Bible Society.

The Week of Prayer.

The fourth annual "Week of Prayer" for the conversion of the world to Christ is at hand.

This is not a sectarian movement. It originated with the missionaries in India, and embraces an object dear to the heart of every child of God.

The present condition of the world and the church calls hourly for earnest, united and persevering prayer; and it is believed that the observance of this "week" will be widely extended, and that many prayers will ascend to the throne of grace from christians of all nations and every name.

In accordance with the desires of a number of persons, the citizens of Clearfield, and of the vicinity, are respectfully and earnestly invited to spend the evening of each day in the coming week in united prayer and conference.

The first meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church on next Sabbath evening, services to commence soon after the second bell.

Why should the "Week of Prayer" be observed? is proposed as the subject for consideration that evening.

Relief Notice.

Two witnesses of credibility, from the township in which she resides, must also be produced, whose certificate, sworn to before the Board, must set forth that the applicant is the person she represents herself to be; that the statement of the number and age of her family is true; that she is in destitute circumstances, and her family in actual want, and that all the facts set forth in her application are just and true.

STALE, FLAT AND UNPROFITABLE.—The constant repetition by the Abolition press and leaders, that Abraham Lincoln "IS HONEST." We advise those who have "old Abe's" virtues in charge, to get them daguerreotyped for fear that his honesty may become tarnished by the daily exposures of the most outrageous frauds by those whom he retains in power.

☞We observe that quite a number of newspapers throughout the country have been compelled to suspend publication on account of the rise in the price of paper. Among them the McKean Miner, "the official paper" of that county. We cannot see how our McKean neighbors will be able to get along in the future, without an official paper in that county.

EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, on the 22d day of September in the year of our Lord, 1862, a proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing, among other things, the following, to wit:

That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1863, all persons held as slaves within any State, or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be thenceforward and forever free, and the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any effort they may make for their actual freedom; that the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States, if any, in which the people thereon respectively shall then be in rebellion against the United States, and the fact that any State and the people thereof shall, on that day, be in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States; by members chosen thereto at elections, wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such State and the people thereof are not then in rebellion against the United States.

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me invested, as Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy of the United States, in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and government of the United States, and as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing the said rebellion, do, on this, the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in accordance with my purpose so to do, publicly proclaim, for the full period of one hundred days from the day above mentioned, order and designate as the States and parts of States wherein the people thereof respectively are this day in rebellion against the United States the following, to wit: Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, except the parishes of Saint Bernard, Plaquemines, Jefferson, Saint James, Ascension, Assumption, Terrebone, Lafourche, Saint Martin and New Orleans, including the city of New Orleans, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia, except forty-eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Anne and Norfolk, including the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth, and which excepted parts are for the present left precisely as if the proclamation were not issued.

And I by virtue of the power, and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within the said designated States and parts of said States are, and hereforward shall be, free, and that the executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons; and I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defence, and I recommended that in all cases, when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages.

And I further declare and make known, that such persons of suitable condition will be received into the armed service of the United States, to garrison forts, positions, stations and other places, and to man vessels of all sorts in the said service.

And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind, and the gracious favor of Almighty God.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this first day of January, in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-seventh.

HARPER'S PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION IN THE UNITED STATES

MESSRS. HARPER & BROTHERS have commenced the issue in Numbers of a complete History of the Great Rebellion in the United States. The work has been for many months in course of preparation, by a writer every way qualified for the task.

THE INTRODUCTION contains a clear and succinct account of the formation of the Confederacy of the States; the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, and the establishment of the National Government; the origin, development and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed until their final culmination in the Great Rebellion.

THE HISTORY comprises a full account, drawn from the most authentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of each section; the great Uprising of the People for the maintenance of National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy and the battles by land and sea.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS comprise Portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of the different localities; Plans of the leading actions; Views of every scene of interest, and of the most important Battles. These Illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot by artists deputed for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

Every facility at the command of the publishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confidently believe that it will form the most trustworthy and valuable history which can be prepared of the Great Struggle for the American Union.

Mode and Terms of Publication.

The work will be issued in Numbers, each consisting of Twenty-four Pages of the size of "Harper's Weekly," printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in about Twenty Numbers.

The numbers will be issued at intervals, if possible, of about three or four weeks.

The Price of each Number, which contains matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be Twenty-five Cents.

The Illustrations in each Number are alone worth the price asked. Men out of employment, especially can find no other work so sure of ready sale and good profits.

SICK OR DISABLED SOLDIERS,

THE CONSTITUTIONAL UNION.

NEW PROSPECTUS.

The Largest and Cheapest Weekly in the State.

INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS.

A New and Powerfully Written Political Story.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

THE overwhelming evidence of the determination of the people to rescue the Government from the desperate and reckless purposes of Abolitionism, that have so nearly wrecked our once glorious Union and destroyed all Constitutional guarantees, indicate an immediate future full of events of the most momentous interest. Centralization, Terrorism, and Robbery, will not submit to disfranchisement without a struggle. The contest, therefore, has but just begun; and for the year to come, the action of Congresses, Cabinets, and Legislatures, will be regarded with scarcely less interest than the movements of opposing armies in the field. The object of the war will be made again what it was before Abolition fanaticism perverted it—simply to crush the rebellion and restore the Federal authority. There will also at the same time be in progress the Great Battle of the People with the minions of Despotism, and in this battle the Press, no longer shackled, no longer threatened with Abolition mob and frowning bastiles, will take a ready and conspicuous part.

It is one of the best results of the recent elections that their positive rebuke of the gross and manifest abuse of power by the Administration, has given the people the privilege of fighting free encounters—privileges that will not again be tamely yielded. These changed circumstances will bring the acts of even the Highest in the Government to the tribunal of public opinion, and the Press will again become the medium of the free thoughts of the people, and the fearless advocate of Constitutional Government and Constitutional Liberty.

The Proprietors of the CONSTITUTIONAL UNION, in issuing their new prospectus, see before them a field of enlarged usefulness, and it is their purpose to spare no effort to make their paper of unequal acceptability as a medium of intelligence, and a record of events that must absorb public thought. It will contain full summaries of the proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature, full accounts of the movements of the army, foreign and domestic news, literary intelligence, commercial and agricultural news, &c., &c.

In consequence of the enormous advance in the price of paper, amounting in three months to nearly fifty per cent. the Proprietors have found it necessary to advance the price of the paper to Clubs to $1.50 per annum; but even at this price, we afford more reading for the same money than any other paper printed in the State. The advance will go into effect at once.

Among other attractions in contemplation, we shall commence, in the first number in January, a new and powerfully written Political Story, founded on the events immediately preceding the Rebellion.

We solicit the aid of our Democratic friends in the interior in raising and forwarding Clubs.
