

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 7.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, EN. GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ION. GEORGE H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR SHERIFF, ACOB A. FAUST, of Curwensville.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER, CONRAD BAKER, of Knox twp.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, W. M. McCULLOUGH, of Clearfield.

FOR COUNTY AUDITOR, M. L. C. EVANS, of Pike township.

FOR CORONOR, HENRY W. FARKE, of Clearfield.

Our Ticket and Our Principles.

The Chicago Convention has adjourned. It has performed its allotted work. Its members return to their constituents to receive the plaudits, "well done, good and faithful servants," GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, the nominee of the Convention and the next President of the United States, needs no endorsement at our hands. His bravery, his skill as a leader, his energetic administrative abilities, his reticence under persecution, his devotion to his soldiers, his pure and spotless life, his fine education, and his ability to grasp the great questions that will necessarily devolve upon him for solution, are well known to the people. His nomination was made upon the first ballot, with singular unanimity.

His colleague upon the ticket, Hon. GEORGE H. PENDLETON, of Ohio, is a young man of undoubted ability, of great energy, and has been a life-long Democrat. As a member of Congress, he has distinguished himself by fidelity to the cardinal principles of our Government. Such is the ticket presented for the suffrages of the American people.

Elsewhere in our columns will be found the platform of principles adopted by the Convention. It is brief, distinct, and emphatic. It enunciates three great cardinal principles of the Democracy: their unswerving fidelity to the Federal Union of the States; their unalterable conviction that peaceful measures are the true means for the restoration of that Union, and their determination to preserve unimpaired as well the rights of the States as the power of the General Government.

The platform of principles is essentially practical. It does not attempt to deal with abstruse questions of government, but grapples with the vital questions of the hour, and plainly defines the position of the Democracy. There is no room for double construction, no attempt to evade the real issue, but clear as the sun at noon day, and distinct as the rolling thunder, it rings out our rallying cry, "Peace on the basis of the Union of our Fathers."

While the Lincoln Administration have made bloody, relentless, and inhuman war the Alpha and Omega of their means for the restoration of the Union, the Democracy pledge themselves to a cessation of hostilities and a National Convention, or other peaceful means, to attain the same end. Reason, intercourse, and negotiation made the Union, and the Democracy have unflinching faith that the same means will restore it.

The people are the arbiters of their own destiny, and in their hands we feel that we are safe. Let them but be aroused to the magnitude of the issues involved, to the immense responsibilities now devolved upon them, to the fact that their liberties and the problem of the capacity of man for self government are trembling in the scale; and the result will be for us. We will not doubt it; we cannot doubt it.

"Awake, then! Let every man feel that he is responsible for the result. Let no flank movements of the enemy divert you from the real issue. They will vilify McClellan, and thus endeavor to divert our attention from their own misdeeds. Detraction and persecution have but served to brighten his virtues, and his reticence has aided to make him the idol of the people. We will not defend him; their abuse will aid in his elevation. Our course is an aggressive one. We demand at the hands of Mr. Lincoln an account of his stewardship. Where are the hopes, the happiness, and prosperity of this country, entrusted to his care four years since? Where is the Union of the States, under a Government of law, dispensing equal and exact justice to all? Where are the smiling fields, the plenteous harvests, and the happy homes of the States made the theatre of war? Where are the hundreds of millions of treasure squandered and stolen in this relentless war? Where are the liberties of the people, unnecessarily invaded by his lawless entrapments? Where are the tens of thousands of brave souls buried into eternity by criminal mismanagement and reckless change of commander? And greater than all, where are our hopes for liberty and Union, peace and prosperity?

The Legislature.
The Legislature adjourned sine die on Thursday, August 25th. The only measure of importance passed, were the appropriation of $100,000 to the poor of Chambersburg; the amendment of the militia law, so as to authorize the immediate enrolment of all between 18 and 45, and the provision for calling out either by volunteering or draft not exceeding fifteen regiments for State defence. The bounty laws were also amended. The Senate elected Hon. Wm. J. Turrell, of Susquehanna, Speaker during the vacation—the Republicans voting for him, and the Democrats voting for Senator Wallace.

In the proceedings of the Chicago Convention as printed on our first page, the name of the member of the Committee on Resolutions from Pennsylvania was not given. The gentleman selected was our fellow-townsmen, Hon. Wm. A. WALLACE, who was selected to read the report of the Committee to the Convention, and which duty he performed in the most creditable manner.

A HOAX.—Our citizens were startled on Monday last by the report that one man was shot, and one or two wounded, in an attempt to arrest some alleged deserters on Clearfield Creek, on Saturday last. As the report is not confirmed we presume there is not a word of truth in it.

SUPPOSE YOU TRY IT ON.—"That's what you get for your (I—d—d—d) peace meeting. Bigger and Wallace ought to be hung for making such speeches."

