Bloomville, Aug. 6, 1862—pd.

CAMP MEETINGS.—We are requested to state that a Camp Meeting of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held near Mount Joy, in Lawrence township, commencing on the 29th of August, (inst.) All friends of religion, morality and good order, are respectfully invited to attend, as all such will find a Christian welcome.

☞The Pamphlet Laws for 1862, have been received at the Prothonotary's Office, where all persons entitled to receive them can call and get them.

Pennsylvania Soldiers.

For the information of the friends of disabled soldiers at Washington, we are requested to insert the following:

"Washington Pennsylvania Soldiers' Relief Association."

This Association, having opened an office at No. 5 Washington Buildings, corner of 7th street and Pennsylvania avenue, where will be found a register of all Pennsylvania soldiers in or around this city in hospitals, invite the friends of the same to call, assuring them that all possible aid will be extended in finding their sons.

MR. CHAS. L. WELLS, the Register, will be found in the office.

The Corresponding Secretary, Mr. S. TODD PERLEY, will answer all letters in regard to sick and wounded Pennsylvania soldiers, whether in or around this city, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, or New Haven. Address, care Box 84½, Washington, D. C.

J. K. MOREHEAD, Pres't.
J. M. SULLIVAN, Sec'y.

AN INTOLERABLE NUISANCE.—It has been the practice of a number of boys, including not a few young gentlemen, from 16 to 20 years of age, to bathe on the west side of the river below the bridge, and frequently on Sunday, to the great annoyance and disgust of all passers by, before whom they perpetrate the most disgusting scenes, to the disgrace of their parents and themselves.

We have heard frequent complaints in reference to this matter, and on Friday last we paid a little attention to what transpired, and can name the boys too. That day being very warm, seems to have been specially dedicated by them to blasphemy and blackguardism, which was distinctly heard all along front street below the bridge.

If the parents, or the borough authorities, refuse to notice these bacchanalian, and model artiste performance, we will be compelled to have a number of the gentlemen arrested for blasphemy, if for nothing else.

FIRES.—Several fires—one barn & three dwelling houses—have taken place within the last week, in different parts of the county.

The first was the barn of Jas. S. Conway of Karthaus township, together with his crop of hay, a wagon, &c. It was a well costructed log barn.

The second was the dwelling house of Mr. Ths. Waple, in Boggs township, which was consumed with all its contents—leaving nothing but what the members of the family had on their backs at the time.

The third was that of the dwelling house of B. Spackman, Esq., of this place, in Lawrence township. It was occupied by Daniel Welsh.

The fire was discovered about noon on Sunday last, and is supposed to have originated from a spark falling upon the roof. Nearly all the furniture was saved, together with most of the doors and window sash. Loss not less than $800.

ANOTHER.—The house of Calvin Baily, of Pike township, was also destroyed by fire one day last week. We have heard no particulars.

THE PRIMARY ELECTIONS.—The Democratic Primary elections held on last Saturday, were well attended throughout the county—considering that the day was one of the most suitable for out-door work of the whole week, and that farmers were all busily engaged in securing their crops.

In some districts the contest was somewhat animated for Prothonatory and Assembly; but generally there was no struggle, and Democrats only sought to act in such manner as to secure united action in October—throwing asside all personal and local preferences, and supporting those candidates, who in their opinion, when combined, will constitute the most formidable ticket, and at the same time secure good officers.

The County Convention—or Convention of Return Judges—met yesterday (Tuesday) at 3 P. M. As we strike off part of our edition on Tuesday, we can only give the probable result, which is

For Senate—Wm. A. Wallace.
For Assembly—Jas. H. Larrimer.
For Prothonotary—D. F. Etzweiler.
For Register &c.,—I. G. Barger.
For Commissioner—T. Daugherty.
For Auditor—H. Woodward.
For Surveyor—H. B. Wright.

THE PRESIDENT AND CABINET.—A Washington letter says:

The President and family are at the old Soldiers' Home. Secretary Stanton has taken up his residence on Georgetown Heights, while secretary Smith has gone to Bedford Springs for his health. Secretaries Seward, Chase, Bates and Blair reside still in town, and work more hours than the most industrious clerks.

