

This is no time for Democrats to split their tickets. All your candidates are competent and deserving men—quite as much so as their competitors. It is "PRINCIPLES NOT MEN" for which we contend.

A HOPEFUL SIGN.—A strange sight appeared in our streets in the midst of the heavy rain last Friday. It was nothing less than one of those never-to-be-forgotten Wide Awake capes of 1850. The wearer was from the country, and as this sad memento of that campaign which resulted in placing the destinies of our country in the hands of its enemies, caught the eye of a passing Democrat, the stranger was called to a halt.

SPLENDID DEMOCRATIC SPEECHES.—The addresses of Messrs. MILES and NORTHROP, of Philadelphia, at the Democratic meeting in the Court House on Wednesday evening last, were the ablest we ever had the pleasure of listening to. The house was well filled, the bar and front seats were occupied by ladies.

We clip the following from the Toledo Blade, in order that his friends in this county may know that at the late battle of Chattanooga he was not idle.

General Steedman immortalized himself by coming to our relief with the Reserve Corps, and when one of his regiments was retreating in disorder, he seized the old flag, and crying out "You shan't dishonor the Old Flag!" he boldly dashed towards the Rebels, and the regiment rallied and drove the enemy back.

NAILED TO THE COUNTER.

At a late Abolition meeting in Pittsburg, a big-bellied lawyer of that city, named Bigham, asserted, of his own knowledge, that after the battle of Gettysburg, Judge Woodward told his eldest son that instead of being wounded in the foot, "he ought to have been wounded in the heart, for fighting in such a cause."

Headquarters Depot Camp Invalid Corps, Meridan Hill, D. C. Sept. 23, 1863. Mr. T. J. Bigham, Pittsburg, Pa. Sir:—I have noticed in the newspapers a report of a mass Convention held at Pittsburg on the 16th inst., in which you are represented to have said, in a response to an inquiry of one Matthews, as to where Woodward (meaning Judge Woodward the Democratic nominee for Governor), was when Curtis was attending to the soldiers' wants: "that when Judge Woodward's brilliant son came home from Gettysburg, wounded in both legs, his father told him he ought to have been wounded in the heart for fighting in such a cause."

As my only brother capable of bearing arms, who has made two campaigns with the State militia, has never been wounded, I presume that I am the son of Judge Woodward alluded to in the foregoing statement—which statement I desire to brand, as you know it to be when you made it, as wicked and deliberate falsehood. A man so lost to honor and decency deserves to be drummed out of respectable society.

As the Lieutenant Colonel commanding the 2d Pennsylvania Reserves, I participated in the battle of Gettysburg, but was fortunate enough to escape unharméd, except a slight injury in my right foot, in which I had been wounded during the Peninsular campaign.

Just after the fall of Sumpter, in the spring of 1861, finding that war between the two great sections of our common country was inevitable, under the call of the President for three years' volunteers I raised a company in Philadelphia, which afterwards became incorporated with the 2d Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves.

so far as I needed it, his co-operation in my enterprise.

As Major of the 2d Pennsylvania Reserves, I participated in the Peninsular campaign, and was wounded at Charles City X Roads, in the right foot and left leg—by which wounds I am crippled for life—was taken prisoner, confined in the Libby Prison in Richmond, and, after being paroled, was taken to my father's house in Philadelphia, where, for four weary months I was confined to my bed, suffering intensely, but with the suffering alleviated and finally relieved, by not only the best medical skill, but also by the constant, kind, unwearied attention of my father, mother and sisters. During all that time, as indeed during my whole life no father could be more kind, more solicitous for a son's welfare, than was mine.

I have been thus full, sir, in my refutation of your slander, not because you need or deserve this kind of attention at my hands, but because this refutation must be made as public as was the calumny, and I desire the public to have the exact truth in regard to this matter.

In conclusion, sir, I will remark that it is poor encouragement to our soldiers in the field to find that while toiling and fighting for their country, lying politicians at home are using them as the instruments of their partisan malice, and such an instance as this is a fair illustration of the pretended love for soldiers which certain parties parade so constantly.

That love must be sincere indeed which while it overlays the soldier with fulsome adulation, stabs to the quick all he holds dear and dear.

Geo. A. Woodward, Late Lieut. Col. Comdg. 2d Penna. Reserves. Major Invalid Corps.

CURTIS'S PLATFORM. Three Abolition PAY-TRIALS recently made speeches in favor of Andrew G. Curtin, the shoddy candidate for Governor. One was Thaddeus Stevens, who playfully said, "The Union as it was, and the Constitution as it is—God forbid it!"

