AN APPEAL TO THE LADIES OF CLEARFIELD.

An urgent appeal has been made to the sympathy as well as patriotic feelings of the Clearfield Ladies, by the suffering soldiers of the 84th Regiment, Penn'a Vol., who are confined by illness in the Hospital at Cumberland, Md., and Western Virginia. Companies I. and K. are from our own county. It is the desire of the Ladies to send them a box of Hospital stores without delay—and any contributions from the citizens will be received at the former place, Judge Barron's office, articles such as old linen, soft muslin, sheets for bandages, lint, stockings, slippers, pillows, shirts, handkerchiefs, towels, &c., as well as wine, jellies, preserves and pickles. They will be received and forwarded by the following committee:

Mrs. Wm. Bigler, Miss Helen Cuttle,
Mrs. J. T. Leonard, Miss Sophia Barrett,
Mrs. G. R. Barrett, Miss Bertha Wright.

DR. HARTWICK—Dr. Hartwick has just received a lot of Dr. Hurni's celebrated Mouth Wash, Tooth Powders, and Neuralgia Plasters. Try them.

PERSONS WISHING TO EMPLOY A COMPETENT GENTLEMAN TO TAKE CHARGE OF A SUMMER SCHOOL WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE TO THE CARD IN ANOTHER COLUMN.

A DECIDED SUCCESS—The reception given to Lieut. LORAIN and his bride, at the residence of Ex-Governor BIGLER, on last Thursday evening. The crowd was large, hearts light, faces pleasant, and the substantialities complete in all respects.

FATAL ACCIDENT—William Ralston, aged about 19 years, son of Thos. Ralston, of Boggs tp., lost his life on Thursday last, by the falling of a tree. The accident happened about ten o'clock in the morning, and he expired that night. He was much esteemed by his acquaintances.

ASSAULT—We are informed that an altercation took place one day last week between a Mr. Conway and a Mr. Edmonson, both citizens of Karthaus township, in which an axe and a handspike were used, resulting in the breaking of both arms of Mr. Edmonson, one of them in two places.

THE NEWS.

IT appears we have a "Hayti" in our country, and the brawny sons and daughters of Africa are piling in thick and fast. We would say to those of our own color who make their visits somewhat too frequent to that quarter to be token any good, that we will no longer suppress names unless there is an immediate stop put to it.

OUR SCHOOLS.—The four months' term of the Common Schools in this borough closed on Wednesday last.

The male department has been under the charge of Messrs. Fulford and Wm. M. McCollum, Jr., and the female department under that of Mrs. S. Swan—all in the Town Hall, and numbering, all told, nearly 200 scholars. All things considered, we think these teachers have acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner, having established in the beginning a strict system of discipline, which they enforced throughout—as was clearly demonstrated in the exercises at the closing of the school on Wednesday last—which were alike creditable to teachers and scholars.

THOSE PERSONS WHO HAVE BEEN ELECTED JUSTICES OF THE PEACE IN THIS COUNTY AT THE LATE ELECTION, ARE REQUIRED BY AN ACT OF ASSEMBLY, TO NOTIFY THE PROTHONOTARY WITHIN THIRTY DAYS AFTER THE ELECTION WHETHER THEY INTEND TO ACCEPT THE OFFICE TO WHICH THEY HAVE BEEN ELECTED. NO COMMISSIONS WILL BE ISSUED TO ANY ONE UNTIL THIS REQUIREMENT IS COMPLIED WITH.

WE presume it will not prove difficult to announce to our readers in this county, that the Commissioners have passed a resolution to levy but six mills county tax for 1862. Last year they were compelled to levy a tax of eight mills to meet the extraordinary expenses incurred by the three murder trials that were then to be disposed of. The citizens of our county owe a debt of gratitude to the Commissioners, and the late Associate Judges. Instead of having our rate of taxation doubled, the past and present year, as is the case in most of our sister counties, they have been reduced one-fourth.

WE know, from personal knowledge that the Judges and Commissioners were besought time and again to levy a relief tax of four or five mills, but they sternly refused to listen to what then seemed to be a public necessity, and no tax was assessed, while the families of our soldiers are about as well cared for as they are in our neighboring counties, where the Relief Board has spent its thousands of dollars.

The "artificial excitement" in reference to the new Court House is therefore nearly over, and "nobody hurt." Those "able" and "practical financiers" who prophesied that the Commissioners would have to assess ten mills for the next ten years, in order to pay the Court House debt and keep up the current county expenses, can quiet their nerves by examining the late county settlement, which shows that if the outstanding taxes are collected, that the Court House debt will be nearly wiped out.

MOVEMENT ON THE POTOMAC; but there are unmistakable indications of a simultaneous movement upon Manassas, Winchester and Norfolk, and in all probability, as we now stick these types, the mighty hosts are engaged in the deadly struggle. Gen. Curtin has sent forward every soldier fit for duty, and secured the privilege of converting all the churches of Harrisburg into hospitals.

MARRIED—On the 18th of February last, in Washington, D. C., by Rev. Dr. Butler, Lieut. Lorenzo Lomax of the U. S. Army, to Mrs. Fanny, daughter of Wm. J. McDonald, M. D., Principal Clerk of the United States Senate.

DIED—On Thursday, the 29th ult., Amy, daughter of William and Hannah Price, of Pike township, aged 16 years.

And can it be, sweet girl, that thou art down, So soon, to an eternity unknown?

So soon to quit this earthly sphere,

And snap the silken chords that bound thee here?

So soon in death so bid a long adieu,

To all that loved so well and loved so true?

So soon, in youthful bloom and maiden pride—

Say, can it be, sweet AMY, thou hast died?

Oh no, sweet girl, thou art no dead;

To a happier sphere thy spirit did;

Tan fair for earth or sinful skies,

The angels claim thee for the skies,

What though they've lain thee in the tomb,

And worms thy mortal frame consume?

And all then wait to dust return,

And moulder in thy silent urn?

As onward to its goal it flies!

Angels await with sweet embrace,

To usher in a child of grace;

Where living waters ever run,

Where God's the Cento and the Sun;

Once child of grace, now glory's heir,

Farewell awhile; we'll meet thee there;

Farewell! Your heavenly anthems raise,

And sing to God's eternal praise!

"Tis hard indeed the ties to sever,

That bound us here so close together;

But fare thee well, with Christ remain;

We would not call thee back again;

Farewell! With heavenly choir remain!

Our loss is thy eternal gain!

Farewell! Again a short adieu!

We'll strive to meet and be with you.

C. P.