☞We are informed by the Principal, Mr. Sandford, that the Academy will be re-opened for the reception of pupils on Monday the 18th inst. This institution is now in a flourishing condition.

HOT WEATHER.—Sunday and Monday last were set down as the hottest days of the season. Many an anxious thought was sent forth for the sufferings endured by our brave soldiers.

THE CROP.—The grain crops have been pretty much secured in this region, and in good condition. The hay is light, but has been well secured. The corn looks exceedingly well; but the late oats is said to be very much damaged with the rust. Fruit—apples, peaches and plums—will be very abundant.

DIED—On the 22nd ult., GEORGE, infant, Son of Samuel and Jane Brown.

Happy infant—early blest—
Rest in peaceful slumber, rest—
Early rescued from the curse
Which increase with growing years.

No delight is worth thy stay,
Smiling as they seem, and gay:
Short and sickly are they all,
Hardly tasted e'er they fall.

Then sleep on, dear GEORGIE,
And take thy rest;
God called the home—
He loved the best.

OF THE
Great Rebellion;

The Heroism of our Soldiers and Sailors.
ILLUSTRATED.

1 vol., large 12mo. Price, $1.25.

The critics and the public are right in predicting that this will surpass in graphic narrative, exciting interest, and extensive popularity, all other histories of the War for the Union. Its theme will be the heroic daring, patient suffering, and hair-breadth escapes of our soldiers and sailors, and its incidents will form the theme of conversation at innumerable firesides for years to come. It will contain, in addition to its stirring details, the philosophical Analysis of the Causes of the War, by JOHN LOTHROP MOTLEY, LL. D., Author of "The Rise of the Dutch Republic," etc.; the dates of all the important events from the John Brown raid, and an accurate and revised account of the principal battles, with engravings.

One-third of the proceeds of all subscriptions sent direct to us will be given for the Relief of Disabled Soldiers, and all persons who wish a copy of the work, and also to benefit the soldiers, should send their name and address at once. Also, any officer or private, or person in any section of the country, having knowledge of a heroic act or stirring incident, will oblige us by sending us an account of it.

Booksellers, Postmasters, and Canvassing Agents will be furnished with a Subscription Prospectus, on application to the Publishers.

SHAVING AND HAIR-DRESSING.

Not by the Board of Graham's Row.

The question has often been asked
Why PLEASANTS can shave so clean?
That customers who shave with him,
A benefit must reap, I ween.

He shaves for a "V'ry," and if you are willing,
Will take off your hair in a trice for a "SHILLING."
So come along, ye jolly boys so slick,
For Pleasants is the man to do it cheap and quick.

The reason may readily be seen
Why his custom is so large:
His towels all are clean—his razors all are keen,
And you'll always find him Pleasant in a charge.

Just go to Pleasant's and you'll be
Like Sheba's Queen of old
Pleased and delighted, and exclaim
The half has not been told.

THIS INSTITUTION, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our country.

THE OBJECT of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

THE BRANCHES TAUGHT are Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade—Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, Mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

THE SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION is peculiar: no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

CATALOGUES are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

IN EXTENSIVE ACCOMMODATIONS, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities not to be met with elsewhere in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain across same time Catalogues, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞The CRITTENDEN'S Series of Text-Books on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

BOOTS AND SHOES!!

By the Board of "Graham's Row"

There is a Store in Market Street,
Where all the men and ladies meet,
To help their "soles" and save their fee
Right close to "Graham's Store:"
You've surely been in there before,
Have "Soles" up to calf leather,
And open in all sorts of weather;
He "sole-ed" all Boots with "way" and "cud,
And while he "heels" will ne'er defend
And cherish all who come depending,
That he should help their "heeling."

He makes all kinds of boots and shoes,
And those need barefoot go,
While Stumph and his leather
Are making such a show.
And Boots and Bees are always busy,
And ready at a call
To neatly take your measure
And show you through the hall.
Then come along and bring your dust,
The Bees will "Boot" down,
And we'll warrant you as good a fit
As you can get in town.

E. STUMPH.
