

WEDNESDAY MORNING DEC. 17th 1862.

The metropolitan designs of the Administration imply a length in the fact that through the influence of their...

The general sentiment of the Administration is to be maintained in the Democratic...

The Administration has issued his proclamation designating the members elected to the next Congress...

The new bridge over Clearfield creek, two miles east of this place, will be in a condition for travel in a few days...

A New State—Congress has passed the bill for the admission of the new State of Western Virginia into the Union...

On the 2nd instant, an election was held in Fairfield county to elect a member to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late member...

A VICTIM OF TYRANNY.—Capt. John Elwood, who was arrested by order of Secretary Stanton some time ago, and confined in one of the military prisons at Washington...

This is the second death that has taken place in the military prisons of the country. How long will these things continue in this "land of the free and the home of the brave?"

The Abolition papers—not less than the Democratic papers—are complaining bitterly at the late ruinous rise in the price of printing and all other kinds of paper...

Not Content.—A man named J. West by Green, of Pittsburg, Pa., makes affidavit on a long statement detailing the particulars of a trip to Richmond...

The members of Congress are again engaged upon their old subject—the Negro, plundering the Treasury, &c., and each one striving to outdo the other in his enormity of taxing the people...

Gen. Patton and Col. Biddle each have got thanks for valuable Congressional documents.

THE WAR NEWS.

Bombardment of Fredericksburg. OCCUPATION OF THE CITY BY GEN. BURNSIDE'S FORCES.

Between four and five o'clock this morning the pontoon train, in charge of the Seventeenth and Eighty-Ninth New York Engineers...

A shell had obscured the movement that for a time it was not discovered by the rebel pickets. The pontooners had succeeded in partially crossing the bridges when the rebels suddenly opened a very hot and deadly fire...

John Hickman has introduced a bill into Congress providing for the organizing of negro regiments, fixing their pay. We think Congress had better first pay the white soldiers what they owe them...

Gen. Curtis has issued his proclamation designating the members elected to the next Congress. The Governor seems to have paid no respect to the voters' vote...

The new bridge over Clearfield creek, two miles east of this place, will be in a condition for travel in a few days. The contractors—Messrs. Daugherty and Logan—deserve much credit for their perseverance...

A New State—Congress has passed the bill for the admission of the new State of Western Virginia into the Union. It now only needs the signature of the President to become a law...

On the 2nd instant, an election was held in Fairfield county to elect a member to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late member. Dr. Olds was the candidate of the Democracy...

This, we think, is an admonition that should make his persecutors "believe in their boots."

A VICTIM OF TYRANNY.—Capt. John Elwood, who was arrested by order of Secretary Stanton some time ago, and confined in one of the military prisons at Washington, committed suicide a few days since.

Capt. Elwood was arrested for "treason" and malfeasance in office. Soon after his confinement he exhibited symptoms of insanity, and in a very short time he became a maniac, and suicide closed the drama.

A strong effort had been made by his friends for his release but it was of no avail. This is the second death that has taken place in the military prisons of the country.

The Abolition papers—not less than the Democratic papers—are complaining bitterly at the late ruinous rise in the price of printing and all other kinds of paper...

Not Content.—A man named J. West by Green, of Pittsburg, Pa., makes affidavit on a long statement detailing the particulars of a trip to Richmond...

The members of Congress are again engaged upon their old subject—the Negro, plundering the Treasury, &c., and each one striving to outdo the other in his enormity of taxing the people...

Gen. Patton and Col. Biddle each have got thanks for valuable Congressional documents.

THE WAR NEWS.

Bombardment of Fredericksburg. OCCUPATION OF THE CITY BY GEN. BURNSIDE'S FORCES.

Between four and five o'clock this morning the pontoon train, in charge of the Seventeenth and Eighty-Ninth New York Engineers...

A shell had obscured the movement that for a time it was not discovered by the rebel pickets. The pontooners had succeeded in partially crossing the bridges when the rebels suddenly opened a very hot and deadly fire...

John Hickman has introduced a bill into Congress providing for the organizing of negro regiments, fixing their pay. We think Congress had better first pay the white soldiers what they owe them...

Gen. Curtis has issued his proclamation designating the members elected to the next Congress. The Governor seems to have paid no respect to the voters' vote...

