VOL. XXXVI.—WHOLE NO. 1843.

CLEARFIELD, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 1, 1865.

NEW SERIES-VOL. V.-NO. 29.

owe our New Year's Gift."

PENNSYLVANIA

IMPERIAL OIL COMPANY Office 139 South Fifth Street. PHILADELPHIA.

200,000 Shares, at $5 each.

Reserved Capital, - - - -

President, ALEXANDER K. M'CLURE, vicinity.

A. K. M'CLURE, D. K. JECK MAN. ELISHA W. DAVIS, THOMAS A. SCOTT, J. C. BOMBERGER, PETER B. SMALL, PECRETARY. TREASURER. JAMES M. SELLERS. ELISHA W. DAVIS.

JOHN M. POMEROY.

The Company has 120 acres of land, in fee, on Allegheny river, immediately opposite Oil City, and adjoining Laytonia, with 110 rods front on the river, and 75 rods front on Lay's Rus. Hon. C. P. Ramsdell, editor of the Oil City "Monitor," and agent for this land, assures the Company that it will sell in lots for $100,000, reserving the oil right, which is worth $100,000 additional. Immediate revenue will be derived for the Company from the sale of these lots; and the Company have two good engines, with complete fixtures, to operate immediately for oil. The territory in this immediate locality has never failed to produce profitably.

Also, 100 acres, in fee simple, on the celebrated Cherry Run Fetroleum Company, whose stock is on, now worth over $30 per share. The Company now have offers, which will be accepted, for sinking wells on lease, without any cost to the corporation, and one half the proceeds to go to the Company. The Curtin and St. Nicholas Companies are in this immediate locality, and their stock is now commanding a large premium. In midition, the-Company has forty neres, in fee simple, on Cherry Tree Run, which empties into Oil Creek, and In the best producing section of ch Oil Territory; and 110 seres, in fee simple, on Walnut Bond, five miles above the mouth of Oil Creek, and not over two miles from the celobrated Roed well, now producing over 200 bar-

Also, the lease of three tracts of land, two on Oil Creek, each producing over ten barrels per with Sherman. day, and one on Allegheny river, producing ten barrels per day of heavy oil, worth now $21 per barrel. The Company now receives three-fourth of the proceeds of the last named well, and one half of the other two. Each of these tracts will be developed by the Company by sinking additional wells, and the engines and fixtures are now on hand to do it.

The officers of this Company mean to prosecute the development of these lands most energetically, and they have entire confidence that they will yield very large dividends on the capital

Sub scriptions must be made promptly, as more than one half the stock is already engaged. Subscriptions will be received at the office of

PLENTY LEFT For Sale:

At the cheap Store of J. I. Morris & Co., Philipsburg, Penns, 10 Tons Fresh Pork!

5 Tons Salted Pork 5 Tons Fresh Beef! 100 Busbels Dried Apples

20 Bushels Prime Green Apples! 100 Bushels Potatoes 10 Tons Rye Chop ! 5000 Bushels Corn Ears

ALSO, Rafting Rope-All Sizes-Augers &c.

500 Barrels Flour, (Extra Family.) 100 Barrels Corn Meal, dec. 29-3t. 250 Bags of Salt.

CTRAY COW .- Camo trespassing on premises of the subscriber in Lawrence town-White Speckled Cow, supposed to be about 4 years old. The owner is required to come forward, prove property, &c., otherwise she will be rold as Lawrence township, Dec. 28, 1864.—pd.

DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.-Notice A is hereby given that Letters of Administra-tion have been granted to the undersigned on the estate of Patrick Quinn, late of Penn township, Clearfield county, deceased: therefore all persons indebted to said estate are required to make Immediate payment, and those having demands against the same will present them duly authenngainst the same with the same street, Adm'r. JAMES CLARK, Adm'r.

Penn township, Dec. 28, 1864.

adice' and Children's Hats, Latest Styles at Lacides and Children's Day SONS, Continental Hotel, Philadelphia.

alier Furs, The largest assertment at CHAS. OAKFORD & SONS, Continental Hotel, Philadelphia. jan. 11.

LEATHER ! LEATHER! A N assortment for sale in Clearfield, by Dec. 21. MERBELL & BIGLER. [From the New York World.]

