HARPER'S PICTORIAL HISTORY
OF
THE GREAT REBELLION IN THE UNITED STATES

MESSRS HARPER & BROTHERS have commenced the issue in Numbers of a complete History of the Great Rebellion in the United States. The work has been for many months in course of preparation, by a writer every way qualified for the task.

The INSURRECTION contains a clear and succinct account of the formation of the Confederacy of the States; the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, and the establishment of the National Government; the origin, development and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed until their final culmination in the Great Rebellion.

The HISTORY comprises a full account, drawn from the most authentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of one section; the great Uprising of the People for the maintenance of National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy and the Battles by land and sea.

The ILLUSTRATIONS comprise Portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of the different localities; Plans of the leading actions; Views of every scene of interest, and of the most important Battles. These Illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot by artists deputed for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

Every facility at the command of the publishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confidently believe that it will form the most trustworthy and valuable history which can be prepared of the Great Struggle for the American Union.

Mode and Terms of Publication.

The work will be issued in Numbers, each consisting of Twenty-four Pages of the size of "Harper's Weekly," printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in about Twenty Numbers.

The numbers will be issued at intervals, if possible, of about three or four weeks.

The Price of each Number, which contains matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be Twenty-five Cents.

The Illustrations in each Number are alone worth the price asked. Men out of employment, especially can find no other work so sure of ready sale and good profits.

SICK OR DISABLED SOLDIERS,

THE CONSTITUTIONAL UNION.

NEW PROSPECTUS.

The Largest and Cheapest Weekly in the State.

INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS.

A New and Powerfully Written Political Story.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

THE overwhelming evidence of the determination of the people to rescue the Government from the desperate and reckless purposes of Abolitionism, that have so nearly wrecked our once glorious Union and destroyed all Constitutional guarantees, indicate an immediate future full of events of the most momentous interest. Centralization, Terrorism, and Robbery, will not submit to dethronement without a struggle. The contest, therefore, has but just begun; and for the year to come, the nation of Congresses, Cabinets, and Legislatures, will be regarded with scarcely less interest than the movements of opposing armies in the field. The object of the war will be made again what it was before Abolition fanaticism perverted it—simply to crush the rebellion and restore the Federal authority. There will also at the same time be in progress the Great Battle of the People with the minions of Despotism, and in this battle the Press, no longer shackled, no longer threatened with Abolition mobs and frowning bastiles, will take a ready and conspicuous part.

It is one of the best results of the recent elections that their positive rebuke of the gross and manifest abuse of power by the Administration, has given the people the privilege of light and free discussion—privileges that will not again be tamely yielded. These changed circumstances will bring the acts of even the highest in the Government to the tribunal of public opinion, and the Press will again become the medium of the free thoughts of the people, and the fearless advocate of Constitutional Government and Constitutional Liberty.

The Proprietors of the CONSTITUTIONAL UNION, in issuing their new prospectus, see before them a field of enlarged usefulness, and it is their purpose to spare no effort to make their paper of universal acceptability as a medium of intelligence, and a record of events that must absorb public thought. It will contain full summaries of the proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature, full accounts of the movements of the army, foreign and domestic news, literary intelligence, commercial and agricultural news, &c., &c.

In consequence of the enormous advance in the price of paper, amounting in three months to nearly fifty per cent. the Proprietors have found it necessary to advance the price of the paper to Clubs to $1.50 per annum; but even at this price, we afford more reading for the same money than any other paper printed in the State. The advance will go into effect at once.

Among other attractions in contemplation, we shall commence, in the first number in January, a new and powerfully written Political Story, founded on the events immediately preceding the Rebellion.

We solicit the aid of our Democratic friends in the interior in raising and forwarding Clubs.

THIS INSTITUTION, which was established in 1841, and is now conspicuous in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our country.

THE OBJECT of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

THE BRANCHES TAUGHT ARE Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade;—PENMANSHIP, both plain and ornamental; COMMERCIAL LAW, MATHEMATICS, NAVIGATION, CIVIL ENGINEERING, DRAWING, PHONOGRAPHY, and MODERN LANGUAGES.

THE SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

CATALOGUES are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

IN EXTENSIVE ACCOMMODATIONS, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on BOOK-KEEPING, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

SHAVING AND HAIR-DRESSING,

Not by the Barber's Graham's Row.

The question has often been asked
Why PLEASANTS can shave so clean?
That customers who shave with him
A benefit must reap, I ween.

He shaves for a "fip," and if you are willing,
Will trim off your hair in a trice for a "SHILLING."
So come along, ye jolly boys so sleek,
For Pleasants is the man to do it cheap and quick

The reason may readily be seen
Why his custom is so large:
His towels all are clean—his razors all are keen
And you'll always find him Pleasant in—a charge

Just go to Pleasant's and you'll be Like Sheba's Queen of old
Pleased and delighted, and exclaim

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach, Inward Piles, Costiveness, Dysentery, Colic, Worms, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Ulcers, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Gout, Neuralgia, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Fever and Ague, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and village in the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it universally known. Nay, few are the persons in any civilized country, in this or other lands, without some personal experience of its effects, or that of some friend or neighbor, among whom it has not performed some wonderful cure. The history of the affliction of the human race scarcely presents a more effectual antidote for the fatal diseases of the climate, and the consequent variety of the constitutions and habits of the population, than is afforded in the CHERRY PECTORAL. Adapted to every age and temperament, it operates by the same general laws upon the system, and wherever there is disease in the human body, it will overcome it, if anything can. While it is the most powerful remedy that is known to man for the formidable diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the protection it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable. Throughout the land there is no human calamium so terrible as consumption, and no remedy so certain to cure that, fastened on the system, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know so the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwell more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no skill to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best aid which our skill can furnish for their cure.
