An Armistice Called For.

SALT LAKE, January 15, 1866.

Mr. Editor:—The time has arrived in my opinion, that an effort should be made to save the further waste of paper between "Querist," of the Journal, and your correspondent. I therefore ask for an armistice with the following conditions:—That pending the negotiations for peace—that "Querist" dismiss from his staff the two law officers of Karthaus, (one of them frequently figures at Democratic mass meetings, and made at one time a warm march to Harrisburg, and in consequence published a peace card), the graduate of penmanship and book-keeping of Iron City College, and the imported school "marm." Three stars believing that he is not able to compete with two law officers, one lawyer, one graduate and a school "marm," thinks it very ungenerous that so much talent (and the "spice" all to come yet,) should attack one void of sense, grammar, &c., characterizing him as a "madman," &c., &c.

One at a time gentlemen if you please. Yours Respectfully,

(We hope the request of our correspondent will be complied with. Those neighborhood misunderstandings are bad enough when confined to their respective localities, but become much more repugnant when promulgated through the press, and often draw innocent parties into the controversy, while the general good derived from it is so insignificant that we "can't see it."—Ed.)

White Men Must Rule America!

NEW YORK DAY-BOOK,

FOR 1866.

The DAY-BOOK proposes to stand in the future, as in the past, upon the great doctrine that this is a WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT on the basis of a FEDERAL UNION—that white supremacy and negro subordination are essential elements of American civilization and industry. It desires to be distinctly counted out of that class of journals which propose to surrender Democratic principles to a cowardly public clamor. It aspires to no higher honor than to be the organ of the great Agricultural Classes of the country against the public plunderers of all parties, who now, through banks, tariffs, and free negroism, are striving to crush them. The DAY-BOOK, or its substitute, THE CAUCASIAN, for four long and bloody years, kept the flag of State Rights and Constitutional Liberty flying, at a great pecuniary sacrifice, in New York, and at a time, too, when it had no other journal to keep in company. It has not, therefore, been printed merely to make money, but has chosen rather to be right and with the PEOPLE, than to court the favor of cliques and rich railroad corporations and be wrong with the few. It might have been better off pecuniarily, but it would have been badly bankrupt in principle had it taken any other course. It does not now mean to run a competition with Shady Democratic or Abolition papers, supported by political funds, robbed from the people, and it warns the masses that there are many so-called Democratic papers engaged in the conspiracy to mortgage the bones and sinews of the farming and industrial classes to bondholders and capitalists, and surrender the old Union and the old Constitution to the Mongrelists. It, therefore, calls upon all true men to stand by it for another year's fight with the Abolitionists, monopolists and public plunderers. The DAY-BOOK is now generally recognized as the leading Democratic weekly of the country, and has the largest circulation of any published, when it had no other journal of its class made up as a Family and Agricultural Journal. Especially for country circulation, with full reports of all the New York markets.