The second was Wm. H. Armstrong, who coolly informed his hearers "that it was better to lose a battle in the field than the election in Pennsylvania."

The third was the notorious Benjamin F. Butler, who boldly announced to his Abolition audience that "he was not for the Union as it was."

As these three worthies were employed to help Curtin, by Mr. Wayne McVeigh, the Chairman of the Curtin State Committee, they undoubtedly expressed the opinions of their shoddy leaders. Those who are willing to endorse the treasonable and disgraceful sentiments quoted above, cast their votes for Andrew G. Curtin.—Democratic Standard.

The Secessionists of the South say they will never consent to a restoration of the old Union. The Abolitionized Republicans say they will never consent to the restoration of the Union as it was.

THIRD ANNUAL FAIR OF THE CLEARFIELD COUNTY Agricultural Society.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Premiums and diplomas will be paid on and after the first Wednesday of November, and until the 31st day of January, 1864, after which all money premiums unclaimed will be considered as a donation to the Society.

Children under ten years of age not admitted unless accompanied by their parents.

Every person wishing to be enrolled as a member of this Society must apply on or before the first day of the fair, and on the payment of one dollar to the Treasurer shall receive a certificate of membership containing the name of the applicant and endorsed by the Secretary.

Every person becoming a member as above stated shall, on the presentation of his certificate, receive a ticket which will admit him free during the fair. Any person employing with the above regulations and paying $10, shall become a contributor and shall be exempt from all contributions and shall annually receive from the Secretary a free family ticket.

All persons must be provided with tickets, which can be had from the Executive Committee, Treasurer or Secretary at the door. Persons acting as judges are expected to become members of the Society.

Exhibitors must become members of the Society and have their animals and articles entered on the Secretary's books on or before the 21st day of October; and all animals and articles, except horses, must be brought within the enclosure as early as Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A. M., and all persons entering animals and articles for exhibition will procure cards from the Secretary with the class and number of entry of said articles, previous to placing said articles on the ground.

Hay and straw will be furnished gratis for all animals entered for premiums, and grain will be furnished at cost for those who desire to purchase.

No horse shall be entered or allowed a premium unless he is free from disease. Horses will be received until Wednesday noon, but must be entered previously.

Persons intending to exhibit blooded stock must produce authentic pedigrees, and are earnestly requested to furnish the Secretary, by the 10th of October with a list of their stock, and the pedigrees of each, which will facilitate the preparations of entries and in case of deficient pedigrees, will afford the owner time to correct the same.

INSTRUCTIONS TO JUDGES.—No animal to receive an award in more than one class. Judges are expressly required not to award premiums to over-fed animals. No premiums are to be awarded to bulls, cows or heifers, which shall appear to have been fattened, only in the class of fat cattle, the object of the Society being to have superior animals of this description for breeding.

FAR CATTLE.—The judges on fat cattle will give particular attention to the animals submitted for examination. It is believed all other things being equal those are the best cattle that have the greatest weight over the smallest superficies. The judges will require all in this class to be weighed, and will take measures to give the superficies of each, and publish the result with their reports.

When there is but one exhibitor, although he may show several animals in one class only one premium will be awarded, that to the first, or otherwise as the merits of the animal may be judged.

The superintendent will take every precaution in his power for the safety of stock and articles on exhibition after their arrival, and arrangement on the grounds, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.

Rules of Plowing.—The name of the plowman must be given as well as the kind of plow to be used, at the time of entry.

The quantity of ground to be plowed by each team to be 1 acre.

The time allowed to do the work will be three hours. The furrow slice in all cases to be lapped. The teams to start at the same time and each plowman to do his work without a driver or other assistance.

The premiums offered by the Society will be awarded to the individual who, in the judgment of the committee, shall do their work in the best manner, provided the work is done in the time allowed for its performance.

Each plowman to strike his own land, and plow entirely independent of the adjoining land. Within the one-fourth of an acre plowed, each plowman will be required to strike two back furrowed lands, and finish with the dead furrow in the middle.

Any information required in regard to matters of the Society can be gained by addressing the Executive Committee or the Secretary, who will be pleased to give any information in their power at any time.

Any article not enumerated in the above classes, and placed upon exhibition, if worthy of notice, will be suitably rewarded.

The Executive Committee reserves a discretionary power to award Diplomas in any case for 24 best articles, or for articles not entitled to premiums by the rules.

Three judges for each class will be appointed and announced before or on the first day of the fair.

All articles may be entered free of charge, excepting horses for pleasure, and for the trotting race.
