tin and Taker. Howard Soluk Cale On Mon day afternoon, says the Harrisburg Patriot and Union, two gentlemansolid looking farmers arrived in Comp Curtin Who sought an interlew with the officer of the day, and informed him that they were in search. of a girl who had strayed away. ... He hought a military camp a queer place so hunt for stray girls, especially as it reflected on the diguity and virtue of an hour she was found on guard doing duty as a sentinel' in the uniform of Capt. Kuhn's company of Sumner Ritles of Carfisle. We do not know what name she enlisted under to pro. eet the honor of her country's flag, but her real name is Sophia Cryder, and her residence only about a mile from this city. She has been in Capt. any ene not acquainted, with her to and gene is early graves. amination, which is said to be made with great strictness by the Medical men of Camp Curtin, we are not informed.

Shear epresented as a girl of un-blemished exputation, and did not as generally happens in such cases, en-ist to be near the object of her affect-ions, but are ely in a wild spirit of ad-venture. It does not speak well for the modely of Miss Jophia, how-ever, to say, that she was in the habit of accompanying the men of their ex-cursions to the river to bathe; but she may have done this to ward off suspibut we are informed that the most reckless dare-devil attached to the Seveath Regiment of the three months' volenteers, was a woman-the mothor of four children.

Miss Cryder was taken home, where dre can reflect over what she did see, as well as what she did not see.

A WITTY BUTCHER .- During an el oction at Stamford, a violent Tory went into the shop of a Whig butcher. What is your pleasure?" deman. ded the knight of the cleaver. want a calf's head," was the re-

Pho butcher having two, inquired of his Tory customer which he would prefer, a Tory one or a Whig one.

"A Tory one, to be sure," rejoined the onstomer "Very well, sir; I'll send it home for you.

When the cook proceeded to press it, the BRAINS were missing, and the master was speedily made acquainted with the circumstances, when he returned to the butcher's and indignantly inquired of him what had become to announce to the public that he is prepa of them.

"Are you not aware, sir," replied cleaver, "that Tory heads do not contain brains? And did you not choose and every sind of printing usually done a Tory call's head in proference to a Williamone Blink

THE LAWYER AND THE DUCKS .-There is not a more common offence against the law of common courtesy (we might say oftentimes, common decency) than is practiced by a certain class of lawyers now a days in the examination of witnesses upon the stand. Now and then, however, animportinent lawyer "gets it back,, in cessary. such a way that he is him "to call the pres't Judge, Hen. Samuel Lina. Bellefonte. next witness." Of such was the following, not as yet "put down in the lowing, hot as yet "put down in the lowing." BOOKS," but well worthy of being Prothenotary, John L. Cuttle, transfered from the PAPERS.

your ducks?" asked the defendant's counsel.

"Oh, I should know them ANY WHERE," replied the farmer , and he Coroner, went on to describe their different peculiarities.

"Why," said the prisoner's counsel, Boll, "these ducks can't be such a rare breed, I have some very much like them in my own yard."

"That's not unlikely, sir," replied Bradford, the farmer; they are not the ONLY Brady, ducks I have had stolen lately !" "Call the NEXT witness."

A friend of ours up town, has a little fair haired youngster theologian of some four summers, who, after being the other day, for some time Curwensville lost in thought, broke out thus:
"Pa, can God do anything?"
"Yes, my son."

"Can he do everything, Pa?" 'Yes dear."
