The Clearfield Republican

WEDNESDAY SEPT 10 1862

Pennsylvania.—The draft in Pennsylvania Maryland and Indiana is progressing quietly and full lists are in Maine. The draft did not [illegible] in Massachusetts. It was supposed it would [illegible] the enrollments in time for the draft originally intended.

☞Why is it that Col. Fiscus declines to send us his Constitutional Vote? It is in much demand in this quarter, and having given the proper notice of his intention, we claim an exchange.

Leg Broken.—John McLaughlin, Sr., of Lawrence township, had his leg badly fractured one day last week, whilst working with a young and fractious horse, in the stable. It is supposed that the horse first threw, or knocked him down, and then trampled upon his leg below the knee, breaking it so bad that one of the bones protruded through the flesh. He was promptly attended by Drs. Wilson and Hartswick.

Appointments.—We hear it rumored—though the announcement has not been officially made, so far as we have seen—that Ellis Irwin, Esq., has been appointed Commissioner, and Dr. Hartswick, Surgeon, preparatory to the draft in this county. We could vote for both of them, under all the circumstances.

We also notice that Daniel Dimgnston is announced as Assessor for the 19th Congressional District—which we presume means our respected fellow citizen Daniel Livingston of Curwensville.

Horse Fair.—This is the week of the great National Horse Fair at Williamsport. It is designed to be one of the grandest displays of the kind ever held in the country, and sorry are we that we cannot avail ourselves of the complimentary ticket so kindly furnished by the managers.

THE NEWS

All eyes are now turned to the vicinity of Washington. We give the news in another column up to the latest date. No further particulars of the battle on Friday last have yet reached us. But very few names of the killed and wounded are announced. The only one we recognize is that of Capt. John Hastings, (of Punxsutawney) wounded badly in leg. He belonged to the 105th Regt.

Much excitement prevailed in Washington all day Saturday. One thousand clerks were detailed from the different Departments to repair to the scene of the battle to help take care of the wounded and Gen. Wadsworth, the Military Governor, had impressed all the hacks, coaches, omnibuses, &c., of the city, to assist therein. Further advices from the contending hosts, who lay facing each other all day Sunday last, on the thrice consecrated ground of Bull Run, is looked for with the most anxiety.

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin of Saturday last stated that the Deputy Marshals had been resisted in two of the districts in Schuylkill county, and that the U. S. Marshal for the Eastern District had called upon the Governor for a regiment of volunteers to execute the enrollment. But we see nothing further on the subject by Mondays papers.

Last Night's Mail

Contains nothing definite from in front of Washington; yet the news had a decidedly cheering effect, as every body seemed to have anticipated something unfavorable. The dates are to Sunday evening—but the accounts are very conflicting. It is certain, we think, that the Union forces are in good condition, well situated, and amply prepared to repel any advance by the rebels; but that they have the rebels surrounded upon all sides, their supplies and retreat cut off, &c., we fear is too good to be true. There seems to have been considerable fighting on Sunday. No account of Monday's operations is given. No statement as to the losses on Saturday or Sunday is given.

We are informed by one of our citizens, who returned from the east last night, that Capt. A. M. Smith and Lieut. David McGaughy, both of this place, were taken prisoners.

The Harrisburg Patriot & Union of yesterday morning contains a despatch that the New York Tribune has been stopped for stating that Gen. McClellan was a coward, &c. This needs confirmation.

Trouble Among the Quakers.—There is a rebellion among the English Quakers.—The youthful fair of the sect have banded together in opposition to the poke bonnet and scant skirt. Crinoline of moderate periphery now surrounds their frames, and flowers and ribbons are invading the precincts of the drab. The elders, thro' their organ, The British Friend, urge remonstrances. The young men among them are also exciting consternation by joining rifle corps.—Boston Journal.

Not Much Difference.—Senator Hammond, of South Carolina, called the laboring men of the North "Mudsills." Wendell Phillips, of Massachusetts calls the rail splitter of Illinois, now President Lincoln, a "Mud turtle." What horrid fellows!

Philipsburg, Pa., Sept. 4, 1862.—6t.

☞We observe that Isaac Gregory Gordon, Esq., has been appointed by the U. S. Marshal to superintend the enrollment in Jefferson county. Considerable dissatisfaction exists in several townships from the fact that Mr. Gordon seized upon the appointment the moment he was commissioned the appointment, and has therefore appointed a large portion of those officers from the borough of Brockville, who are entire strangers to there among whom they are sent.
