

Wednesday Morning Nov. 12th, 1862. RECENT STATE ELECTIONS.

Great Democratic Victories

The elections held on the 4th inst. resulted largely in favor of the Democrats.

New York elects Seymour Governor by about 15,000 majority together with the whole Democratic State ticket.

New Jersey is all over Democratic—electing Parker, (dem.) Governor, four out of the five members of Congress, and two-thirds of the State Legislature.

In Delaware, the Democrats lost Governor, but have elected their member of Congress and two-thirds of the Legislature.

Illinois is carried by the Democrats by from 15,000 to 20,000, who gain four or five members of Congress, and a large majority in the State Legislature.

Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Missouri also show large Democratic gains.

From the result of these elections the New York Herald figures up a majority of 18 in favor of the Democrats in the next Congress.

SCOTT AND BUCHANAN.—A large portion of our paper is occupied this week with the "statement" of Gen. Scott, and the reply thereto by Ex-President Buchanan.

Mr. JOHN VAN BUREN in a speech before a Democratic meeting in New York, and which he has since stated, he obtained from Gen. Scott himself—brought out the "statement" from the General.

"Our neighbor over the way, having published the one paper referred to, should, in justice to Mr. Buchanan, publish the other.

THE NEWS

Aside from the reported removal of Gen. McClellan from the command of the army of the Potomac—which we copy from the Pittsburgh Post of Monday morning, there is nothing of stirring interest from the scene of war.

KILLED BY THE INDIANS.—James G. Bailey, formerly a resident of this place, but for some years past residing in Kansas, was killed by the Indians on the 15th of August last.

AN ORDER was issued by the War Department, a few days ago, directing that the old Regiment be filled up out of the drafted men, and officers were dispatched to Harrisburg to select their men.

DECEASED was a native of Centre Co. and the widow left to mourn the loss is the eldest daughter of Robert Wallace, sen., Esq., of this place.

REMOVAL OF GENERAL McCLELLAN

The Troops Taken by Surprise—Gen. Burnside in Command.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, FALLS CHURCH, VA., Nov. 8th 1862.—noon.

VIA GAITHERSBURG.—The order relieving General McClellan from command of the army of the Potomac was received at Headquarters at eleven o'clock last night. It was unexpected and to all a surprise.

The order was delivered to him by Gen. Buckingham in person. The last official act of the commander of the army of the Potomac was the issuing of an address to the troops of a few words informing them that the command devolved on Gen. Burnside, and taking leave of them.

THE CONSCRIPTS

CAMP CURTIS, Harrisburg, Nov. 4th 1862.

Dear Republican.—Enclosed you will find the roll of the company composed of drafted men of the counties of Clearfield and Elk, with the officers as far as elected.

1st Lieut.—J. H. Hewitt, 2nd Lieut.—Andrew Zentz, 1st Sergeant.—W. W. Wilber.

- Beau, Leroy; Bedo, Frank; Brockway, Chauncey; Byers, Wm.; Beck, John; Brown, Isaac; Beck, Nicholas; Blank, Alois; Dunlap, W. W.; Dury, James; Dury, Levi R.; Darsey, John; Jolynin J. W.; Eggleston, Hiram; Fulton, Alexander; Felt, Orange; Fraire, Jerome; Fields, Jacob; Graham, N. S.; Hicks, Lewis; Hauser, Baltzer; Horack, Clement; Haffner, Jacob; Hancy, Bernard; Hoekenbery, Marius; Haut, John; Holmes Wm. F.; Henderson, Peter; King Adam J.; Keller John C.; Korb Henry W.; Kenny, James; Klyler Hays; Kline, Benjamin; Klyer Elias; Lyon, Wendal; Lloyd Joseph; Moore Wm.; Moore Wm.; Martin Wm.

DEATH OF GEN. MITCHELL

The city was startled last evening by the news of the death of Gen. O. M. Mitchell, commander of the Union forces in South Carolina. He expired at Beaufort, on the 20th ult., of yellow fever.

Major General Mitchell was a native of Kentucky. He received his military education at West Point, and was one of the oldest graduates of that institution in our army.

DEATH OF GEN. RICHARDSON

Death has made sad havoc among our Generals. Our columns this morning chronicle the fall of two of our bravest chieftains—Mitchell and Richardson.

Richardson was wounded in the battle of Antietam, died at Harper's Ferry yesterday. He was a native of Fairfax, Vermont.

BUIGER'S PORTRAIT.—The Harrisburg Telegraph previous to the election, proposed that William Bigler's portrait should be taken down from the capitol at Harrisburg and that William Bigler's person should be hung up in its stead.

AN ORDER was issued by the War Department, a few days ago, directing that the old Regiment be filled up out of the drafted men, and officers were dispatched to Harrisburg to select their men.

LETTER FROM THE ARMY

CAMP CURTIS, HARRISBURG, D. C., October 25, 1862.

Dear Mother—I have received your letter and was glad to know that I still lived in the heart of a mother. In the loneliness and care-worn solitude, nothing touches my sensibilities so much as word from his thoughts for ever turn—of trouble in mind made on the mind of the only impressions made on the mind of a child are never forgotten, and with me they are strengthened by the love you still have for me in my childhood.

