Bulkley's Patent. Lumber Dried by Superheated Steam,

THE undersigned respectfully informs the peo-ple of Clearfield, and the adjoining countle that he has the agency of the above Patent, and will sell Individual, County and Township rights for its use. The Lumber stried by this process is stronger, finishes better, i easier on tools, and requires less time in drying than any other process known-and drying I inch lumber perfectly in 35 hours, and better than many months under the old system-using the same amount of fuel per day that a common kiln consumes. The certificates of a number of resident mechanics, well known in this community, is amply sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its practical utility. NVERY man that has read any thing of the EVERY man that has read any thing of the past history of this WAR must finally come to the conclusion that the Confederate Government would be broken flown. It was only a questional transfer of the confederate of the confe tion of time. But now we have the above Glori-ous soul-stirring naws to cheer us up; and the only draw-back to our by and glorification is the imminent danger of the Contrabands coming North to "eat out our substance," and to wear out surshies! But of one thing the people of Clear-deld county may be assured, and that is, that FRANK SHORT—for short called Short-ce—is selling Boots & shoes as cheap as any other man in the county; and if you don't believe it, ust give him a call on court-week, and puy other time, and see for yourselves. He would just ramind the public that his shop is now on Market street, in Shaw's Row-where you will find him just as Short as usual-if not a little shorter-of Casn than he would like to be.

All kinds of work on hands and made to order n short notice, and as well made, and as good fite s can be "skeered" up here or elsewhere. Eq. Don't forget the shop-on Market street, Shaw's Row, directly opposite Rev. H. B. Clearfield, June 11, 1862.

Coachmaking and Blacksmithshop, together with the necessary water power for sawbing, all in good condition, for sale at a bargain.
