INDICEMENTS TO CLUBS.
A New and Powerfully Written Political Story.
NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.
THE overwhelming evidence of the determination of the people to rescind the Government from the desperate and reckless purposes of Abolitionism, that have so nearly wrecked our once glorious Union and destroyed all Constitutional guarantees, indicate an immediate future full of events of the most momentous interest. Centralization, Terrorism, and Robbery, will not submit to dejection without a struggle. The contest, therefore, has but just begun; and for the year to come, the action of Congress, Cabinet, and Legislatures, will be regarded with anxious interest by the movements of opposing armies in the field. The object of the war will be made again what it was before Abolition fanaticism perverted it—simply to crush the rebellion and restore the Federal authority. There will also at the same time be in progress the Great Battle of the People with the millions of Dispossessed, and in this battle the Press, no longer shackled by the acts of even the highest in the Government to the tribunal of public opinion, and the Press will again become the medium of the free thoughts of the people, and the fearless advocate of Constitutional Government and Constitutional Liberty.
The Proprietors of the CONSTITUTIONAL UNION, in issuing their new prospectus, see before them a field of enlarged usefulness, and it is their purpose to spare no effort to make their paper of unequal acceptability as a medium of intelligence, and a record of events that must absorb public thought. It will contain full summaries of the proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures, full accounts of the movements of the army, foreign and domestic news, literary intelligence, commercial and agricultural news, &c., &c.
In consequence of the enormous advance in the price of paper, amounting in three months to nearly fifty per cent, the Proprietors have found it necessary to advance the price of the paper to Clubs to $1.50 per annum; but even at this price, we afford more reading for the same money than any other paper printed in the State. The advance will go into effect at once.
Among other attractions in contemplation, we shall commence, in the first number in January, a new and powerfully written Political Story, founded on the events immediately preceding the Rebellion.
We solicit the aid of our Democratic friends in the interior in raising forwarding Clubs.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL UNION.
NEW PROSPECTUS.
The Largest and Cheapest Weekly in the State.
INDICEMENTS TO CLUBS.
A New and Powerfully Written Political Story.
NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.
THE overwhelming evidence of the determination of the people to rescind the Government from the desperate and reckless purposes of Abolitionism, that have so nearly wrecked our once glorious Union and destroyed all Constitutional guarantees, indicate an immediate future full of events of the most momentous interest. Centralization, Terrorism, and Robbery, will not submit to dejection without a struggle. The contest, therefore, has but just begun; and for the year to come, the action of Congress, Cabinet, and Legislatures, will be regarded with anxious interest by the movements of opposing armies in the field. The object of the war will be made again what it was before Abolition fanaticism perverted it—simply to crush the rebellion and restore the Federal authority. There will also at the same time be in progress the Great Battle of the People with the millions of Dispossessed, and in this battle the Press, no longer shackled by the acts of even the highest in the Government to the tribunal of public opinion, and the Press will again become the medium of the free thoughts of the people, and the fearless advocate of Constitutional Government and Constitutional Liberty.
The Proprietors of the CONSTITUTIONAL UNION, in issuing their new prospectus, see before them a field of enlarged usefulness, and it is their purpose to spare no effort to make their paper of unequal acceptability as a medium of intelligence, and a record of events that must absorb public thought. It will contain full summaries of the proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures, full accounts of the movements of the army, foreign and domestic news, literary intelligence, commercial and agricultural news, &c., &c.
In consequence of the enormous advance in the price of paper, amounting in three months to nearly fifty per cent, the Proprietors have found it necessary to advance the price of the paper to Clubs to $1.50 per annum; but even at this price, we afford more reading for the same money than any other paper printed in the State. The advance will go into effect at once.
Among other attractions in contemplation, we shall commence, in the first number in January, a new and powerfully written Political Story, founded on the events immediately preceding the Rebellion.
We solicit the aid of our Democratic friends in the interior in raising forwarding Clubs.

W. M. GRAY, Esq., Dear Sir—Two months ago my head was almost entirely bald, and the little hair I had was all gray and falling out very fast until I feared I should lose all. I commenced using your Hair Restorative, and it immediately stopped the hair falling out, and soon restored the color, and after using two bottles my head is completely covered with a healthy growth of hair, and of the same color it was in early manhood. I take great pleasure in recommending your excellent Hair Restorative, and you may also refer to a doubting person to me.