1864, A. D.

Complete Record of Important Events— What the World has been Doing— War Gazette for the Year-List of force on the Savannah railroad, a few facts which there was no laying aside, and miles below Haynesboro'.

Concluded

4. Lieutenant-Commander Fitch defeats and drives the left wing of Hood's beautiful face of the old Doctor's wife. army on the Cumberland river .. Capture the only human being who would so fearof rebel works and cannon near Pocotali- lessly have told him the truth. For once go, S. C., by general Foster's troops, the proud spirit of the old man recoiled, Sherman's army en route for Savannah. 5. Meeting of Congress.

Rebels defeated near the Charleston, words had struck home. and Savannah Railroad. Destruction of Pocotaligo bridge on the same road.

8. The Weldon Railroad torn up by the expedition from the Army of the Poto-mac; sixteen miles of Road destroyed. In thus deciding, Judge Carlton; it is my opinion that our eyes are more fully er is living or dead, but I beseech you to 10. General Sherman's troops five miles

11. A messenger from Sherman's army our past lives in a different light." eaches the fleet.

12. The Porter and Butler expedition leaves Fortress Monroe.

naval expedition from Fortress Monroe Fort McAllister, Savannah, carried by assault by General Sherman, with its garrison and stores. The St. Albans robbers pidly change this lines, each being richer released by the Canadian Judge Coursol. Cherry Run District, immediately adjoining fore Savannah without the loss of a wag-General Sherman reports his arrival be-

14. Interview between Generals Foster and Sherman. An expedition threatening Mobile reaches Pascagoula.

Battle of Nashville commenced, General Themas attacking Hood's army at 9 A. ten silver, with noble lakes in their calm M. The rebels driven from the river, from their intrenchments, from a range of hills, on which their left rested, and forced tance, all combined to make "Carlton ed on him. "Lily, come to me, come and back upon the right and centre, losing Hall" a scene of enchanting loveliness, comfort your old father this dreary night' much artillery, many prisoners, and a So thought the owner of all this wealth of he nurmured in just such yearning tones whole line of earthworks. In the night heauty, as he sat at the window enjoying as a mother mourns a lost child. I won-lood withdraws his right from the river. the fresh air of the Southern morning, der where you are this New Year's night, 16. Battle of Nashville continued. Our and, as the cool wind fanned the old man's darking," he said, "and if you still look the will of your grandfather places you in the immediate possession of Carlton Hall' you to stoop to the unenvitable position Hoods army to flight, with a loss (in the from the land of his youth, a soft perfum- you were when I saw you last in this room and the lands about it, worth at least two of assailing in so scurrilous and undigniand men fifty-one cannon Success of Gen silent pathways of his heart. Mrs Law- of your charms; I can only see you as I eral Canby's two expeditions co-operating son saw the change that was passing in saw you at your New Year's party twenty

17. General McCook defeats the rebel General Lyon at Ashbyville, Ky. Con-tinued success of Thomas in pursuit of

18. Defeat of a part of the rebel Gener-Lyon's force at Hopkinsville, Ky.

19. The President issues a proclamation to fill deficiencies in the last draft, and ordering a draft in all districts which had brow, but in a moment he answered : new light in his face and the vigor of his the great trees around "Carlton Hall" not filled their quotas on February 15 .-General Custer's cavairy start on an expe- her from her mother's dying arms?"

dition up the Shenandoah Valley.

20 General Sherman demanded the second Mrs surrender of Savannah. The city evacuaderstand?"

ted by Hardee's army in the night. 21. Occupation of Sayannah, Ga., by bers. Admiral Farragut appointed Vice child through a long fever when she was at this hour?" Admiral. Admiral Porter's fleet appears before Wilmington.

22. Loss of the United States transport North American, by foundering at sea .-One hundred and ninety-four lives lost. 24. Attack on Fort Fisher, Wilmington, by Porter's fleet. The bombardment lasts from 1 r. m. till night.

