise who will profit hadey. Rule to show cause, &c., same as > Seth Hackett vs. William Abbott, Certiorari by Defendant. Continued by consent and rule on Justice to produce docket under rule No. 38.

John Mulholland vs. J. & J. B. Campbell. Certiorari by Defendants. Exceptions ustained and proceedings reversed. J. E. Thompson, per James Riddle, vs. Danie Koozer. Certiorari by defendants. Exceptions sustained and proceedings re-

Josiua Armstrong vs. Overseers of Poor of Pile township, Certiorari by defend-ants. Certiorari non pross'd and record remited to Justice for further proceed-

A. l. McPherron vs. John F. Bloom

In matter of the application for Charters could be granted under the applier tion, COMMONWEALTH CASES.

Con'th, vs. Bridget McArdle,-Arson Tried and defendant acquitted.

Con. vs. Wm. Evnns .- Assault and But tery. Deft. acquitted and costs divided between him and W. Selfridge, prosecutor. Cen. vs. I. J. Bloom -- Obstructing Publi ad. Defendant acquitted but to pay half the other half.

Com. vs. Peter Mays .- Passing Counterfeit mercy. Defendant acquitted without the jury leaving the box.

Com. vs. R. D. Cummings. - Obtaining Goods under false pretence. Defendant acquitted. County for cost.

Com. vs. James Curley .- Larcong, 3 bills. Lefendant convicted, and sentenced to 13 nonths in the Western Penitentiary. Com, vs Frederick Kohler,-Assault and Batery. Defendant acquitted, but orderea to pay the costs. · Com. vs Winegardner, Ainsworth and Rogers. - Nuisance, Frontiny Logs in Clearfield Defendants plead guilty, and fined each $25 and costs. Com, vs L. A. Jamison, -Same as above.

Battery. Recognizance forfeited. road to the Glen Hope turnpike at or near Com, vs R. B. McCully.—Adultery and the residence of Samuel M. Smith, in Bec-fornication. True bill. Recognizance for caria township.

Com. L. W. Weld, et. al. - Naisance, GENERAL FORM OF VIEWERS RE-Floating Logs. Not. pros. entered on pay-ment of costs as to Weld.

The act of assembly requires Road View.

in $250 to appear at the next term.

Bench warrants issued in both these cases.

Of use to them in the future.

To the Honorable the Judges if the Court of Quarter Sessions in and for Clear field county.

The order to Re-view the division line

In accordance withthe petition's request

Joseph Moore was appointed a Supervipopular sentiment I am best acquainted- sor of Ferguson township in the room of Thomas McCracken, declined, Francis Hugar was appointed constable of Girard township.

Jos. M. Smith was appointed constable of Beccaria tp.

ROAD PETITIONS, &c.

Petition to view a road from Simon Rorabaugh's house to the road intersecting the Glen Connell road in Chest township. Viewers, H. B. Wright, George Walters and G. W. Caldwell. To view a road from Samuel Browns to a road in Huston township, at a point be-tween Elijah Burns and William Hoyts. tween Elijah Burns and Viewers, H. Whitehead, John Brubaker and L. R. Dressler.

To view a road from Isaac Zartmans to intersect the Shaffer road near R, M. Smileys, in Brady township. Viewers, Ros-well Luther, Henry Goodlander and Tolbert Dale. To view a road from George Ogdens to intersect the old road near the farm of H. Yeas, jr., in Brady township, Viewers, R. Luther, F. K. Arnold & R. W. Moore. To view a road from Thomas Cleavers in Bloom township to Andersons creek in To view a road from the Plum road near Swartz's school house to intersect the Dilion road on the line between Peter Rahorn and John Irwin. Viewers, Crammond To view a road from McMurray's Mill, on the west side of the river, to the Cherry Tree. Viewers, Asa White, George Atchison and James McMurray. To view a road from the Erie turnpike road at or near Henry Marshalls in Brady township. Viewers, Elisha Fenton, Henry Reams and Jackson Bonsal.

To view a road from Mary McClures and J. A. Caldwell's land on public read to public road at or near Simon Thompson's and J. H. Fleming's line. Viewers, This. Ross, W. C. Dale and Jacob Cole.