Such was the substance, if not the identical words used in a remark made on our streets on Monday last, by one of Lincoln's hirelings, when speaking of the reported collision between the Provost Marshals and their assistants, and certain alleged deserters and their friends in Knox township. If that fellow will take a friend's advice, he will make himself as scarce as possible in this region. He had better consider that some mail degradation demands his immediate attention elsewhere. Men of his class and calibre, should take warning before it is too late, and understand that Democrats have endured as much of such language as they intend to.

THE WAR NEWS.
Highly important news is reported from Sherman's army. Atlanta was entered by the advance of our forces on the 2d inst. One account says the place was evacuated by the Confederates after a severe battle, in which the rebel army was cut in two, and suffered heavy loss. These facts are given by Secretary Stanton—but no particulars are given. By way of Richmond, Gen. Grant sends a despatch stating that the fall of Atlanta was acknowledged in Richmond, with a loss of 40,000 prisoners. If this is true, but few Confederates could have escaped.

There are no new movements in the army of the Potomac—the contending forces maintaining their respective positions before Petersburg.

It is difficult to ascertain the real position of affairs in the Shenandoah Valley. But is believed that Sheridan is on the defensive, and that the rebels have undisputed sway south of Winchester at least.

Fort Morgan, in front of Mobile, has surrendered with about 600 prisoners, and about 60 guns.

The draft, it is believed, did not take place on the 5th, in any district. It seems that the President was under the impression that the Act of Congress required but fifty days notice from the day of the call until the date of the draft; whereas, it is now ascertained that sixty days is required. But aside from this, the President's proclamation was dated the 18th of July—giving but 49 days to the 5th of September, unless both the days named are included. This but shows the blundering propensities of the blunderers at Washington.

MUSKINGUM VALLEY
Having added greatly to our former extensive facilities, we are now turning out a large number of our improved Portable Steam Engines and Portable Circular Saw Mills, many of which are finding their way into Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. Those already received and in operation are giving the most entire satisfaction. There is now hardly a State or Territory in the Union but that our Improved Portable Engines and Saw Mills are in use. All our Engines have spark arresters stacked on them, which confine the flying sparks.

We would respectfully refer you to the following gentlemen and certificates for the portability, utility, and economical operations of our Portable Steam Engines and Saw Mills:

STEAM WORKS.
Corner of Market and Third Streets, ZANESVILLE, OHIO.

AYORDALE, Chester Co., Pa., April 8, '64. Messrs. J. & J. H. DUVALL.—Gentlemen:—I have your Portable Engine and Saw Mill got up for me, and give entire satisfaction. I cheerfully recommend those in want of Saw Mills to give you a call. Respectfully, B. F. WICKERSHAM, MINERAL POINT, Cambria Co., Pa. May 21, 1864.

J. & J. H. DUVALL.—Gentlemen:—With Mr. S. Hardesty as sawyer, we have sawed, with the Portable Steam Mill sent to Cambria Iron Company, in nine hours, eight thousand feet of lumber, (two thirds of it being oak,) and would cheerfully recommend your Mills to those in want of such. Very respectfully, JOHN MORRELL, For Cambria Iron Company. MORRISDALE, June 2, 1864.

Messrs. J. & J. H. DUVALL.—With the assistance of Mr. Hardesty, we sawed the first day we set up your Engine and Saw Mill, seven thousand two hundred and fifty-six feet of one inch pine boards, when everything was new and had become very rusty by three weeks exposure in an open car. We are well satisfied that the mill will cut fully one thousand feet of inch lumber per hour, with suitable help. We cheerfully recommend your mills and engines to any in want, as we are fully satisfied they are the best mill and engine and mill of the kind we have ever seen. Yours truly, J. S. BRENNER, For Brenner, Truitt & Co. EBERSBURG, Pa. Feb. 26th 1864.

Messrs. J. & J. H. DUVALL.—Dear Sirs:—Our portable saw Mill and engine arrived last week—all safe and right, we believe—and we can say without meaning any flattery in behalf of Mr. Hardesty that he did himself credit in putting the mill up, and starting the same. Yesterday, just the week from the time we unloaded the engine, he sawed with four hands, about 6000 feet of lumber in about eight hours, a portion of the logs were oak and ash. So far as we are able to judge, we think we will be able to send you a better report after a while. We are satisfied with the mill and engine, and can recommend them to any person who may desire a portable mill and engine. Yours, wishing you all success, REES S. LLOYD & CO.

For further references we will give the names of: James E. Evans, Ebensburg, Pa. Messrs. Harway & Co., Luthersburg, Pa. Messrs. Pruner & Burley, Tyrone, Adams, Chas. & Co., Greengrove, S.