25. Attack on Fort Fisher continued. Our troops land under cover of the fire from the fleet, attack the fort, but are repulsed. The land force re-embark. Gen. Thomas's army twenty-one miles south of Columbia. 20. Heavy cannonading on Broad river between Sherman's and Hardee's forces.

cood sixty cents per thousand cubic feet, markably handsome." The gross matter left after the extraction of the gas is said to be valuable for many old lady said," persued Mrs Lawson; "e purposes, and will consequently reduce was very much touched when she purposes, and will consequently reduce the cost of gas below the figure stated told me that, one morning, when little adies Furs, Purchasers may rely upon getting above. The process is described as ex. Lily started for school the first time, she passed the lips of Judge Cariton.

Continental Hotel, Philadelphia. jan. 11.

Continental Hotel, Philadelphia. jan. 11. and doubtless will be, extensively introduced into private as well as public buildings. Such is the confidence expressed in the success of the discovery, that we in the success of the discovery, that we gate, she turned and called out, don't the great white the gate, she turned and called out, don't the great white and the great white the great white and doubtless will be, extensively introduced in arranging a step, her brown ringlets clustering round my first quarter's salary! Oh, Lily! it my first quarter's salary! Oh, illustration of its value will be made at no > rather bad name. Some time ago, our and drank in every word that dropped in the world, Edward," said the toward, related her last conversation with Judge Devil and his lady love were taking an from the good woman's lips. He forgot but I see you are westing yourself to Cariton. Her voice broke down many evening stroll, and while walking along, that sixty years had blossomed in his gray death on my account, and that is harder times during the narrative, and the brothchattering briskly upon the namerous to- hairs, and burdened his steps; he was to bear than all my pain and suffering." pies of the day, she suddenly caught his ones more a young husband standing by band and looking smilingly in his face, the side of his bride. The door in his every hour is precious now, that your veasked; "Do you know why I cannot get heart creaked on their hard rusty hinges, ry life depends upon your getting out of religion?" "No" replied he, "I do not and the wind blew up stronger from the this dark, gloomy garrett."

A NHW YEAR'S STORY.

"Never, Mrs. Lawson!", exclaimed Judge Carlton, in a voice quivering in passion; "I will never leave one dollar of How History is Made in These Times my estate to Lelian Delacy's children. said it on the New Year's day twenty low-born artist-

"Well, Judge Carlton, of course you mustcan dispose of your property as you deem DECEMBER.

best, still it appears to me that when you are conscious that your life is drawing to Potomac, captures Stony creek station, a close that you had better lay down all be lifted was deadly pale. He arose and and destroys stores. Death of William enemities and hard feeling this side of L. Dayton, United States Minister to the grave, as they be a sorrow and burden 2. General Sherman's army passes fear, the brave, noble-hearted woman, to carry beyond." She spoke without through Millen, 6a, and encamps in its and she looked the proud, stein old man steadily in the face. Judge Carlton win-3. Wheeler's cavalry attack Sherman's ced a little. The words she spoke were they confronted him now with terrible earnesiness. He gazed upon the calmly and when he spoke again there was a change in the tone which told that the

"I settled my mind upon that subject years ago, Mrs. Lawson, and I shall not 7. An infantry and cavalry expedition alter my will, made in perfect health and start south from the Army of the Poto-strength, because I am, as you say near the grave.'

"I do not know that you are correct opened when we draw near the end of our journey, and we see many actions of Judge Carlson did not repty. He leaned his weary head back among the soft damask cushions, gazing with pardonable 18. Continued departure of the great pride upon the lately sense before him. The first morning of the and more beautiful than that which pre- mingling with the warm all of ceded it; the ample grounds which surrounded the family mansion were embettished with works of art, and all the cle gancies and luxuries that wealth could thoughts reverted to by procure. The foaming river a few yards piners. One by one the distant, rushing and leaping over its rocky bed into the abyes below, like a sea of molless very young, was she not ;" mention the name of Lelian Carlton, in hood. It should be theirs, and shall be her father's prosence. The old man this very night." And the old Judge rang calling for three hundred thousand troops started, and a shadow that was like a for lights, and the old family servant wonfrown came and went over his marble dered at the change in his master at the

