The Clearfield Republican.

WEDNESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 30th.

☞ For once, we take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement—that of Howe & Stevens' "Family Dye Colors," in this day's paper. These Dyes have become a household necessity, and so general in their use that many a well dressed lady finds that many an article once rejected as out of date, by the aid of these Dyes, made as good as new.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Wm. Graham, senior, of Bradford township, was found dead in one of his fields on last Friday evening. Our informant states that on the 23d two or three of Mr. Graham's neighbors, having a jug of whiskey, stopped and spent the day with him—that the whole party imbibed freely—that Mr. Graham, who was quite an old man, left the party, and was seen no more until found as above stated.

PLAYING THE BRAG GAME.—The Abolitionits are just now playing the game of "brag" with a desperation sadly indicative of their hopeless condition. It is an old trick, and one which the Jacobins have tried so often that it frightens nobody. They know and they feel that they are repudiated by the people—that they have been weighed in the balance and found wanting—that they found the country in the highest state of prosperity, and in less than three years they have filled the land with misery—suppressed the freedom of speech and of the Press—ignored all the personal liberty of the citizen. And in the face of these HIGH CRIMES against REPUBLICAN LIBERTY they have the impudence to assume that these people—whose blood-bought liberties they have thus destroyed—is about to lick the hand that smites them by re-electing them to the high places they have so shamefully disgraced.

Let them brag, and boast, and banter, to their hearts' content. It can avail them nothing. THE PEOPLE are yet sovereign, and will not submit to the rearing of a despotism over the descendants of the sires of Seventy-six. They behold their doom, and as a last expiring effort they convulsively cry out that all is well—that the people—the white men of America—whom they would degrade to the level of the negro—will endorse their crimes.

DEATH OF ISAAC KLINE.—It is with sincere regret we have to announce the death of ISAAC KLINE, the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer. The deceased was one of our most respected and worthy citizens—a native of the county—and one of God's noblest works—"an honest man."

A CALUMNY NAILED.

The Carlisle Volunteer—Extra—of the 24th, contains the following correspondence which sufficiently explains itself.—There is no end to the vile slanders which the Abolitionists are circulating against Judge Woodward, and we are glad that one opportunity has occurred of which he has availed himself to express clearly his sentiments, which have been shamefully misrepresented by his unscrupulous opponents. We invite the attention of all Democrats and every candid Republican to Judge Woodward's letter in which he crucifies his maligners:

CARLISLE, September 18, 1863.

Hon. GEO. W. WOODWARD:

DEAR SIR—I have been informed that Hon. Lemuel Todd, who presided over the Convention which renominated Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, in addressing a ratification meeting, held recently in this county, stated that he had been informed that a certain Judge Hall said, that in a recent conversation with him, you had avowed yourself a believer in the doctrines of secession and in favor of an immediate recognition of the south.

While I am fully satisfied that you have never held or avowed those sentiments, I deem it important that your friends should have authority to contradict the statement. Will you, therefore, be kind enough to inform me whether you ever held such a conversation with Judge Hall?

Very respectfully,

RUFUS E. SHARPLEY.

Chairman Democratic Standing Committee of Cumberland county.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21st, 1863.

RUFUS E. SHARPLEY, Esq:

DEAR SIR:—Just returned from Easton, where I went to assist at the funeral of our much beloved friend, the Hon. Richard Brodhead, I find your favor of the 18th, informing me of a story which Mr. Todd produced at a public meeting, after obtaining it through a channel which is not specified.

There is not a word of truth in the story. I know no Judge Hall, and cannot remember that I ever knew a man of that name.

So far from ever avowing belief in secession favoring recognition of the Southern Confederacy, I AM, & ALWAYS HAVE BEEN, OPPOSED TO BOTH, AND AM IN FAVOR OF SUPPRESSING THE REBELLION BY WHICH BOTH ARE SUPPORTED.

My life has been spent, thus far, in upholding the Constitution of the United States as the Fathers framed it—the Union they formed, and the Constitution and laws of the State; and whatever of life remains to me will be devoted to the same ends whether it be spent in public or private station. Neither secession nor the malignant fanaticism that caused it will ever find an advocate in me.

Trusting that this is a sufficient answer to the calumny you allude to I remain, dear sir,

Very truly yours,

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

DIDN'T COME.—Forney, the President's dog, failed to appear at the Abolition fizzle last night, according to announcement. Forney is a lucky "dog."

YELLOW FEVER, BILLIOUS FEVER, &c.

Those suffering from Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, from whatever cause, either in Male or Female, will find in Hoofland's German Bitters, a Remedy that will restore them to their usual health. Such has been the case in thousands of instances, and a fair trial is but required to prove the assertion.

Remember that these Bitters are NOT Alcoholic, and NOT intended as a Beverage.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians and Citizens, Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

Diseases of Kidneys and Bladder, in Young or Aged, Male or Female, are speedily removed, and speedily restored to health.

Delicate Children—those suffering from Marasmus, wasting away, with scarcely any flesh on their bones, are cured in a very short time; one bottle in such cases, will have a most surprising effect.

Parents having suffering children as above, and wishing to raise them, will never regret the day they commenced with these Bitters.

Literary men, Students, and those working hard with their brains, should always keep a bottle of Hoofland's Bitters near them, as they will find much benefit from its use, to both mind and body, invigorating and not depressing.

It is not a Liquor stimulant, and leaves no prostration.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS,

And the friends of Soldiers.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and hospitals, who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

See that the signature of "C. M. JACKSON" is on the WRAPPER of each Bottle.

DANIEL CONNELLY begs leave to inform his friends, and the citizens of Clearfield and vicinity generally, that he has taken the shop lately occupied by George Newson, in Shaw's Row, where he intends to be ready at all times to wait upon those who may favor him with their custom.

He will guarantee his work to be as well executed as can be made elsewhere, and at quite as reasonable prices. He is bound to win the good opinion of all who walk in shoe leather—whether male or female—and all he asks is a fair trial.