The new bridge over Clearfield creek, two miles east of this place, will be in a condition for travel in a few days. The contractors—Messrs. Daugherty and Logan—deserve much credit for their perseverance...

A New State—Congress has passed the bill for the admission of the new State of Western Virginia into the Union. It now only needs the signature of the President to become a law...

On the 2nd instant, an election was held in Fairfield county to elect a member to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late member. Dr. Olds was the candidate of the Democracy...

This, we think, is an admonition that should make his persecutors "believe in their boots."

A VICTIM OF TYRANNY.—Capt. John Elwood, who was arrested by order of Secretary Stanton some time ago, and confined in one of the military prisons at Washington, committed suicide a few days since.

Capt. Elwood was arrested for "treason" and malfeasance in office. Soon after his confinement he exhibited symptoms of insanity, and in a very short time he became a maniac, and suicide closed the drama.

A strong effort had been made by his friends for his release but it was of no avail. This is the second death that has taken place in the military prisons of the country.

The Abolition papers—not less than the Democratic papers—are complaining bitterly at the late ruinous rise in the price of printing and all other kinds of paper...

Not Content.—A man named J. West by Green, of Pittsburg, Pa., makes affidavit on a long statement detailing the particulars of a trip to Richmond...

The members of Congress are again engaged upon their old subject—the Negro, plundering the Treasury, &c., and each one striving to outdo the other in his enormity of taxing the people...

Gen. Patton and Col. Biddle each have got thanks for valuable Congressional documents.

THE WAR NEWS.

Bombardment of Fredericksburg. OCCUPATION OF THE CITY BY GEN. BURNSIDE'S FORCES.

Between four and five o'clock this morning the pontoon train, in charge of the Seventeenth and Eighty-Ninth New York Engineers...

A shell had obscured the movement that for a time it was not discovered by the rebel pickets. The pontooners had succeeded in partially crossing the bridges when the rebels suddenly opened a very hot and deadly fire...

John Hickman has introduced a bill into Congress providing for the organizing of negro regiments, fixing their pay. We think Congress had better first pay the white soldiers what they owe them...

Gen. Curtis has issued his proclamation designating the members elected to the next Congress. The Governor seems to have paid no respect to the voters' vote...

The new bridge over Clearfield creek, two miles east of this place, will be in a condition for travel in a few days. The contractors—Messrs. Daugherty and Logan—deserve much credit for their perseverance...

A New State—Congress has passed the bill for the admission of the new State of Western Virginia into the Union. It now only needs the signature of the President to become a law...

On the 2nd instant, an election was held in Fairfield county to elect a member to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late member. Dr. Olds was the candidate of the Democracy...

This, we think, is an admonition that should make his persecutors "believe in their boots."

A VICTIM OF TYRANNY.—Capt. John Elwood, who was arrested by order of Secretary Stanton some time ago, and confined in one of the military prisons at Washington, committed suicide a few days since.

Capt. Elwood was arrested for "treason" and malfeasance in office. Soon after his confinement he exhibited symptoms of insanity, and in a very short time he became a maniac, and suicide closed the drama.

A strong effort had been made by his friends for his release but it was of no avail. This is the second death that has taken place in the military prisons of the country.

The Abolition papers—not less than the Democratic papers—are complaining bitterly at the late ruinous rise in the price of printing and all other kinds of paper...

Not Content.—A man named J. West by Green, of Pittsburg, Pa., makes affidavit on a long statement detailing the particulars of a trip to Richmond...

The members of Congress are again engaged upon their old subject—the Negro, plundering the Treasury, &c., and each one striving to outdo the other in his enormity of taxing the people...

Gen. Patton and Col. Biddle each have got thanks for valuable Congressional documents.

THE WAR NEWS.

Bombardment of Fredericksburg. OCCUPATION OF THE CITY BY GEN. BURNSIDE'S FORCES.

Between four and five o'clock this morning the pontoon train, in charge of the Seventeenth and Eighty-Ninth New York Engineers...

A shell had obscured the movement that for a time it was not discovered by the rebel pickets. The pontooners had succeeded in partially crossing the bridges when the rebels suddenly opened a very hot and deadly fire...

John Hickman has introduced a bill into Congress providing for the organizing of negro regiments, fixing their pay. We think Congress had better first pay the white soldiers what they owe them...