"She was my only one." General Sherman, with twenty-five thous friend, Mrs. Manvers, passed the day at ing by the window. As she turned away, and bales of cotton, a large amount of our house last week," resumed the clear, Judge Carlton's errand boy stood panting stores, and one hundred and fifty cannon. steady voice of the Doctor's wife. "Per- at the door. Recapture of two of the St. Albans rob- haps you remember that she nursed your "Why Joh

"Yes, I remember her," said the Judge, night, but has revived and asked for you, with no show of interest, "Well, she was inquiring for your family, and spoke a great deal of your little her way to the hall. The master lay in daughter, as she was at that time. She the front room, with the Doctors and sermust have been a very lively child, as she vants gathered about him; but Mrs. Law-ed her head down a moment on her broth- alluded to verbatim et literatim which i described her; I fancied I could almost son saw, with a glance into the white face er's shoulder, and then lifted it suddenly see her, with the thick, glossy curls of and the glating eyes, that his end was golden-brown floating over her dimpled near. The old man's eyes opened as the glancing toward the plane, "it is flying shoulders, and her great blue eyes, full of lady entered; a new light flickered across that this New Year's day should go from shoulders, and her great blue eyes, tull of the dimness. He took the soft, white hand us with sweet songs, as it has brought us to what it contains, and see also how much carnation. No wonder you were so fond- in his cold one.

GAS AT SIXTY CENTS PER THOUSAND CUBIC saw standing the small figure and bright New Years gir't." FERT.-A process has been discovered in face of his beautiful child. And over all New York, by which gas of a superior the years of pride and bitterness which lay the kind lady. eq generated from naptha, a residium, ijo and he forgot all the anger lying deep in fingers tightened on the warm, living

"She was very like her mother, so thi prattle, and it is pleasant to bring back the loange.

religion?" "No" replied be, "I do not and the wind blew up stronger from the this dark, gloomy garrett."

And the "My dear young friends, not to me but the aggregate my dear."

It is because I love the "dev develope the "dev develope the "develope the my dear," white face of bily CeLacy kindled with a to God who softened the heart of your dred dollars, white face of bily CeLacy kindled with a to God who softened the heart of your dred dollars, white face of bily CeLacy kindled with a to God who softened the heart of your dred dollars, white face of bily CeLacy kindled with a to God who softened the heart of your dred dollars.

he and the flash of his eye and the flush o his cheek told more.

Important Battles Since January 1, years ago, when she left me a desolate, Manvers told of the time when you came the wife of a so near losing your little girl; it was near walked the room slowly and fearfully, and his massive frame shook as though in the midst of a storm. Then he flung himself into a chair, and the tempest broke where five years there had been a

"Oh, Lelian my child, my beautiful child," grouned the stricken father ; and, poured down his withered cheeks. He corner; were its principle appointments. thought of the New Year's night twenty years before when he saw his loved child for the last time : It was on that night he had banished her from his fireside, and his home had ever been dreary and stood there and scrutinized his face, gloomy since. All anger, bitterness, and revenge was forgotten in his anguish

Mrs. Lawson was a truely wise woman she spoke not till the storm of grief went over the soul of the old man. At last she pause and consider before you cut off heirs from your will. This cold winter night your grand children may be suffering for the necessaries of life; think of it, and give them, at least, the home of their other's childhood, as a New Year's

The first morning of the New Year was And the lady left the old man alone, peeping forth, modertly challed the some The first day of the New Year turned its bre-hued gray, but as he advanced he ra golden feet slowly toward the night, the wind come coldly through the meadows epose, the vast forest land and beauti- still before him the form of his beautiful valleys and the blue hills in the dis-child, in every picture the laughter look estimated at seventeen thoused wind, stealing up and down the dark, I can't believe that time could rob you his mind; and women like, she had the years ago to-night. The year seems long, quick, sympathetic instincts which a very long, since you crossed the thresh good heart and native delicacy bestow. | hold, and my heart is heavy to-night at the "Judge, your little girl was left mother memory of your wrongs. Your children shall love the old homestead where you It was years since any one had dared first opened your eyes and grew to woman-> to Lelian DeLacy's children. The dawn was just breaking in the east. Judge Carlton's errand boy stood panting outside.