To re-view that portion of the public road from Curwensville to New Millport lying between Curwensville and the saw mill of James Coupler. Re-viewers, G. L. Reed, Grier Bell and Geo Ross,

To re-view a road from Francis Hugueney's house to Plank road in Girord township. Viewers, Samuel Fulton, A. B. Shaw and P. T. Hegarty.

Baughman's on the old State road to the apart. Erie turupike half a mile east of the Blue Ball tayers in Decatur township, was con-tinued. Viewers, Thos. Ross, Eli Bloom on the hill beyond the Loudonn and and Francis Pearce.

To vacate a road from Moses Robesons to the east branch on the Philipsburg left of Falls Church, a mile and a half dia-road. Viewers, Joshun Comstock, W. R. tant, fresh rebel earthworks are bong

Dickinson and Samuel Hegarty, sr. To view a road from H. B. Balleys to or the village. near John Potter in Union township. Viewers, Rowell Luthor, Joseph Lines and David Welty. CONFIRMED NI St. - A road leading from Henry Reams to the turnpike at or near a lieutenant belonging to one of the North John Smiths in Bloom township. View- Carolina regiments.

A road leading from Jacob Hummel, jr. About noon to day a man was tree.

A road leading from Jacob Hummel, jr. in the woods near Falls Church or to David Ream's saw mill in Brady town.

Antes' dam in Lawrence township. A road leading from Moses Robesons to gether with his barns and outbroom Nevling's mill in Guelich township. To view a private road to lead from Westovers in Chest township to the north dwellings belonging to Nicholas 17 and west corner of A. J. King's farm on the estate, with one exception. The reasest public road near John Fry, in Burnside of Murray Mason, on Murray' Hall, w

CONFIRMED ABSOLUTE. - A road to lead from Beccaria Mills to Mount Pleasant, terday and to day cannot or learning.

river at the mouth of Curry's run, to in- who may be caught in the in- who intersect the road leading from Arnold and Rishels' grist mill to Knarr's saw mill, in during the unfortunate collision. Brady township,

A road lending from Leonard's bridge on the Snowshoe and Packerville turnpik, to corner of Patrick Dolan's fence in Lawrence township. This was a re-view and horses. the viewers report that the "road as ori-ginally located is the best location that

A road to lead from the Snowshoe and Packerville turnpike at or near the divis-ion line of Joseph Goon and A. H. Shaw to, at or near the fording below A. H.

Shaw's grist mill.

Com. vs Thomas McCracken. — Neglect of ers to give written notice of the time and held.

cady as Supervisor of Ferguson to whehip. Itound place of meeting, and failure to note this. The Com. vs George Knarr,—Selling Liquor is often fatal. In order to assist our friends eight days without charges being prefer thout License. Continued till next term. throughout the county we hereto append red. General Fremout disregarded the Com. vs John Robson. - Same at above, a copy of a proper return, which may be army regulations in the case of Colonel . Sessions, A. D., 186 -We the undersigned Viewers [or Reviewers named in the above order, do report, That in pursuance of the said orner, after having given ten days notice by ditional release of Col Blair. written advertisements of the time and place of meeting, for the purpose of ting said road, and after having all been duly sworn [or affirmed] according to law, proceeded to view the ground named in the order for said road in pur nance of said order, we have viewed and laid out, assigned to a position in the staff of Maj. and do return for Public [or Private] use, believing the same to be necessary, the following road, to wit: Commencing, &c.

ONE WITH ANOTHER .- It God's providence we are all one with another; above all worldly creeds, sects and conditions; upon the bread, eternal level of a common Fatner's love. King or peasant, however high or low here; there will be but one degree in the great hereafter. All incqualities end forever at the grave: Thurk of it, when the fluttering rage of poverty, and your ownpride blind youte the brotherhood of souls, and you buffet away the pleading hand of distress. He who reviles and despises even the lowest of his race, casts humiliation and reproach upop himself, for we are all one with another in the Eternal Eye.