Gen. Curtis has issued his proclamation designating the members elected to the next Congress. The Governor seems to have paid no respect to the voters' vote...

The new bridge over Clearfield creek, two miles east of this place, will be in a condition for travel in a few days. The contractors—Messrs. Daugherty and Logan—deserve much credit for their perseverance...

A New State—Congress has passed the bill for the admission of the new State of Western Virginia into the Union. It now only needs the signature of the President to become a law...

On the 2nd instant, an election was held in Fairfield county to elect a member to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late member. Dr. Olds was the candidate of the Democracy...

This, we think, is an admonition that should make his persecutors "believe in their boots."

A VICTIM OF TYRANNY.—Capt. John Elwood, who was arrested by order of Secretary Stanton some time ago, and confined in one of the military prisons at Washington, committed suicide a few days since.

Capt. Elwood was arrested for "treason" and malfeasance in office. Soon after his confinement he exhibited symptoms of insanity, and in a very short time he became a maniac, and suicide closed the drama.

A strong effort had been made by his friends for his release but it was of no avail. This is the second death that has taken place in the military prisons of the country.

The Abolition papers—not less than the Democratic papers—are complaining bitterly at the late ruinous rise in the price of printing and all other kinds of paper...

Not Content.—A man named J. West by Green, of Pittsburg, Pa., makes affidavit on a long statement detailing the particulars of a trip to Richmond...

The members of Congress are again engaged upon their old subject—the Negro, plundering the Treasury, &c., and each one striving to outdo the other in his enormity of taxing the people...

Gen. Patton and Col. Biddle each have got thanks for valuable Congressional documents.

J. P. KRATZER,

Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods. Has just received a general assortment of...

WINTER GOODS.

- Lawns, Cloths, Ribbons, Satinets, Flowers, Shawls, Cambrics, Hosiery, Cashmeres, Head-Nets, Cottonades, Dress-trimmings, Drillings, Laces, Jeans, Collars, Mittens, Under-shirts, Flannels, Mar. Gillis, Linens, Dusters, Tickings, Shawls, Laces, Rags, Bonnets, Cloaks, etc.

CLOTHING.

- Coats, Pants, Over-Coats, Gaiters, Shawls, Shirts, Caps, Leather-Shoes and Boots, Hosiery, Socks, Gaiters, Buffalo Robes, etc.

Musical Goods.

- COFFEES, BACON, MACKEREL, TEA, FLOUR, SHAD, SUGAR, SALT, SALMON, RICE, CANDLES, COD FISH, MOLASSES, WINES, HERBING, etc.

RICHARD MOSSOP,

- DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC GOODS. Clearfield, Pa. MEN'S, AL, Sensation, prices; DELAINES, at Sensation, prices; CLOTHS, at Sensation, prices; etc.

JAMES TEST,

DEALER IN Provisions, Groceries, &c. PHILIPSBURG, CENTRE COUNTY.

- Flour, Melasses, Corn Meal, Vinegar, Rye Chop, Coal Oil, Buckwheat Flour, Alcohol, Beans, Turpentine, Potatoes, Tar, Apples, Fish Oil, Butter, Sugar, Cheese, Coffee, Bacon, Tea, Tallow, Crackers, Lard, Yellow, Mackerel, Segars, White Fish, Salt, Cod Fish, Dried Apples, Shad, Dried Peaches, etc.

Shot at! but Missed!!

A GREAT MISTAKE!!

Read! Read! Read! Best Callow from 15 to 19 cents per yard. Best Mullin from 15 to 20 cents per yard. Best Delaines from 20 to 25 cents per yard.

Read! Read! Read!

Best Callow from 15 to 19 cents per yard. Best Mullin from 15 to 20 cents per yard. Best Delaines from 20 to 25 cents per yard. CLOTHING AT REDUCED PRICES.

JOSEPH R. MURRAY,

DEALER IN LUMBER AND DEALER IN LUMBER. New Washington, Clearfield County, Pa.

STRAY STEER.—A brandy Steer 2 1/2 years in Lawrence township, about the 17th November last. The owner is requested to send forward proof property pay charge and take him away or he will be disposed of according to law. Dec. 10, 1862. AMOS LAW.