"Why John, what has brought you out,

"The Judge took a poor turn in the replied the boy. Mrs. Lawson was not long in making

"Mrs. Lawsen," he said, "I have done

"Thank God!" broke from the lips of

"You are right now," and the shrivelled coal oil or petroleum, at a cost not to ex- his heart as he said; "Yes, Lelian was re- ones. "It is better to drop the burden very heavy to carry beyond." "And you forgive your daughter all the wrong she did you?" interposed the lady. "As I hope that God may forgive me and those were the last words which ever

"Another week and I shall receive towards us?" understand Mr. S. N. Pike, now of New York city, has made arrangements for its use in lighting the opera house, where an initial now newly the state of the child's sweet of the child's sweet out to the child's sweet of the child's sweet out to th

Printers' "devils" are generally, la brance."

Stirred a little. A smile gleamed about Thus appealed, Mrs. Lawson complied: the white lips. "You are the best brother and with a good deal of embarrassment, "Don't think of me Lily. I know that cluded.

den places of his soul, and his whole smile. "Oh, I long to go to the country! grandfather, do you owe all that has com stern old man was young again.

| Complete the country of the coun

Lacy's fingers were slipped through the young faces, but their voices, soft and "Ah, then," continued the lady, "Mrs. sunny brown ringlets that shaded the transparent brow of his sister. "It is so near losing your little girl; it was near a miracle that you ever saved her life; it sunshine. If we only had some friends to help us, but we are all alone in the

But we love each other?" and the abil threw her arms around her brother's

"I know that. Oh, Lily, a little while ago I thought I should be all alone, and that you would leave me," wine into the chamber where the brother such manner as to require some notice on and sister strove to comfort each other.-It was a scantily furnished dark, gloomy bowing his head in his hands, the tears, room, a few chairs, with a lounge in the

There came a loud rapid knock at the Penn tp., on the 4th a notice of which door, and Edward drew his arm away and went to answer the door. He did not recognize the two strange gentlemen who "Can you tell me anything of Mrs Lel ian DeLacy, formerly of Carlton Hall?" asked one of the gentlemen. "That was my mother's name, sir."

you are the heir of the estate of your rose and said. "It is time for me to leave grand-father, Judge Edward Carlton!"
you, Judge, and I've only a few words to say. I know not whether your daughtburning eyes of Lelian DeLacy were lifte ! I ask you in all fairness to say upon what toward them.

"She is my sister," said Edward. You will not be able to bear the tid ings we bring you?"

"Don't mind me, gentlemen," gasped the girl, "It doubtless is a mistake." "We will be able to prove so in a moment;" and then, turning to the young man, the gentlemen inquired whether he had ever heard his mother speak of her father, Judge Carlton.

lifficulty between paps and grandfather, and paps and mamma left their native place twenty years ago."

The gentleman came forward saying : trary notwithstanding. We have found you at last. I am your grandfather's lawyer. We advertised for the heirs for the last eight months, and name mentioned. It struck me at once. I made some inquiries and obtained your hundred thousand dollars."

There was something in the manner of the brother and sister which made them feel it was best they should be alone -They took leave of them with many ex- you that good men every where regard pressions of interest, and promised to call the maligning or traducing of private early the next morning.

golden fringe, on the skirt of winter, and "She was two weeks old when I received tones. That night Judge Carlton sent for stood, tall and bare, shaking a few sodden sink themselves in the balance of enlighthis lawyer; and, before he slept, his will leaves to the ground whenever the wind ened public sentiment, and I hope and "And she was your only child; the was drawn up, leaving as a "New Year's second Mrs. Carlton had no child, I ungift," Carlton Hall and all his vast estate old drawing room Edward and Lelian Decourse in this connection with a life tent. Lacy stood near the bright fire, where crimson flames gave a picturesque glow ency, After this there was a pause. "My old Mrs. Lawson had just risen and was stand- to the rich old-fashioned furniture, and In reference to what you say that "re to be well once more." young girl's lips now, and her cheeks had by one, as the records will show. rounded to soft, oval outlines. Lily lean-"Come, brother, let us have a song, so many fair and pleasant gifts." carnation. No wonder you were so fond—"Mrs. Lawsen," he said, "I have done by proud of her,"

"How well you are looking. Lily; hardly know this bright face" said Edward, looking down to it tenderly.

