BY JERMEY BLUE.

Ch, pitiless, pitiless, pitiless war, Florre spirit of angulah and pain, shall the demon exult till the last red drop Has watered the earth in vain Where, where, is thine arm, O Father ? Gaze down on the pitiless strife , speak to the billows of wild unrest, Oh, merciful spirit of life.

Here by a loveless and desolate hearth, A fond mother yearns for her boy-Her last cherished idol-the star of her life, Her blessing, her pride and her joy; How oft have her lips pressed that beautiful brow In the wildering maze of her dreams. His bearing how gullant—his beauty how fair, As the light on his uniform gleams,

Aid 'twas but yesterday, gallant and gay, He wrote her that letter of love-Now the strife is begun, 'tis the heat of the fray,

Oh pitying Father above. A flash, a report, as the smoke clears away, The beautiful form of the dead Gleams forth in the sungight in battle array, And the hopes of a lone heart hath fled.

Shall the blossoming earth drink forever 9 God, The blood of the noble and brave? eweet angel of mercy to earth plume thy wings. Compaesionate, pity, and save. Is the heart of humanity silenced, for aye
Is it dead to earth's sorrow and wee? Ah! the prayers floating up from lone desolate The all merciful only may know [hearts.

Caward, still on rolls the pitiless strife, Still floats the sad wall of despair, The noble, the brave and the beautiful full, Yet merciless tyrants beware. Not forever exulteth the demon of ill-

Not forever the merciless strife ; Fruth, right and humanity wait but the call.
Of the beautiful spirit of life. Father, our hearts breathe one passionate prayer, From the throne of the merciless power

Gaze down on the conflict, the tumult, the strife, Speed onward the merciful hour-When the angel, the beautiful augel of love Shall bid the fierce tumult cease. And over the world float the musical thrill, Of the glorious authems of peace.
