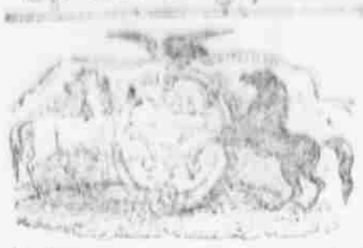
The Clearfield Republican.



CLEARFIELD, PA

Wednesday Morning March 5, 1862.

Party Before Country.

According to most of the Republican papers Gen. McClellen is no longer of any account. If they are to be credited, President Lincoln has relieved Gen. McClellan from all responsibility, and taken the entire direction of military operations into his own hands, awarding quite a small sprinkling of credit to Gen. Halleck, who "suggested" the late movements in Kentucky, Tennessee, &c., which were "approved and authorized" by the President, but not a word about Gen. McClellan.

We presume there is no man above ground who feels less annoyed at such contemptible conduct than Gen. McClellan himself; but lest any body should be simple enough to believe any such twaddle, we will just say that Gen. McClellan is as much Chief in command of the army operations to-day, as ever he was, and that no movement has yet been made that was not part of his wise and well arranged plans, and therefore to him, more than to any other single individual, belongs the honor of what has been accomplished.

Why is this systematic effort made to rob Gen. McClellan of the honors to which he is justly entitled? Simply because his political antecedents are those of a Democrat; and because he sternly refuses to make this a war upon slavery. There can be no other reason; and the men who stoop to such things are as destitute of patriotism as a jackass. They don't want the country saved, if the Democratic party is to be saved with it.

☞On the 25th ult. Secretary Stanton directed (by telegraph) the Chiefs of Police in the several cities to see that no war news was published in any of the papers. This order, it seems, was carried out to the letter, and in Chicago the editions of three of the morning papers of the 26th were seized and destroyed for refusing to submit their proof-sheets to this new censor of the press.

As might have been expected, the effect of this order was to create the utmost excitement wherever it was known, as nobody could see any possible reason why such an order should be issued, except an advance of the army of the Potomac. But the army of the Potomac, with the exception of a portion of Bank's division, is stationary, so far as is known, and the cause of this extraordinary dispatch, which was only to apply to the 26th, is yet unexplained.

☞Gen. Lander, who was in command in Western Virgina, to whose force the Eighty-fourth regiment is attached, died on Saturday last from the effects of wounds received at Edward's Ferry. He has remained on active duty ever since.

The following compliment was paid Gen. Lander on the 17th ult., immediately after his last brilliant exploit in Western Virginia.

War Department, Washington, Feb. 17, '62.
To Brigadier General F. W. LANDER:—

The President directs me to say that he has observed with pleasure the activity and enterprise manifested by yourself and the officers and soldiers of your command. You have shown how much may be done in the worst roads by a spirited officer at the head of a small force of brave men, unwilling to waste life in camp when the enemies of their country are within reach. Your brilliant success is a happy presage of what may be expected when the army of the Potomac shall be led to the field by their gallant General.

E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

☞The report of the Van Wyck Committee explains the sudden departure of Mr. Thurlow Weed for Europe, last August. It was generally thought that this great Abolition Mogul had received a commission from the President as Minister Plenipotentiary to all Europe, for the purpose of superintending our national affairs generally. But Mr. Van Wyck shows that Weed, like Cameron, Morgan & Co., had been robbing the Government of thousands of dollars, and his sudden exit to Europe was to escape answering a few questions before the Van Wyck Committee. We should like to know the difference between government robbers like Weed and his associates, and Slidell and his compeers.

☞The Constitutional Convention of the new State of Western Virginia, lately in session at Wheeling, seem determined to get rid of the "contrabands," and thereby shift them upon their neighbors of this State an Ohio. The convention, on the 13th ultimo, nearly unanimously adopted a clause preventing slaves and free persons of color from emigrating to, or gaining a residence in the new State after the adoption of the Constitution by the people.—There is no doubt that this clause will be adopted by a large majority of the people. This is another verification of the shallow sympathy of the Abolitionists for the negro. Take the negro out of the political arena and Abolitionism will die a natural death.

What's in the Wind!

A convention of the Republican editors of Pennsylvania is called to take place at Harrisburg next Wednesday. The object is not expressly stated, but it is plainly intimated that it has reference to the organization of the party. Whatever else they may do, we venture to guess that we will hear no more of the great Republican party, and this convocation is doubtless for the purpose of performing the baptismal ceremonies of a new named party.—But it will be the "same old coon," and nobody will be deceived thereby.

☞Gov. Morton, of Indiana, has appointed Ex-Governor Joseph A. Wright of that State, United States Senator in the room of Jesse D. Bright Mr. Wright was appointed Minister to Prussia by President Buchanan. If the present party in power would secure the services of a few more of "old Buck's" appointees, there might yet be some hope for the country. Let "old Abe" turn the "robber" Wells out of the Navy Department, and the despot Blair out of the Post Office Department, and put Dix and Holt in their places, and the "machine" will soon assume a healthy motion. They will run it at seventy per cent. less than the present hands are doing it.

