A Horrible Spectacle.

Incidents and Scenes in Prison-Preparations for Death -- The Death-Song and Execution-Auful Spectacle on the Gallows-Burial and other Incidents.

MANEATO, Wis., Dec. 29. . . . . Thursday last, the day preceding the execution, each Indian under sentence of death was permitted to converse with two or three of his relatives or friends, confined in the same prison. These interviews were very sad and affect ting. All the condemned sent messages "o their families and friends who were absent, and in speaking of their wives and children, almost every one of them was -dopt christianity and millivate a love for the whites. Some of the culprits spake confidently of a lope of salvation, but the majority were indifferent to the majority were indifferent to their future welfare. One of them, Ta-dismi-ma, was sending word to his relatives not to mourn his loss .-He said he was old, and could not hope to live longer under any circumstances, and his execution would not shorten his days a great deal, and dying as he did, innocent of any white man's blood, he hoped would give him a better chance to be saved; therefore he hoped his friends would consider his death but a removal from this to a better world. We go first, but many of our friends may follow us in a very short time. I expect to go directly to the abode of the Great Spirit, and to be happy when I get there; but we are told that the road is long and the distance great -Therefore, as I am slow in my movements, it will probably take me a long time to reach the end of the journey, and I should not be surprised if some of the and four indepth, being had on the bor-
