

Bar Accident.—On the 25th ultimo John Klob of Goshen township, while attempting to climb a tree with a gun in his hand for the purpose of watching a deer, the gun went off, the whole charge, an ounce ball, five buckshot and a piece of ramrod, entering his hip passing up about 15 inches and lodged in his left side just below the ribs.

Dr. Potter was immediately summoned and succeeded in taking out the contents above mentioned, besides a large wound. The wound is a very severe one but it is thought Mr. Klob will survive it.

Rail Road Meeting.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the "Western Central Rail-road co., held today, it was resolved to commence the survey of the road between Philipsburg & Clearfield immediately and we learn that the Engineers will be at work on Monday next. The company have determined to prosecute the work without delay. A portion of it will be put under contract as soon as the Survey is completed. This is good news for Clearfield.

Exciting News.—During attempt to recapture Fort Flunker—The Goshen brigade led the attack—The Union troops compelled to retire.

A gallant though an unsuccessful attempt to recover this important "possession" was made on the night of the 19th ult, by the Goshen Brigade under command of Gen. E. R. Goodlied. Adjutant Barger, led the advance of this gallant brigade by the light of a two-penny dip, encased in a lantern. It was confidently expected that the garrison would be taken by surprise and their valuable stores captured; but as history informs us that the cackling of a goose saved Rome, so the grunting of a gentleman hog saved Fort Flunker. Marshal T. Graham failed to bring forward his forces, and remained idling his time in Camp Colburn. Much blame was attached to him, for had he come promptly to the relief of the Union force, blood (or lager) would have flowed freely, and the glorious old flag, of Lager beer and pretzels again wave in triumph over Fort Flunker. Gen. Goodlied was wounded in the left hind heel by a derrick while making time down the hill.

THE NEWS.

The news from Richmond are to the effect that two divisions of the rebel army attacked about 6000 Union troops, on the 26th near Fair Oaks, in which our loss is said to be 80 killed and 200 wounded. The Union troops were under the command of Gen. Hooker. Gen. McClellan was however on the ground after the engagement commenced, and with Gen. Hentzelman gave orders in person.

The fatal result of the engagement near Charleston is undoubtedly attributable to the great attention paid to negroes and negro schools, with which the commander Gen. Hunter is consuming most of his time.

The negro hobby is still on exhibition in Congress, that body having done but little pertaining to the general good. The tax bill has at length become a law, we will publish a synopsis of the bill in our next.

The greatest victory yet attained is that of "old Abe" over Fremont, and General Abolition.

Below we give the latest we have received up to Monday night.

ALTOONA, June 29, '62.

Dear Sir: We can get no news from Richmond. The Department refuses to answer questions. The latest we have is from White House, Thursday afternoon (26th.) Then it was reported there that Jackson had got in the rear of McClellan's right wing and cut it off. The hospitals, &c., at White House, were being laid with straw preparatory to being burned—the sick and wounded having been hastily removed to the boats. The Reserve Corps was in the right wing. Col. Black is known to be among the killed, and his Lieut. Col. wounded.

The most fearful apprehensions prevail. I will keep this open till morning and send you the latest.

TYRON, June 30.

Jolly has a dispatch this morning from Altoona, saying, "We have just received information that Richmond is ours." No particulars are given.

Last Night's Mail

By last night's mail we learn that Gen. McClellan had changed his base of operations from the White House on the Chickahominy to the James river side of the Peninsula.

Fighting had been kept up all through Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday on the right wing, commanded by Gen. Porter, who finally withdrew, under orders, when the White House, Railroad and telegraph, fell into the hands of the enemy, and communications cut off.

The position of McClellan is now said to be much stronger, and that Richmond must fall. But few particulars are given. Company K. (Bucktail regiment) Capt. Irvin of this county, was captured while on picket duty. The report says that Capt. Irvin was wounded and taken prisoner, but made his escape. Lieutenants Welch and Hartsborn are both reported wounded and prisoners.

The following dispatch contains the very latest:

PHILADELPHIA, July 1 1862.

To D. W. Moore.—The news of yesterday was received. The morning papers do not claim that Richmond has been taken. I see no Clearfield names among the killed and wounded except Captain Irvin's company. It was on picket duty when taken.

WM. BIGLER.

BOOTS AND SHOES!!
By the Bard of "Graham's Row."

There is a Store in Market Street, Where all the men and ladies meet, To help their "a-zies" and save their feet Right close to "Graham's Store;" (You've surely been in there before.) Lives snug up to eons in leather, And open in all sorts of weather; He "sells" new Boots with "wax" and "end," And while he "sells," will "c" or "d" defend, And cherish all who come demanding, That he should help their understanding.

He makes all kinds of boots and shoes, And none need barefoot go, While snug and his leather Are making such a show. And Jack and Dan are always here, And ready at a call To neatly take your measure And show you through the hall. Then come along and bring your dust, The Ready Rhino down, And we'll warrant you as good as fit As you can get in town.

NEXT TO A MIRACLE!
Astonishing.

A BOON never dreamed of by MAN, nor whispered by ANGELS. Discovered accidentally. Every owner of a horse must own it. Something which cures Founder in horses in so short a time and so radically as to only be surpassed by a miracle. It thoroughly eradicates the effects from the system in from 12 to 24 hours, so that your horse, so stiff to-day that you cannot get him out of the stable, by to-morrow is ready to take his place in the team. The host Farmers never dreamed of it, and it astonishes everybody. It is a compound of man's invention, but is given simply as Nature produces it—in his drink, and only once. No dressing. The remedy is silent in its action, and cannot produce any injurious effects. Costs nothing. Exists everywhere—and will cure to the end of time. There is no patent humping puff, nor catch-penny business about this, but the simple truth honestly stated. Buy upon that. Each one sending me One Dollar, with their name and address, I will promptly inform, in a sealed envelope, what the remedy is. Twice amount of money returned in case of failure—(which is impossible.)
