

CLEARFIELD, PA.

Wednesday Morning Jan. 14th 1862.

Gov. CURTIN'S MESSAGE.—This document occupies a large portion of our paper this week. It presents a highly flattering condition of the financial affairs of the State...

The Governor has but little—very little—to say about national affairs; dismissing the whole subject in two or three brief sentences at the close, pretty much in the style of a postscript to a love-letter...

Mr. Gen. S. P. BASKS.—The appointment of this Gentleman, to succeed Gen. Butler at New Orleans, is putting the right man in the right place.

Another Soldier Dead.—Woodward Ross, son of Robert Ross, Esq. of Pike township, member of company K, 1st Rhode, (Capt. Irvin's company) who was wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg...

U. S. SENATORS ELECTED.—The notorious "blood letting" Chandler was re-elected to the U. S. Senate by the legislature of Michigan, on the 6th inst.

Our kind and humane President, wants his freed "niggers" to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defense; and that "they labor faithfully for reasonable wages."

Why does he thus insinuate that his black friends are vicious and lazy? We incline to think that those "people" will not thank Father Abraham—their redeemer—for thus unkindly reproaching them...

Gov. SEYMOUR'S MESSAGE.—We purpose devoting a large portion of our next week's paper to that part of the late annual message of the Governor of New York which relates to national affairs.

THE undersigned is desirous of selling his FARM, situate in Penn township, Clearfield County, Pa., one mile from Pennville, on the road leading to Penntownship, containing 100 acres and allowance, sixty acres of said land are cleared and in a high state of cultivation...

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters day of Administration having been granted this day to the undersigned on the estate of POORAN SMITH, late of Pike township, deceased, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same will present them duly substantiated for settlement.

THE NEWS

All is quiet on the line of the Rappahannock. From the army of the Cumberland we have nothing important since the battle of Murfreesborough. The confederates retreated to Tullahoma, some thirty miles south, taking everything with them. The battle of the 31st December was one of the fiercest of the war, in which the right wing of the Union army was completely routed, losing 28 guns, and a large number of prisoners. The previous and subsequent days' fighting was more favorable to our side; but a victory is claimed and celebrated by both parties. Our total loss is variously stated at from 7,000 to 15,000.

Our latest accounts from Vicksburg are to the last inst., and represent that Gen. Sherman had been driven to his gunboats, to await reinforcements. The advice from Vicksburg are by no means satisfactory.

The Confederates are again invading Missouri, and are believed to have captured Springfield. General Brown, the Union commander, was severely wounded in the shoulder. Springfield contained a very large amount of army stores, arms and ammunition. The latest dispatch is from St. Louis, on the evening of the 9th, stating that communication with Springfield was still broken—that a party that had been sent out from Lebanon to repair the line had not been heard from, and apprehensions were felt that they had been captured—and the opinion strongly prevailed that Springfield had been taken. The Confederates were under Gen. Mansfield.

The Commander at Beaufort, S. C., has issued an order setting forth the duties of the contrabands. The agent agrees to pay each negro twenty-five cents per day, for such work as plowing, hoeing, digging, &c., and two and a half cents per pound for picking Cotton. The practical part of all this is, that the labor is paid out of the U. S. Treasury, and the product flows into the pockets of the government agents, and the Treasury being located at such a great distance from the scene of operation, that very little will ever find its way there.

Gold is now selling at a premium of 30 cents on the dollar in New York, with a fair prospect that it will reach 50 or 60 cents, as soon as the new issue of Treasury notes, takes place. The plain English of all this is, that our government is paying for the purchase of the cotton of the South, and the product flows into the pockets of the government agents, and the Treasury being located at such a great distance from the scene of operation, that very little will ever find its way there.

ANOTHER SOLDIER DEAD.—Woodward Ross, son of Robert Ross, Esq. of Pike township, member of company K, 1st Rhode, (Capt. Irvin's company) who was wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg, died in the hospital, and his corpse reached home on Monday evening last. We are informed that Ross was wounded in the knee by the premature discharge of a gun in the hands of a comrade during the action, that amputation became necessary, and he then died to death. He was a young man of much promise, and an only son.

