FIRE.—The old tavern stand at Morrisdale, occupied by D. W. Holt, was entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. Part of the furniture was saved, but some valuables, the personal effects of Mrs. Allport, and all of the kitchen furniture, was destroyed.

Our citizens were aroused by the cry of fire about two o'clock last Monday morning. The flames proceeded from a small building occupied by C. Haut as a lager-beer saloon, situated on Market street, opposite the jail. It was entirely consumed, and was no doubt the work of an incendiary.

PIC-NIC.—A grand dinner was got up at Pine Grove School House in Lawrence township on Saturday last, by the citizens of the district, for the especial benefit of the children under the instruction of Miss MAGGIE A. READ. The table was spread with an abundance of the best edibles the country market affords; of which all present feasted to their entire satisfaction. The children were highly pleased with the entertainment, and all expressed a desire that Miss R.—who is a lady much esteemed—may long live to enjoy the enviable reputation she has earned for herself in this community.

Mr. Vallandigham—A Libel Nailed.

The following absurd paragraph lately appeared in the Buffalo Commercial:

VALLANDIGHAM TURNED OUT DOORS.—We learn that the proprietors of the Clifton House, Canada, recently gave Mr. Vallandigham notice to quit—circumstances having rendered the space occupied by that notorious individual preferable to his company. The "martyr," it is said, has taken his abode with Sol. Davis, the keeper of the museum, where, after being properly labelled, he will be placed among the other curiosities.

The Buffalo Courier refutes it, as follows:

"The above piece of scurrillity was universally pronounced, yesterday, to be false on its face. It scarcely needed the following refutation, which was received by telegraph last evening:

CLIFTON HOUSE, August 4.

"'Editor Courier:—The statement in to-night's Commercial Advertiser, relating to Mr. Vallandigham and the Clifton House is a downright falsehood out of the whole cloth. S. VALLANDIGHAM.'"

"We trust the Commercial will vindicate its fairly sustained character for decency by making the necessary amende honorable."

RELEASE OF STATE PRISONERS.—On the 6th inst. Gen. Banks visited Fort Jackson and Fort St. Phillip, below New Orleans, and liberated some of the State prisoners who had been confined there by order of Gen. Butler. On the prison record against their names was found the entry, "cause unknown" General Banks liberated twenty-one on this occasion—eighteen at Fort Jackson, and three (the last remaining ones) at St. Phillip.

[Thousands of others have been cruely and illegally seized and imprisoned by this despotic Abolition administration with the same entry, "cause unknown" against their names.]

☞ This is what the Tribune said of the mobs that attacked the Democratic newspaper offices at the beginning of the war. "The righteous indignation of the people at the treason of the Northern presses which have been for months stimulating the slave-holders to rebel against the Union, was very strongly manifested in various parts of the country yesterday."

It did not obj. ct to calling the mob the "people" then.

Greely, it seems, thinks the wolf is an ugly beast when he is heading towards him, but that he is a charming and useful animal when employed in running down people he dont like.—Boston Courier.

☞ At a Loyal League ovation in Juniata county there was a banner carried bearing the inscription "The soldiers should elect their own leaders." This is like their banners of "free press" "free speech" "good times" &c. It is a deception and lying inscription. If the soldiers could elect their own leaders they would soon elect McClellan. The administration in power have defied the wishes of the soldiers as regards their leaders.—The Northumberland Democrat.

REPUBLICANS FOR DISUNION.—Rev. O. A. Brownson, was a Republican candidate for Congress in New Jersey last fall, and he ought to be good authority in regard to Republican views and purposes. In a late issue of his Review he says: "It is no secret now that the leaders of the Republican party were prepared if they could retain the border Slave States, to let South Carolina and the Gulf States go, and form, if they choose, an independent Confederacy."

MASS MEETING.—The Democratic State Central Committee, at their recent meeting in Philadelphia, designated six places in the State to hold monster mass meetings on the 17th of September, the anniversary of the adoption of the Federal Constitution. The places selected are Philadelphia, Lancaster, Williamsport, Scranton, Meadville and Uniontown. Patriot and Union.

DIED—On the 18th instant, of Chronic Diarrhea, contracted in the army, JAMES, son of Joseph and Nancy Jane Birchfield, aged 23 years and 2 months.

☞ This youth, called away so early in his manhood, a sacrifice to the good cause of his country, became a volunteer soldier in Company F, 149th Regiment, P. V., about a year before his death.

During five tedious months he suffered under disease in the camp and the hospital. He was then brought to his father's house, where he lingered about seven weeks longer, he then passed away, we trust to a better home.

His salvation through the merits of the Lord Jesus, the only Redeemer, engaged much of his earnest and prayerful attention in the last few weeks of his life; and not only did he become reconciled to death, but, as the event drew near, he expressed an anxiety to go and be with Christ. To the youthful friends and acquaintances of the departed, God says, "Be ye also ready." COMMUNICATED.

In Lawrence township, Clearfield county, Penn'a., of Consumption, on the 19th inst., GEORGE MULLEN, aged 26 years, and 7 months.

The deceased was a man of many noble and generous traits of character. He was converted about six weeks ago; since then he has been faithful to religion. In his death his friends have sustained an irreparable loss. As a man, he was amiable generous and agreeable. As a friend, he was constant and true. As a husband, he was affectionate and kind. As a christian, he was ardent and faithful; and his dying testimony was too clear to doubt for one moment his acceptance with God. Well may it be said of him, "that religion which he had so lately before possessed, was sufficient to sustain him in a dying hour." His last words were—after giving them all an affectionate farewell—"I'm going home to glory." His sudden and untimely end is deeply mourned by an affectionate wife and two children,

"God help the widow in her grief,
The children in their woe:
That hand alone can give relief
That measured out the blow." S.

Bulkley's Patent.

Lumber Dried by Superheated Steam

THE undersigned respectfully informs the people of Clearfield and the adjoining counties that he has the agency of the above Patent, and will sell Individual, County and Township rights for its use. The Lumber dried by this process is stronger, finishes better, I easier on tools, and requires less time in drying than any other process known—and drying 1 inch lumber perfectly in 36 hours, and better than many months under the old system—using the same amount of fuel per day that a common kiln consumes. The certificates of a number of resident mechanics, well known in this community, is amply sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its practical utility. Persons desirous of purchasing rights will address