I am now sitting in my tent and the rain is pouring down, and the wind blows bleak and forbidding. We are nearly swamped in mud and water, the tent floor is nearly afloat, and I feel more comfortable here writing to you than I will when I retire to sleep.

The ten coffins were removed from the wagons and placed in a row, six or eight feet apart. Thirty soldiers of the 2d M. S. M. were drawn up in single line facing the row of coffins. The doomed men knelt upon the grass between the coffins and the soldiers, while the Rev. R. M. Rhodes offered up prayer.

My mother, I think of thee, while serving Uncle Sam. In defence of our country, our freedom and our home.

But cruel fate has changed the times—those happy days are gone—Your children all but one have left the joyful scenes of home—And to the bloody field of strife have gone to our nation, and our hearts are torn with pain.

THE OFFICER in command now stepped forward and gave the word of command: "Ready—aim—fire." The discharge, however, were not made simultaneously—probably through want of previous understanding of the orders, and of the time of which to fire.

THE LIFELESS remains were then placed in the coffin, the lids upon which the names of each man were written were screwed on, and the direrful procession returned to town by the same route that it pursued in going.

DEATH OF GEN. MITCHELL.—The city was startled last evening by the news of the death of Gen. O. M. Mitchell, commander of the Union forces in South Carolina.

DEATH OF GEN. RICHARDSON.—Death has made sad havoc among our Generals. Our columns this morning chronicle the fall of two of our bravest chieftains—Mitchell and Richardson.

BUIGER'S PORTRAIT.—The Harrisburg Telegraph previous to the election, proposed that William Bigler's portrait should be taken down from the capitol at Harrisburg and that William Bigler's person should be hung up in its stead.

AN ORDER was issued by the War Department, a few days ago, directing that the old Regiment be filled up out of the drafted men, and officers were dispatched to Harrisburg to select their men.

DECEASED was a native of Centre Co. and the widow left to mourn the loss is the eldest daughter of Robert Wallace, sen., Esq., of this place.

LETTER FROM THE ARMY

CAMP CURTIS, HARRISBURG, D. C., October 25, 1862.

Dear Mother—I have received your letter and was glad to know that I still lived in the heart of a mother. In the loneliness and care-worn solitude, nothing touches my sensibilities so much as word from his thoughts for ever turn—of trouble in mind made on the mind of the only impressions made on the mind of a child are never forgotten, and with me they are strengthened by the love you still have for me in my childhood.

I am now sitting in my tent and the rain is pouring down, and the wind blows bleak and forbidding. We are nearly swamped in mud and water, the tent floor is nearly afloat, and I feel more comfortable here writing to you than I will when I retire to sleep.

The ten coffins were removed from the wagons and placed in a row, six or eight feet apart. Thirty soldiers of the 2d M. S. M. were drawn up in single line facing the row of coffins. The doomed men knelt upon the grass between the coffins and the soldiers, while the Rev. R. M. Rhodes offered up prayer.

My mother, I think of thee, while serving Uncle Sam. In defence of our country, our freedom and our home.

But cruel fate has changed the times—those happy days are gone—Your children all but one have left the joyful scenes of home—And to the bloody field of strife have gone to our nation, and our hearts are torn with pain.

THE OFFICER in command now stepped forward and gave the word of command: "Ready—aim—fire." The discharge, however, were not made simultaneously—probably through want of previous understanding of the orders, and of the time of which to fire.

THE LIFELESS remains were then placed in the coffin, the lids upon which the names of each man were written were screwed on, and the direrful procession returned to town by the same route that it pursued in going.

DEATH OF GEN. MITCHELL.—The city was startled last evening by the news of the death of Gen. O. M. Mitchell, commander of the Union forces in South Carolina.

DEATH OF GEN. RICHARDSON.—Death has made sad havoc among our Generals. Our columns this morning chronicle the fall of two of our bravest chieftains—Mitchell and Richardson.

BUIGER'S PORTRAIT.—The Harrisburg Telegraph previous to the election, proposed that William Bigler's portrait should be taken down from the capitol at Harrisburg and that William Bigler's person should be hung up in its stead.

AN ORDER was issued by the War Department, a few days ago, directing that the old Regiment be filled up out of the drafted men, and officers were dispatched to Harrisburg to select their men.

DECEASED was a native of Centre Co. and the widow left to mourn the loss is the eldest daughter of Robert Wallace, sen., Esq., of this place.

RICHARD MOSSOP,

DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC GOODS.

Clearfield, Pa.

MUSLINS at Sensation prices; BELAINES at Sensation prices; COURBRES at Sensation prices; ALTAICAS at Sensation prices.

GINGHAMS at Sensation prices; PRINTS at Sensation prices; CHAMBRAYS at Sensation prices; SHAWLS at Sensation prices; BONNETS at Sensation prices; MUSLINS at Sensation prices.

LACE at Sensation prices; HOSIERY at Sensation prices; RIBBONS at Sensation prices; FRIMMINGOS at Sensation prices; Always on hand at MOSSOP'S.