U. S. SENATORS ELECTED.—The notorious "blood letting" Chandler was re-elected to the U. S. Senate by the legislature of Michigan, on the 6th inst.

Our kind and humane President, wants his freed "niggers" to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defense; and that "they labor faithfully for reasonable wages."

Why does he thus insinuate that his black friends are vicious and lazy? We incline to think that those "people" will not thank Father Abraham—their redeemer—for thus unkindly reproaching them...

THE GREAT REBELLION

MORSE, HAWES & COMPANY have prepared and published "THE GREAT REBELLION" in two volumes. The first volume contains the history of the rebellion from its commencement to the formation of the Confederacy. The second volume contains the history of the rebellion from the formation of the Confederacy to the present time. The work is published by MORSE, HAWES & COMPANY, 111 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia. Price $2.00 per volume.

Mode and Terms of Publication. The work will be issued in Numbers, each consisting of Twenty-four Pages of the size of "Harper's Weekly," printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in about Twenty Numbers.

The numbers will be issued at intervals, if possible, of about three or four weeks. The Price of each Number, which contains matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be Twenty-five Cents.

The Illustrations in each Number are alone worth the price asked. Men out of employment, especially SICK OR DISABLED SOLDIERS, can find no other work so sure of ready sale and good profits.

For further particulars apply to the Publishers, HARPER & BROTHERS, Franklin Square, New York. D-e-17, 1862—5t

THE CONSTITUTIONAL UNION. NEW PROSPECTUS. The Largest and Cheapest Weekly in the State. INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS. A New and Powerfully Written Political Story.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE. THE overwhelming evidence of the determination of the people to remain the Government from the desperate and reckless purposes of Abolitionists, that have so nearly wrecked our once glorious Union and destroyed all Constitutional guarantees, indicates an immediate failure of all events of the most momentous interest. Centralization, Terrorism, mob robbery, will not submit to destruction without a struggle. The contest, therefore, has but just begun; and for the year to come, the action of Congress, Cabinet, and Legislatures, will be regarded with scarcely less interest than the movements of opposing armies in the field. The object of the war will be made again what it was before Abolition fanaticism prevailed—simply to crush the rebellion and restore the Federal authority. There will also at the same time be in progress the great Battle of the People with the millions of Dejected, and in this battle the Press, no longer shackled no longer threatened with arbitrary arrest and freezing battles, will take a ready and conspicuous part.

It is one of the best results of the recent election that their positive release of the press and manifest abuse of power by the Administration, has given the people the privilege of light and free discussion—privileges that will not again be so easily yielded. These changed circumstances will bring the acts of every Administration, and the Press will again become the medium of the free thoughts of the people, and the fearless advocates of Constitutional Government and Constitutional Liberty.

The Proprietors of the Constitutional Union, in issuing their new prospectus, see before them a field of enlarged usefulness, and it is their purpose to spare no effort to make their paper of unequal acceptability as a medium of intelligence, and a record of events that must absorb public thought. It will contain full accounts of the proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures, full accounts of the movements of the army, foreign and domestic news, literary intelligence, commercial and agricultural news, &c., &c. In consequence of the extraordinary advance in the price of paper, amounting in three months to nearly fifty per cent, the Proprietors have found it necessary to advance the price of the paper to Clubs to $1.50 per annum; but even at this price, we afford more reading for the same money than any other paper printed in the State. The advance will go into effect at once.

Among other attractions in contemplation, we shall commence, in the first number in January, a new and powerfully written Political Story, founded on the events immediately preceding the Rebellion.

We solicit the aid of our Democratic friends in the interior in raising and forwarding Clubs.

TERMS: Single copies, one year, $1 50 Two copies, (to one address,) 2 50 Ten copies, 17 50 Twenty copies, 30 00 All subscriptions to be paid necessarily in advance. Address THOS. B. FLORENCE & CO., Publishers of Constitutional Union, No. 120 South THIRD Street, Philadelphia. Dec. 3, '62—5t