The Judge moved uneasily in his chair, as you wished. Last night I made my and far off in the eastland of, his life he will, leaving all to Lelia's children as a expression. Laly bent down and gazed fall back upon the reporter of the "Jour into his face.

"What are you thinking of brother?" "Of two things, Lily. One was, what could have made grandpa leave us his heirs when he was so bitter toward mamma for so many years, and the other was why he left us his property as a New Year's gift,"

"I have myself wondered over that a, great many times," "Mrs. Lawson," turning to the good lady who had just entered, "you were with ceipts, with double the present taxes or grandfather during the end of his life; all luxuries and superfluities." can you tell us what softened his heart

The sight form of the girl who lay there feel that you do, don't refuse to tell us."

er and sister were weeping before she con-"And it is to you, after all, dear Mrs.

"Poor little sister," and Edward De-Mrs. Lawson couldnot see the happy tremulous with gratitude, reached her.

LETTER FROM JOHN RUSSEL.

"To God and to you, dear friend, wa

Editor Clearfield Republisms.—In looking over your paper of the 18th inst., I noticed and article under the editorial caption, headed "Swear the witness," in which The sunlight poured a flood of golden my name is used rather freely, and in my part. In refference to a donation given to the soldiers now quartered at Carwensville by the Ladies and citizens of appeared in the Journal of the 11th inst., after quoting some remarks reported to have been made by John Patton, you say. If this writer quotes Gen. Patton correctly, which we did not allege" &c. Then follows a quotation from what was repor-"It is only necessary to prove this, and ted as an address read by me on the same occasion, followed by the emphatic declaration on your part that "This is genuine and no doubt correctly reported." New authority you so unqualifiedly vouch for the genuineness of this quotation while you so readily shield Gen. Patton by three times using the conjunction if, to cover with doubt the presumption even that he s reported correctly. Had you treated me with the same fairness, I should have been saved from the necessity of replying ; for by reference to my address, (a copy ech, frequently, sir, but there was some of which I send you) you will see that not one word of your quotation is contained in it, your positive assertion to the con-

But the whole tenor of your article in reference to me, rife with falsehoods as it came upon you by the merest accident, is, leads inevitably to the conclusion that I called at a store this evening on some you have some prejudice to gratify, some business, and while there heard your sinister motive to sim at, beyond the limits of any thing connected with the transaddress, and I am here now, my young actions of the 4th of January. Now what friend, to congratulate you, for there is no is it? I ask you, Waat is it? That is doubt you can establish your claims; and deemed of sufficient importance to induce fiel a manner my religious viewsor those The gentlemen did not ramain longer, of the society to which I belong. This may be gleated over by those of your calibre as peculiarly smart, but let me assure character, or repreachfully sneering at religious sentiments, on account of politi-Another year has passed. The last day cal or other differences, with the most of December was hanging, like a paie, signal contempt and abhorrence. I pity more than I blame persons who so far formed a vivid contrast with the gloom port says" of my once having been before a military Examining Board and there deslated upon a solemn affirmation &c., &c. I have only to say that I have no "That ride this morning has put new doubt whatever that you are well aware life in me. Oa! Edward, it is so pleasant that no oathes containing the language The bright color had returned to the you make use of were administered to a-

The enclosed address is a copy of the one respectfully ask you to publish together with the foregoing remarks, so that the public mind may be disabused in reference there is in it of "lecturing soldiers as to their duty." Remember that you canno nal' because you have unbe datingly decla red to your readers that "This is genuing and no doubt correctly reported."

JOHN RUSSELL

Moun Taxes !- The New York Tailous thus cries loadly for more taxes: "Let us have a twenty-five per cent, income tax, if necessary, with a searching inquiry into every man's business and re-nor-Many a man would like to be a St.

euerverweigerungverfassungsmussigbere hright. In Germany its a chap who un' obliged to pay taxes .- Ez Such a class is rapidly getting a foot hold in this country.

the It is stated that a Indy walked Lawson, that we owe our fortunes!" said down Broadway, New York, last Tuesda Edward, at last breaking the silence.

"My dear young friends, not to me but the aggregate two thousand and five