

THE NEWS.

The extension of the Peninsula, by Gen. McClellan's army, is perhaps the most important military movement we have to record this week. Why this movement has been made, is not stated in any destination, is left entirely to conjecture. A correspondent of the N. Y. Times, under date of August 13, says, "If the move is for Washington, to protect that city, and have the forces in supporting distance of each other there is a general feeling of acquiescence in its propriety. It is, the officers believe, the best and only thing that can be done." It was the impression of this writer that the effort to retire from Harrison's Landing without apprising the enemy of the fact, had failed, and he closes his letter by remarking, "the more interesting part of the history of the next few hours or days, will be the movement of the rear column."

But up to this writing, we have not heard that any attack was made by the rebels. Reports that the rebel army, comprising from 3000 to 7000 Union troops, it is also reported that Baton Rouge, the capital of Louisiana, has been recaptured, and that the combined forces of Breckinridge and Van Dorn were advancing towards New Orleans.

The first of these rumors is positively denied, and the latter is not credited. We give Gen. Pope's official report of the battle of Cedar Mountain, as also the accounts of the same battle by the Richmond papers.

LATER.—The Harrisburg and Pittsburg papers of Monday morning furnish nothing of stirring interest. Nothing at all respecting the movements of the army of the Potomac is announced. It is nevertheless the belief that a movement is taking place.

Another battle, at an early day, between the forces of Pope and Stonewall Jackson, is looked for.

A collision, occurred on the Potomac river on the night of the 13th instant, between the steamers Peabody (of Baltimore) and the West Point, loaded with sick soldiers bound to Washington. The latter vessel sunk in ten minutes, carrying with her 73 souls.

The intelligence from Fort Royal informs us that Gen. Hunter's darling project of a negro brigade has proven an unmitigated failure—and symbols to be instructed in the fine arts, that is, in making baskets, tubs, &c.—employment which were congenial to him than playing soldier.

Last Night's Mail

Brought us advices from New Orleans to the 10th. The rebels under Breckinridge attacked Baton Rouge on the 4th, and were repulsed. Gen. Lovell (rebel) is reported among the killed (Gen. Williams of the Union forces was killed. The Union loss is stated at about 200 killed and wounded. The rebel ram Arkansas was blown up. The rebel account of this affair is quite different in many particulars—claiming an advantage over the federal forces.

The new from Tennessee is quite discouraging. The rebels were reported to be within six or eight miles of Nashville in strong force, and an attack upon the city was momentarily expected. The dispatches were up to Sunday last. Railroad communication with Nashville is in danger of being cut off.

A reported engagement took place at Clarendon, Ark., on the 11th inst., in which resulted in the defeat of the rebels and the taking of 700 prisoners.

The evacuation of Harrison's Landing by Gen. McClellan is fully confirmed.

The rebels are reported as being heavily reinforced on the Rappahannock, in front of Pope's forces.

One hundred and fifty exchanged federal officers arrived at Harrison's Landing on the 12th inst., from Richmond. Among them we notice the names of Capt. E. R. Brady, of the 11th Reserves; Capt. E. A. Irvin, Adjutant Harrison, and Lieuts. Dale and Welch, of the First. We presume they all rejoined their regiments, and are now with McClellan.

IMPORTANT TO SOLDIERS AND THEIR FRIENDS.—R. J. Wallace, Esq., having become associated with a reliable and responsible agency in Washington city, D. C., is prepared to prosecute all claims of soldiers for back pay, bounty money, pensions, &c., and obtain the same without delay.

Application to him either personally or by mail will be duly attended to.

Subscribers to the N. Y. Weekly Times, who paid their subscriptions in advance, are informed that "Mr. Revue," who received the money, is a swindler, and that the proprietors have no agents.

The new company of volunteers forming at Clearfield, advanced their officers on Saturday last, as follows: Captain—John Irvin. First Lieut.—John M. Chase. Second Lieut.—Wm. Holden. The company mustered 80 men, then, and was last filling up.

The new company raising in this place numbers about 80 men also. They elected their officers yesterday, as follows: Captain—Z. C. McCullough. First Lieut.—Amos Roy. Second do.—William Mays.

MEETING OF STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—The proceedings of the last meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee will be found in another column. The public will observe that the 17th of September next is recommended to be generally commemorated as the anniversary of the adoption of our National Constitution, which is now in imminent danger of being overthrown by Abolition and Secession traitors.

The address will be published next week.

The Senatorial Conference of the 11th district, met at Tyrone on Thursday last, and after organizing, and having an interchange of opinion, an 11th ballot for a candidate, adjourned to meet at Altoona on the 25th instant.

Organization of the Democratic State Central Committee.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 29, 1862. At a meeting of the State Central Committee held at the Merchant's Hotel, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, July 29th, 1862, a permanent organization was effected by the Hon. Francis W. Hughes, of Schuylkill county, Chairman of said Committee, calling the Committee to order.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Committee adopt such means as he may be able to command to effect an organization of the Democratic party in the several counties of this State, through the several county committees, by the organization of a central club for each county in the county town or chief town in such county, and co-operative clubs for each county in the several school districts of said county, which shall communicate with the club, and such club shall communicate with the committee, and through which this committee shall afford such assistance in the propagation of the principles of our party as it shall have the power to do.

Resolved, That the Chairman call upon the local organ of Pennsylvania, through the Democratic Standing Committees of the several counties, to meet in the several cities and towns of the State, at such places as shall be designated, by the said Standing Committees respectively, on the 17th of September next, to celebrate that day as the anniversary of the day of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

On motion of Mr. Joseph Lippincott, of Philadelphia, the following address, emanating from the Chairman, was unanimously approved, and ordered to be published in the Democratic papers of the State, and in pamphlet form.

On motion, it was Resolved, That the next meeting of the State Central Committee, be held at Harrisburg, at the call of its President.

On motion adjourned. GEORGE R. KEIR, Secretary. ROBERT CHANE, Secretary.