☞The United States Senate has rejected the appointment of Major Will A. Stokes, of Greensburg, as Major; and also for the second time the appointment of the celebrated Dr. Leib, of Chicago, as Quartermaster. The reason assigned for the rejection of the latter is that he has already spent a million of dollars that he cannot account for. We presume the Senate concluded that he had served his country long and well enough. It is a pity that so many of those well-meaning, patriotic (?) Abolitionists should copy after that notorious traitor Floyd!

☞Late intelligence from Kansas states that after several interviews between Gen. Hunter and Gen. Lane, it is evident that amicable arrangements between them are impossible, and that Lane will return at once to the Senate. Jayhawking is below par in Kansas, but seems to be at a premium in the American Senate, where such men are favored and petted by those who lay claim to the title of Christian!

☞One of our exchanges abuses the Republican party very vehemently, because it avows no national principles.—This we think is a mistake. The Republicans have certainly incorporated at least one national plank in their platform, and that is national robbery. We hope our cotemporary will bear this in mind hereafter, and make the amende honorable.

THE STATE PRISONERS.—The President has appointed Gen. John A. Dix, and the Hon. Edward Pierrepont, of New York, Commissioners for the purpose of examining the State Prisoners now confined in the several military prisons, and determining whether they should be discharged or remain in military custody, or handed over to the civil tribunals for trial.

☞The Jacobin Club who control the United States Senate, were again defeated in that body on Thursday last, upon the question of administering the oath to Benjamin Stark, Senator from Oregon.—The vote stood 26 to 19. All the Democrats and Union men, and ten Republicans, voted to admit Mr. Stark to his seat.

☞A convention of cotton and tobacco planters was held at Richmond one day last week, to discuss the propriety of destroying these crops rather than permit them to fall into the hands of the federal forces. Without final action the convention adjourned to meet next day.

The Sad Side of the Picture.

The following private letter, written by a former attache of the New York Post-office, presents another side of the victory gained at Fort Donelson from that which is generally contemplated:

FORT DONELSON, Tenn., Feb. 17.

My Dear Father—Sad, lonely and downhearted, I attempt to write you a few lines, to let you know I am alive and unhurt. We have had a most bloody fight; there must have been five thousand men killed and wounded, on both sides. But the enemy surrendered on Saturday evening, we taking about thirteen thousand prisoners. But, dear father, the hardest part of the story is that out of eighty-five men in my company, only seven came out—the most wholesale slaughter that was ever heard of.

My company was the color company, at which the rebels took particular aim; as fast as one who carried it would be shot another would take his place, but the flag was brought through. Only one hundred and sixteen men remain in the Eleventh regiment uninjured.

Do not wonder, dear father, that I am down-hearted. My boys all loved me, and need I say that, in looking at the poor remnant of my company—the men that I have taken so much pains to drill, the men I thought so much of—now nearly all in their graves—I feel melancholy. But I do not complain; God spared my life, and for what the future must tell. I will write you soon again. The Eleventh regiment will, I think, (what is remaining,) be left to guard the prisoners at Alton or Cairo, whilst they recruit. Whether I shall attempt to raise another company, I do not know at present. Good bye. Let the folks at home know I am safe.

Yours affectionately,
L. D. WADDELL, Capt.
Co. E, 11th Reg't. Ill. Volunteers.
(What is left of it.)
W. C. H. Waddell, Esquire, New York.

☞On Sunday night, 23d ult., a frame house near Heckscherville, Schuylkill county, Pa., and occupied by a Mr. Thomas Connell, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Connell, his wife, four of their children, a male boarder and a servant girl, eight persons, perished in the flames.

THE WAR NEWS.

LATEST FROM TENNESSEE.

Occupation of Nashville—the Federal Flag Flying over the Capitol of Tennessee—Flight of the Rebel Legislature to Memphis.

CAIRO, Feb. 25, P. M.—Nashville was yesterday occupied by the National troops under Gen. Buel.

The Federal flag is flying over the State house.

The Tennessee Legislature adjourned on Saturday week, to meet again at Memphis.

It is reported that commissioners have been appointed to confer with the Federal authorities at Washington to arrange terms for the transfer of allegiance, and that Gov. Harris has offered to turn the rebel forces over to the Union

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 26.—A Fort Donelson dispatch to the Democrat of yesterday, says: "A boat just from Clarksville reports the evacuation of Nashville. The Union citizens of that place sent a steamboat to Clarksville, which towed up one of our gunboats for protection. The rebels, with Gov. Harris, retreated to Murfreesboro'.

Harris burnt all the State documents before leaving.

Gen. Grant has declared martial law over West Tennessee.

THE LATEST FROM CAIRO.

CAIRO, Feb. 26.—Nothing further has transpired in reference to Columbus. The reports from rebel sources represent that a stand will be made at Columbus.

At Randolph and Memphis, forces are concentrating. At the latter place the streets are barricaded with cotton bales. The reports of the pacification of Tennessee are denied, and late Memphis papers contain a savage war speech from Governor Harris.

