THE NEWS.

On the 15th inst., some fighting took lace at Harpers Ferry between a portion the forces under Col. Geary and a strong bree of Confederates, the latter being drien back until reinforced, when Col. Geapounder Columbiad. His loss was ight, while that of the enemy was repord to be serious.

The federal forces are steadily advancagfrom Washington into Virginia -Gen. leCall, in command of the Pennsylvania serve Corps, leading the advance, which now but a short distance frem Fairfax. The Potomac is now fully blockaded by he Confederates, their batteries on the figinia side firing upon every vessel passngupand down. A New York vessel lat uses with hay, cement, de., was captured them on Saturday last. Other capures are reported.

The blockading squadron on the Missisippi was attacked by a squadron fitted out New Orleans on the 11th inst., under ommand of Capt, Hollins, who performed onspicuous part in the capture of the teamer St. Nicholas on the Chesapeake ome months ago. The sloop of war Vincones was sunk, and several other vesels are reported as having been driven aground and some prizes taken.

From Missouri the news is important Beneral Price left Lexington, going South, mais reported to have been joined by McCulloch at Carthage, where they are prepanng to receive Gen. Fremont, who is in apid pursuit. Lexington is reported to berecaptured by the Union forces.

In the meantime Fremont is one day reported removed—the next day, the re-port is contradicted—and the next, he is gain removed. Gen, Cameron has rened from a tour of inspection to Misuri,and there seems to be no doubt that orders for the removal of Fremont have eer, issued. Gen. Hunter is now said to behis successor.

Lord Lyons and Secretary Seward are elieved to be engaged in important correspondence. A letter from each is pub-lahed, on the subject of the imprisonment of British Subjects; and in referring to this controversy, low, of the Baltimore &s, remarks that the opinion is gaining found that the Southern Confederacy will be recognized by England and France -Mr. Mason of Virginia, and Mr. Slidell d Louisiana, having sailed as Ministers, havessel that escaped the blockade at Charleston .
