Tyrono & Clewfield R. R. Company.

At the election of officers of this road, held at Philadelphia on the 2d instant, the following gentlemen were chosen. If the work does not speedily progress now, it will not be for the want of able officers.—Where such men as Thompson, Scott, Loraine, &c., &c., can't make a railroad there is no use in other trying; and when and where they undertake to make one the thing is done.

The author of the following letter will please accept our thanks:

Editor's Republic, Feb. 6th, 1864.

At the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Tyrone & Clewfield Railroad Company, held 2d instant, the following persons were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President,

GEORGE R. ROBERTS,
Vice President,

HERMAN J. LOHART,
Director,

J. Edgar Thompson, Thomas A. Scott,
H. J. Lohart, Edward Smith,
John Hulme, Joseph Bacon,
Walter Morris, Joseph B. Myers,
Edward C. Knight, of Philadelphia,
Hon. E. D. Morgan, of New York,
Hon. Wm. A. Wallace of Chestfield,
Charles R. Foster, of Pittsburgh,
Secretary,

H. H. Murchison.

In Town.—R. F. Ward—whom many of our readers will remember as first in this office, as an apprentice, and afterwards as editor of the Republic, in connection with Major Larimer,—spent yesterday with his widowed stepmother in this place, and left this morning for the army of the Potomac. He entered as a private in the Flocktail regiment from McKean county, and is still connected with that regiment, as 1st Lieutenant of Company I, until quite recently, when he was promoted to the Captaincy.

—We learn that an effort is being made by those subject to conscription in this county, to get the Examining Board to sit in this county for the purpose of examining those who may be drafted on the 10th of March. We hope the movement will meet with favor. It certainly should—and if the gentlemen comprising the Board are left to their own will, we think they will. To do so, would cost the Government perhaps one or two hundred thousand dollars—and put three or four men to the trouble of coming from Waterford here; whereas, if they refuse, or are not permitted to do so, some two or three hundred men will be required to go all the way to Waterford—a distance of four or five hundred miles—and at a cost to the government of many thousands of dollars.

PHENOMENON.—At the Mayor's election in the city of Lancaster on Tuesday last, Col. Sanderson of the Intelligencer, was re-elected Mayor by 117—being a gain of 68 since last October. The Union League raised the issue whether the city should again endorse the measures of policy of Mr. Buchanan's administration, and were again beautifully squelched. This is the third or fourth term for Col. Sanderson.

THE WAR CALLS.—There is some difference of opinion as to the aggregate of the calls for troops, but the fact of the calls is entirely set down as follows, year and date being given:

April 1st, 1861 75,000
May 4, 1861 64,748
From July to December, 1861 500,000
July 1, 1862 500,000
August 4, 1862 300,000
Draft, summer of 1863 300,000
February 1, 1864 500,000

Total 2,039,748

This is the aggregate of the calls for men in the army alone, while the naval service totals up 34,000 men.

ANS. KENDALL ON THE CRISIS.—Mr. Kendall is writing a series of articles to prove how unlawful the President's plans are in the proposed work of pacification. Mr. Kendall holds, in his fifth letter to the truth of the following proposition:

"The power to regulate suffrage is exclusively a State right; there is no such thing as United States voters; the President assumes that power; the condition of an amnesty must be lawful; the President's plan is inconsistent with itself, and worse than Sumner's."

PLANING HORSES IN WINTER.—This is often wrongly done. When the horse becomes heated by hard labor and long traveling, the blanket is thrown on his back; at once the vapor steams up from his hot sides, becomes condensed and wets the blanket, and as the horse continues to cool, the cold and wet covering is of little use. A better way is to allow the animal to stand uncovered for a few minutes, (a longer or shorter period, according to circumstances,) until cooled down to about the ordinary temperature, but not to any degree toward chilliness; then throw on the dry blanket.

According to the London times we have not the right spelling for a river in Virginia, much talked of during the present struggle. A correspondent thus writes to the Thunderer:—"Pray assist me to protect from Yankee corruption the geographical nomenclature of my State and the place where I was born," for I see the whole English press has been misled by the Yankee misspelling of the fine dash-ing stream which Mendes has judged it proper to place between himself and Lee—it is not the 'Rapidan,' but the Rapid Ann, formerly, but now rarely, Anna, your Queen of that name, after whom it was called. This river and the North Fork joins at the lower edge of Culpepper County, from the Rappahannock."

VALLANDIGHAM'S CASE IN THE SUPREME COURT.—The case Mr. Vallandigham is now before the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Gen. A. Pugh, Mr. Vallandigham's counsel, raises the point, that the military commander, Gen. Burnside, had no authority to try a citizen, as he had no jurisdiction over persons not in the military or naval service of the United States. Judge Advocate Holt, the talented Kentuckian, who sold himself to the Administration for the office he holds and a few greenbacks, submitted a written argument in opposition to this view. The decision in the Court has not yet been made known.

VALLEYFIELD FUND.—The Democratic ladies of Columbus have raised $500, and those of St. Clairsville $100. A State Central Committee is appointed, and a committee of five persons in each county is to be appointed to swell the fund. It is proposed to raise and pay over to Mrs. Vallandigham, a sum equal to the salary of a first class Ambassador to a foreign country, on the ground that her husband is away in the service of freemen, upholding the cause of Liberty.—Exchange.

—The Utica Observer and Democrat says: The President offers his assistance to the army of the United States to enable one-tenth of the voters of any rebellious State to govern the other nine-tenths, and this he calls guaranteeing a republican form of government.

—Barson Brownlow started a furious broadsheet paper at Knoxville, called the Rebel Ventilator. On the approach of Longstreet he put it for Cincinnati. And there let him start afresh with a paper of some such taking name as the Abolitionist.

—Joseph Repka, a leading business man and manufacturer of Philadelphia, died a few days since, in the seventy-sixth year of his age.

—The Red Republicans of the West seem to be bound to have Fremont nominated for the next Presidency.

MARRIED.—On the 7th inst., by Rev. G. Levy, Sergeant R. H. Walk, Co. D, 5th Regt., U. S. A., to Miss Eveline A. Kephart, of Decatur township, Clef. co., Pa.