FROM ARKANSAS.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.—The following dispatch was sent from headquarters to-day:

Major General McClellan:—Gen. Curtis has taken possession of Fayetteville, Arkansas, capturing a number of prisoners, stores, baggage, &c.

The enemy burnt part of the town before leaving. They have crossed Preston Mountains in great confusion. We are now in possession of all their strong holds.

Forty-two officers and men of the 5th Missouri Cavalry were poisoned at Mud Town by eating poisoned food which the rebels left behind them. The gallant Captain Dolfert died, and Lieut. Col. Von Deutzh and Captain Schenan have suffered much, but are now recovering. The indignation of our soldiers is very great, but they have restrained from retaliation upon the prisoners of war.

[Signed,] H. W. HALLECK,
Major General Commanding.

FROM THE SOUTH—Call for Troops—Draft Threatened.—Louisville, Feb. 27.—The N. Orleans Bee confesses to the magnitude of the calamity at Fort Donelson, and condemns the neglect and apathy of the Confederate Government in not sending enough troops westward. It says a general call to arms has become an inevitable necessity.

The Memphis Avalanche of the 22d says that the Governor of Alabama has called for twelve regiments from that State, and if not forthcoming other means will be used to fill the requisition.

The Governor of Georgia calls also for twelve regiments from that State, and says if the requisition is not filled by the 4th of March, a draft will be ordered. A company near Kington, Boston county, is preparing to turn out one thousand lbs. of saltpetre from a saltpetre cave in that vicinity.

The peach and plum trees in Rome, Georgia, are blooming, and the wheat crop is promising and almost too forward.

Cotton cards are being manufactured in Dawson, Georgia

ARCHBISHOP HUGHES AND SLAVERY.—Archbishop Hughes has written a letter to the Journal der Debats of Paris, in which he says that he is not responsible for the article in the Metropolitan Record of New York, reviewing M. Cochin's book of slavery, which was translated into the French journal as his, and the pro-slavery tendencies of which drew upon him condemnations from all sides. But while he declares that he is not the advocate of slavery, and has never written or said a word in favor of it, he is decidedly opposed to American abolition. Slavery is the "sick man" of the United States. The abolitionists of the North see its condition afar off through a telescope, and everything is exagerated to their eyes. He thinks that, like yellow fever and cholera, slavery, should be left to the doctor of the country where it prevails, and that it is not worth while to burn the cities of the South in order to exterminate any of these plagues.

JOHN TYLER'S HOUSE.—A recent visitor to the late ex-President Tyler's homestead, at Hampton, Va., found it occupied by his late slaves: "I could not count them; but there must have been over a hundred in the house—comfortable, tidy, and how happy. In one room I found four generations; in the corner of a spacious fireplace sat the great-grandmother, 'sans eyes, sans teeth, sans everything,' but just life enough to rock the great-granddaughter she held in her arms, while the two intermediate generations were busy about the farming work. 'Tippecanoe and Tyler too.' What a history in 21 years! President, exile, dead among strangers; and his slaves enjoying his goods, chattles, and estate."

☞The Treasury Notes furnished to the United States Government by the American Bank note Company, represent about $160,000,000, cover 2,000,000, sheets of paper, equal to half a sheet of foolscap and including four notes, weighing in all about 30,000 pounds, and their total bulk is estimated at 567 cubic feet, or eight respectable cart-loads.

ORPHANS COURT SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Orphan's Court of Clearfield county, there will be exposed to public sale at the Court House in the borough of Clearfield, on next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the following described real estate to wit: A certain tract of land situate in Morris township, Clearfield county, beginning at post N. W. Corner of John Morgan, E. S. VULCANITE BASE FOR Artificial Teeth!

A QUESTION is especially called to this article as a substitute for Gold in inserting Artificial Teeth.

Many persons who have tried all kinds of Metallic Bases PREFER this. And in those cases where it is aplicable it will undoubtedly become a substitute for Gold, Silver or Platina.

Its chief advantages are cheapness, lightness and perfect adaptability to the mouth, it having a soft and fleshy feel to the parts with which it comes in contact.

A. M. HILLS is prepared to put up teeth on the Vulcanite Base with Goodyear's Patent Gum, which is the only reliable preparation and which can only be had through their regular agencies.

Dr. Hills will always be in his office on Fridays and Saturdays, unless notice to the contrary appears in the public papers on the previous week.

Crittenden's Commercial College
N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut Sts.
PHILADELPHIA, PA

THIS INSTITUTION, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our country.

THE OBJECT of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

THE BRANCHES TAUGHT are Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade;—PENMANSHIP, both plain and ornamental; COMMERCIAL LAW, MATHEMATICS, NAVIGATION, CIVIL ENGINEERING, DRAWING, PHONOGRAPHY, and MODERN LANGUAGES.

THE SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION is peculiar: no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

CATALOGUES are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

IN EXTENSIVE ACCOMMODATIONS, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time a DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.