Barnum lays it down as a rule in his work on "The Art of Making Money," that the "proper time to advertise judic ously is when others don't." It strikes Pike township. Viewers, Eisha Fenton, us that Baronm is very nearly right, and John Smith and S. W. Horn. men at the time when they seem to need dently expected that Harden with wight encouragement.

Some malicious scoundrel has pen ned the following: "Eve did not know as Had they been in her place, instead of be- body of men. ing deceived, they would have deceived) the Devil."

From the Side of the Potomac-The Position of the Federl Army.

Washington, Sept. 30,-The position e the Federal army is about the same as on yesterday, there being no miteral change The day before our forces occupied Phila Church the rebels evacuated it with six regiments and four pieces of artiflery. The Federal pickets now secupy or end of the village and the rebel pickets the other, both positions being on the Leesburg turnpike. Theopposing pickers To re-view a road leading from Andrew are not more than a quarter of a mile

From Falls Church this morning wa-Hampshire railroad. Artillery was also observed crossing the turnpike. To the tant, fresh rebel earthworks are being thrown up on an eminence countamoting A large scouting party started out in the direction of Surfax Court House, the result of which was the capture of three cavalry horses; also, three pris

About noon to day a man was percelion of being a spy. He could give no isfactory account of himself. The sunt for the German Salem Latheran Church A road leading from George Thorn's destruction of property in the new store of Bridy township, and the remonstrance farm to intersect the turnpike leading hood of Fall. Course by the from Clearfield to Curwensville at or near troops still continues. Among the lower burned to day was that of Major Non, toadjoining residence of Dr. Bonn, was W. now a surgeon in the robel army, and the burnt early this morning.

The amount of property destroyed as the costs, and John Morgan, prosecutor, between Beccaria Mids and L. W. Weld's 1000, With a view to allege these purish tore, in Beccaria township. es the commanding officers have A road leading from the Susquehanna verbal orders to shoot down to es the commanding officers have

Among the killed yeare my me ion to those herotofore mention John McGuise and private Will company I, First Pennsylvania free goons. The same company also los in

The Difficulty between General Frances and Colonel Blau.

From facts ascertained here, it a trai on westnesday trail research full of Col Blair from arrest, using Lago n the order tantamount to a defithe Colonel to present his charges in ly. On Thursday Col. Blair present charges formally against Gen Fremont, in response to the deliance. Therupon Gen-Fremon', immediately re- arrested Col and sent him to Jeffer on 1

On Friday night the telegraph was allowed to communicate the flot that C Blair had been freed from street the provious Wednesday. But the offensive order of release was suppress I and the fact of Colonel Blair's second arrest with-The army regulations allow no officer fact in their report, if objection is made, to be arrested for a longer period than eight days without charges being prefer

> After this violation of the regulations a second arrest for the same cause and with> out charges has attracted attention and caused remark. The great fact in relation to this case is that Gen Scott to day ordered the uncon-

> It is understood that the Court of laquiry in the case of Capt. Done of the P enhantas, acquit him of every charge of

Wilson Barstow, Jr., of New York, a Lieutenant in the volunteers, has been

THE WAR IN MISSOURI-

Later Accounts from Laxington

Jefferson City, Sept. 29 .- There is no reliable news from Booneville, Georgelown, Glasgow, Rolla, or any other prominent points.

Lapt. Walter, of Colonel Marshall a reg iment, who was at Lexinton, arrived this morning. He left there on Thursday at He saw no rebei troops between Lexington and Sebalia, and says that the main body of Get. Price's forces were there when he departed, and he believes that they intend to make a sound and meet our troops there as the vicinity is well calculated, from its streams and de-p and miry banks, without bridges to trouble an advancing army.

All the Federal forces have been release ed on parele, except Cul Melligan, who refused to give his for private asympas. Price has probably thirty-five thousand men, and the rebels on Thursday compor nine thousand; and McCariovan With ten thousand more, were within two or three days' march of Lexington . They have no faith in McCallough as a general much as her daughters of the present day, but think he is very effective with a small

A body of 10,000 rebels were sent across the Missouri from Lexington on Thursda with the avowed futention of atlanta Tane, who is reported on this tide of all I know then now in their wining strength. I do river. Our troops had no mark specific