CASSIMERES at Sensation prices; SATINETTES at Sensation prices; TWEEDES at Sensation prices; JEANS at Sensation prices; VESTINGS at Sensation prices; SHIRTINGS at Sensation prices.

CLOTHING such as Coats, Vests, Under Shirts, Flannel Shirts, Boots, Shoes, Hats and Caps. Now for sale at MOSSOP'S.

HARDWARE such as Saws, Axes, Forks, Knives, Spikes, Hinges, at Sensation prices.

LIQUORS, such as Wine, Brandy, G. in. W. H. C. Cognac, etc., etc. at Sensation prices.

GROCERIES, such as Flour, Raisins, Shoulders, Sugar, Molasses, Coffee, Tea, Crackers, Spices, Candles, Coal Oil, etc., etc. Always on hand at MOSSOP'S.

BLACKING at Sensation prices; ROPE at Sensation prices; POWDER at Sensation prices; SHOT at Sensation prices; LEAD at Sensation prices; CAPS at Sensation prices.

THE BOARD OF RELIEF for the county of Clearfield, will meet at the Commissioners' office on Tuesday next, Wednesday the 15th and 16th days of November, A. D. 1862.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, on Tuesday (yesterday) morning, 11th inst. by the Rev. T. H. P. Johnson, Mr. Thomas L. WALLACE, to Miss ANNE M. WALLACE, both of Harrisburg, Pa.

DIED.—On Tuesday, October 25th, of dysentery, Mary Ellen, aged 3 years.—On Sunday, October 26th, of same disease, Ashley Hill, aged 10 years.—On Monday, October 27th, of same disease, Daniel B., aged 6 years.—On Wednesday, October 29th, of same disease, Tabitha, aged about 6 months.—all children of Beulah and Mary Ann Beck of Herald township.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. STRAY HEIFER.—Came to the premises of the subscriber, in Lawrence township, about the 16th October last, a Red Heifer, supposed to be about two years old.

RICHARD MOSSOP,

DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC GOODS.

Clearfield, Pa.

1. The Final Administration account of Theodore Weld, Executor of the last will and testament of John Weld, late of Berwick township, Clearfield county, deceased.

2. The Final account of I. C. McCloskey, Administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of Nathaniel McCloskey, late of Pike township, Clearfield county, deceased.

3. The Final account of Jesse Hutton and Mary L. Kelley, Administrators of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of James M. Kelley, late of Berwick township, Clearfield county, deceased.

4. The Final account of James M. Kelley, Administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of James M. Kelley, late of Berwick township, Clearfield county, deceased.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of a writ of Habeas Corpus, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county, and so directed, there will be exposed to sale, by public auction, at the Court House in the Borough of Bellefonte, Pa.

MORNING, the 24th day of November, 1862, the following described property to wit: All the interest of the said defendant, Jos. J. Single, being the undivided fourth part of all that certain tract or portion of land situate in the township of Bush, in the county of Centre, and the township of Beaver in the county of Clearfield, containing seventeen hundred and five acres and all appurtenances, being held in common with A. G. Curtis, D. L. Pruner and Jas. M. Bailey, all of which said premises are described by a plat and bound in a mortgage given by the said Jos. J. Single to Wm. H. Blair, dated Sept. 20th, 1857, and recorded in the office for the recording of Deeds, in Centre county, in Mortgage Book E, page 24, &c.—the interest aforesaid being confined to the premises aforesaid, and the improvements and appurtenances, and the same are in possession and to be sold to the property of Jos. A. Single. GEO. ALEXANDER, Sheriff, November 5, 1862.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE FINANCE of the Borough of Clearfield for year ending October 1, 1862.

Table with columns: RECEIPTS, EXPENDITURES, ASSETS, LIABILITIES. Total Receipts $303 77, Total Expenditures $303 77.

Office of JAY COOKE, SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, AT JAY COOKE & CO., Bankers, 114 SOUTH THIRD STREET, Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1862.

THE undersigned, having been appointed Subscriptions Agent by the Secretary of the Treasury, is now prepared to furnish, at once, the New Twenty Year 6 per cent Bonds of the United States, designated as "Five-Twenty's," redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, after six years, and authorized by Act of Congress, approved February 23, 1862.

Jas. McMurray Matt Irwin Dealers in DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, FUMBER, &c., BURNSIDE, Clearfield county, Pa. Oct. 21

CAUTION.—The public are hereby cautioned, and all who have any money to invest, should know and remember that these Bonds are, in effect, a FIRST MORTGAGE upon all Railroads, Canals, Bank Stocks and Securities, and the immense product of all the Manufactures, &c. &c., in the country; and that the full and ample provision made for the payment of the interest and liquidation of the principal, by Customs Duties, Excise Stamps and Internal Revenue, serves to make these Bonds the Best, Most Available and Most Popular Investment in the Market.

Goods! Goods! W. M. F. IRVIN has just received a splendid assortment of SEASONABLE GOODS at his old stand on Market street, where he is ready to wait upon his old customers—and as many new ones—as want to get the very best of goods. Nov. 12, 1862.