Day We take pleasure in giving place to the report of the "Ladies' Soldiers Relief Society" of Carwensville. The operations of the Association, as shown by this statement, are highly creditable to all concerned, and display a liberality seldom met with in any community.

The first session of the 38th Congress will commence at Washington on Monday next. As political parties will be pretty near equally balanced, it will not probably be so much of a "Rebel Recruiting Office" as its illustrious predecessor.
