The Best Work for Canvassing Agents

HARPER'S PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION IN THE UNITED STATES

MESSRS. HARPER & BROTHERS have announced the issue in Numbers of a complete History of the Great Rebellion in the United States. The work has been for many months in course of preparation, by a writer every way qualified for the task.

The INTRODUCTION contains a clear and succinct account of the formation of the Confederacy of the States; the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States; and the establishment of the National Government; the origin, development and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed until their final culmination in the Great Rebellion.

The HISTORY comprises a full account, drawn from the most authentic sources, of all the Events of the War; the intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of one section; the great uprising of the People for the maintenance of National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy and the Battles by land and sea.

The ILLUSTRATIONS comprise Portraits of all those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of the different localities; Plans of the leading actions; Views of every scene of interest, and of the most important Battles. These Illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot by artists deputed for that purpose to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

Every facility at the command of the publishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confidently believe that it will form the most trustworthy and valuable history which can be prepared of the Great Struggle for the American Union.

Mode and Terms of Publication

The work will be issued in Numbers, each consisting of Twenty-four Pages of the size of "Harper's Weekly," printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in about Twenty Numbers.

The numbers will be issued at intervals, if possible, of about three or four weeks.

The Price of each Number, which contains matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be Twenty-five Cents.

The Illustrations in each Number are alone worth the price asked. Men out of employment especially can find no other work so sure of ready sale and good profits.

SICK OR DISABLED SOLDIERS,

SHAVING AND HAIR-DRESSING.

Not by the Bards of Graham's Row.

The question has often been asked
Why PLEASANTS can shave so clean?
That customers who shave with him
A benefit must reap, I ween.

He shaves for a "PIN," and if you are willing,
Will take off your hair in a trice for a "SHILLING."
So come along, ye jolly boys so slick,
For Pleasants is the man to do it cheap and quick.

The reason may readily be seen
Why his custom is so large:
His towels all are clean—his razors all are keen
And you'll always find him Pleasant in—a charge

Just go to Pleasant's and you'll be Like Sheba's Queen of old
Pleased and delighted, and exclaim
The half has not been told.

Collender's Commercial College

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut Sts.,

PHILADELPHIA, PA

THIS INSTITUTION, which was established in 1841, and is now consequently in its eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our country.

THE OBJECT of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

THE BRANCHES TAUGHT ARE Book-Keeping, as applicable to the various departments of business, Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, Mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

CATALOGUES are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

ITS EXTENSIVE ACCOMMODATIONS, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time SITUATIONS, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

COLLENDER'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.
